Senator Fulton Against the Scrippers.

EDITOR TRIBUNE—Before leaving for Washington, recently, United States Senator Fulton gave his views in the Oregonian of the methods of the U. S. Land Department lately inaugurated, as follows:
 "The agents and inspectors whom the Interior Department has sent out here don't see the logical result of the policy that deprives honest citizens of the public domain for the benefit of scrippers and corporations. They're theorists, that's the devil of it, they're theorists. They don't understand how farms are carved out of the wilderness in this western region. They expect to see a field of waving grain when a man comes to prove up on his homestead claim. More than 5000 claims are held up in this state, 1200 of them in the Lakeview district.
 "Several years ago a man grown old and his sight almost gone, a veteran of the Civil War and the father of three daughters, settled on a homestead on Lewis River in the State of Washington. Each daughter took a homestead. With their own hands they ran their lines, fixed their corners, saved the timber and built their cabins. While the two elder daughters thus worked, the younger taught school at Portland to keep them and the father supplied with the necessities of life.
 "Along came some landgrabbers and protested their claims. The local office decided in favor of the women and their father. So did Commissioner Richards. But not so Secretary Hitchcock. He rejected the entries. Why? Was it so that somebody may plump down on them with scrip? * * *
 Mr. Fulton seems to have a clear grasp of the situation, and it may be hoped that he will read the riot act to the Interior Department in such a way as to make it realize the injustice the Hon. Secretary is imposing upon poor homesteaders.
 This is not the first time the Land Department has had a spasm in connection with land entries.
 It will be remembered that Commissioner W. A. J. Sparks had a spasm also, and that he carried it to the damphool point. Very like under the present regime, he made it next to impossible for a poor homesteader to get title to government land. Sparks, however, sought to beat the land-grabbers, while Mr. Hitchcock seems to be trying to make their path as rosy as possible.
 In either case it is the same to the honest homesteader who is poor, he gets ground between the upper and nether millstone; the dishonest one will be taken care of by the grabber who employs him.

The Royal Mouth and the Royal Disease.

Sudden changes of weather are especially trying, and probably to none more so than to the scrofulous and consumptive. The progress of scrofula during a normal October is commonly great. We never think of scrofula—its bunches, cutaneous eruptions, and wasting of the bodily substance—without thinking of the great good many sufferers from it have derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla, whose radical and permanent cures of this one disease are enough to make it the most famous medicine in the world. There is probably not a city or town where Hood's Sarsaparilla has not proved its merit in more homes than one, in arresting and completely eradicating scrofula, which is almost as serious and as much to be feared as its near relative, consumption.

Coos Bay News.
 Plenty of salmon in the Coquille this season. The cannery has been receiving from 1400 to 4,500 per day.
 Trolling afforded great sport in the lower bay last week. Salmon were taking the spoon lively, and some large catches were made.
 Marshal Nay sports a very handsome watchchain, which was made to order for him at Dawson City. It is composed of nuggets, held together by gold bands, and is very neat and attractive in appearance.
 The telephone line from Drain has reached Elkton, and will be in working order to Scottsburg next month. From the latter place it goes to Gardiner, which will be a great accommodation to residents of that town.
 There was a big run of silver-sides in the bay last week, and fishermen say that it was no trouble to fill a boat in short order. Neither of the canneries are being operated this season, and only a few of the fishermen are salting.
 Marshal Nay and brother, U. S. Nay, returned Saturday last from the mining region of Alaska. They were working in Placer mines near Dawson City and received good wages. They think, however, that the Yukon has seen its best times, as far as big wages are concerned, and they do not contemplate going back in the Spring.
 Nothing has since been heard of Chas. Moon, who was reported missing at Bandon a week ago Thursday. He left the hotel about 11 o'clock that night to go to the steamer Despatch, and it is supposed he fell overboard. The lifesaving crew dragged the river, but without success, and a patrol has been placed on the beach to watch for the body.

A Wonderful Escape.

Bandon Recorder.
 Fred Gross, of this place, passed through a wonderful experience on Wednesday, of last week, and the wonder is that he escaped without injury.
 He and a companion had gone down to Crook's Lake neighborhood, to hunt, and were on what is now known as the Gardner ranch. Fred was leading his horse along through the fern and came upon some planks, apparently lying upon the ground, over which he endeavored to lead his horse.
 When well upon the planks the thought occurred to him that perhaps there was a well under them, and as the thought came to him, he halted, and just as he did so the planks gave way, and down he went into a well, the horse after him and his dog on top.
 The well was dry or perhaps results might have been different. Fred went stiff-legged to the bottom, and the horse after. When they struck the bottom, he found himself lying with his head between the horse's hind feet, while the front ones were one on each side of his body. From this position he was able to crawl out from under the horse, which had broken its neck in the fall, and his companion was able to pull him out with the aid of a rope.
 Although the well was about twenty feet deep, Fred escaped without injury, one shoulder being a little sore afterward, the only suggestion that he had not been struck or bumped up solid against anything during the incident.
 Word has been received at Washington from Governor Taft that he will be ready to assume his new duties as Secretary of War sometime in January.

The Supreme Court of the United States.

In a recent decision, has proclaimed the principle that a divorce which is valid in the state in which it was granted is valid in every other state of the union, and frees both parties to the suit from the marriage tie absolutely and everywhere. This decision overrules a good many decisions of state courts, which have recently undertaken with incongruous and unfortunate results, to except decrees of divorce from the constitutional provision that "full faith and credit shall be given in each state to the public acts, records and judicial proceedings of every state." The marriage relation establishes a civil status. Every state has the right to determine for itself, within the limits of the national constitution, which shall be the civil status of its citizens, however they came to be its citizens. And its determination, under the federal constitution must be respected in every other state.

Oregon is probably now second only to California as a gold-producing state on the Pacific Coast.

What its future will be may be surmised when it is known that state is barely belted with railroads along its northern border and along its western side. Few feeders enter the great interior, and they but a short distance, while the greater portion of the state is still dependent upon the primitive means of communication and traffic. That this pioneer condition is about to pass away seems certain in the face of present activity along all lines, and dividend paying mines will be counted by the score in the very near future.—Pacific Coast Miner.

The Second Largest Sale of Property by the Sheriff that Ever Took Place in Benton County Occurred at Corvallis last week.

when 53,000 acres of land in that county, Polk and Lincoln went at auction. The property was bid in by Lawyer E. E. Wilson, representing the Coast Land & Live-Stock Co., at $95,000. The defendant in the proceeding was the Oregon Pacific Colonization Co., of Minneapolis, and the judgment under mortgage foreclosure was for $101,600.
 The extent to which land is being withdrawn from settlement in Oregon by the creation of forest reserves is so great as to become alarming and the future of the state has a black shadow over it. For one-fourth of the entire area of Oregon to be set apart for an indefinite period and withdrawn from use for grazing or agriculture is not a pleasant prospect for a loyal Oregonian to behold. If these reserves were confined within reasonable limits no complaint would be made, but the indiscriminate manner in which the Secretary of the Interior is slashing into our public domain is causing great injustice to the people of the state. One of the best object-lessons is the reduction of Grant County to half its original area and the consequent reduction of its livestock industry. The Secretary appears to think that every spot on the map marked mountainous should be set aside as a healthily timbered, snow preserving, water source tract; the people of the state to the bew- wows.—Pendleton Tribune.

Many a man would better go without lunch at all than eat the hurried lunch which forms the noon-day meal of many a business man. Hasty eating, foods hard to digest, and no time allowed for digestion are the cause of many a case of stomach "trouble."
 Disease of the stomach seriously threatens the health of the whole body and should be promptly cured. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect assimilation of food and the proper nutrition of the body on ten years ago my health became very poor, and in that time three good doctors pronounced my case the worst they had ever treated. My name is Harvey Phillips, of Florence, Ala. "I had acute stomach trouble, liver complaint, catarrh and was nervous to such an extent I could not sleep. I finally got three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and got well. Took them according to directions on the bottles, and in a few days noticed a decided improvement. I commenced to get much rest at night, and could eat with pleasure, where formerly food was like chips to me. When I had used three bottles of the Discovery I was a new man; could eat almost anything for supper, go to bed at seven P. M. and sleep until seven A. M. I am now working my trade (carpentry), every day in all kinds of weather, and think I had not taken your medicine I would now be under the seal."
