Town and County.

Storer Peirce and wife were in town Monday on business.

Charles Jamieson and wife, and several young men from Sixes attended the ball here.

Born.—to the wife of Charles Haines a 10 lb son at their home at Eckley, Feb 27 1906.

Miss Sylvia Clarbo and James Crow captured the prizes at the masked ball at Leno's hall.

E. H. Russell has been appointed Post-master of Illaha, Oregon, and took charge about two months ago.

The TRIBUNE does not stand sponsor for political readers marked with a star, and furnished for publication.

Weather turned warm last Saturday and as we go to press a warm Chinook wind is blowing, with some rain.

The five months term of school at Port Orford under Supt. Johnson closes Friday, having been very satisfactory and well attended.

Mr. J. A. Davis, a timber expert from San Francisco, has been in this vicinity several days to examine some timber near Zamwalt's.

Our young Ophir friends, Lawrence and Walton Miller came on Friday evening to take in the balls.—Lawrence being one of the musicians.

The Gold Hill News has a fine article on the mines in that vicinity and a map showing their location. We missed a little on Sam's Creek in 1884, and know the vicinity.

A party just from Salem, says that it is generally conceded in the Willamette Valley that the fight for Congress is between Huston and Hawley, with Toose far behind.

We have been informed that Mrs. W. H. Wilbur died at Los Angeles, of tuberculosis a few weeks ago. Mrs. Wilbur was well known in this vicinity, and was beloved by all who knew her.

Don't forget to attend the School Entertainment Saturday night in Leno's hall at Port Orford, where you will have a good time, hear some good singing, and laugh hard enough to shake the moss from your backs.

Mr. Graham of Eugene, another right-of-way man of the Oregon Coast and Eastern Railroad came down from Bandon Saturday to consult with Mr. Newton as to methods of procedure, etc. He will go down the coast as far as Bureka.

Albert Fry of Grants Pass was in town Wednesday night. On the 18th he rode across the mountains in the storm, from Big Bend to Eckley, and had a very hard time, but got through all right. He went on down to Rogue river Thursday.

So fashionable has vice and graft become that even the Chief of Police of a small town like Eugene, was caught, indicted, and then acquitted. Some of the big Robbers of New York have set a good example by dying of broken hearts, as the kind hearted journals call it.

J. H. Friend of Portland spent a few days in this vicinity looking for oil, as near the harbor as possible. He has found a place that suits him, but the price per acre is more than he is willing to pay. He will examine further, and if suitable grounds can be obtained, he will, in 30 days commence boring.

Prof Logan will begin an eight months term of school on Elk river the 26 instant. Outside pupils will be charged one dollar per month. Prof Logan is a most successful teacher, and we would advise our young men and ladies who desire to teach to embrace this rare opportunity rather than to go away where it will cost them four times as much, and where they will not learn as much in the same time.

The 12th, 13th and 14th were three stormy days that will long be remembered as the worst March days that ever visited Port Orford. On the morning of the 14th, snow covered the ground two inches deep, while back in the hills and mountains it is no doubt very deep. For three days it was a succession of snow storms, but the snow melted almost as fast as it fell. It has perhaps injured fruit buds and stock to some extent, but not seriously.

Our daughter Pearl arrived home last Saturday, having left Salem last Wednesday and come in by way of Roseburg.

There are now five Republican candidates for U. S. Senator as follows: Jonathan Bourne, Jr., H. M. Calk, S. A. Lowell, E. B. Watson and E. L. Smith.

Thos Donah, the mail carrier, says that the snow was 10 inches deep Wednesday morning on the Port Orford mountain. It was 5 inches deep on the Port Orford Heads.

Judge Bailey bought of W. Riley, the old Riley home at Gold Beach and will erect a new house on the place before moving. Walter Riley expects to locate at San Jose, where his wife is now visiting at Mrs. Wright's.

Every family in Curry County ought to have what is known as the Geological map of the northern half of the county, called the "Port Orford Folio." Send 25 cts to Charles D. Walcott, Director Geological Survey, Washington, D. C. for Port Orford Folio No. 89.

John Engleman, who has been driving a bull team in a logging camp on Coquille river all winter, made the Tribune a call Saturday. He has gone down the coast to report upon the condition of a lot of timber claims that are for sale, in the interests of an intended purchaser.

Another terrible rail-road murder is Colorado caused by collision of two passenger trains and criminal carelessness. Thirty-five lives lost and many injured. A fine of not less than ten thousand dollars should be imposed on the company for every accident to passenger trains. Lives are cheap but money is dear in this gilded age of crime.

The TRIBUNE has received an eloquent and deserved tribute to the late Susan B. Anthony, which we will publish next week if possible. No nobler or braver spirit than Miss Anthony ever lived. She was the Plumed Knight of Womankind, and the women of the world will, in due time, erect in her honor the grandest monument ever erected to Woman.

The late Supreme Court Decision, which we briefly publish today is a pole star, by which Municipal Ownership can here after be safely and successfully steered by all our great cities. It looks as though Municipal Ownership will dominate all our great cities from now on, and that the idea will expand into national ownership is self evident.

Vote for Wm. J. Clarke for State Printer on Primary day, April 20th. Mr. Clarke is one of the oldest printers in the State and one of the best known country editors in Oregon. His nomination will be a tribute to the country press and they are backing him heavily for the place. Remember the name of Wm. J. Clarke is the first one under the head of State Printer.

Thomas Kingen and Mr. Urquhart, at the time of the latter's disappearance, were running a tunnel across a mammoth ledge on Lobster creek, where Mr. Kingen, who is a practical miner has made several discoveries, and says that it is the most promising field he has ever seen. He says that there is bound to be a great mining camp there before long.

A meeting was held at Port Orford Wednesday to confer again with Mr. Newton, the right-of-way man. Favorable promises were made in some instances to be decided by the route of the survey. E. W. Jensen was selected to represent Port Orford at a meeting to be held soon at Gold Beach, where an effort will be made to have the people of this county unite upon a definite plan of action.

But for the work done by Jonathan Bourne, Jr. in the past two months to arouse the people of this State to action, their direct primary election law would be a dead letter; the machine bosses would still be in the saddle, and some special privilege class attorney would now be slating by them for the United States Senate from Oregon. If the law and the Senatorship are worth saving to the people and Mr. Bourne has been the instrument of saving them, then he is the man the logic of the case designates as fitting candidate for the Senate.—Portland Labor Press.

Bad men have brass, gall, cheek, audacity, etc. Despite the moral wave that is sweeping the Country bad men are still in the ring, and at the front, with unabated energy, seeking office, and fooling the people. Barnum said a new crop of fools was born every day, and he ought to have said also that a new crop of shysters was born every day to fool them. Look out for bad men in the coming election.

Senators Platt and Depew of New York, are both unwell, and unable to look after business, in the Senate. They are both tools of the trusts, discovered and branded by the condemnation of the American people whom they have betrayed by serving Mammon. Their names are synonymous with a shyster, and it is to be hoped that the day of judgment is at hand for all such Congressmen, and officials.

From Mr. Fry we learn that Mr. Davis, who moved from Wedderburn to Grants Pass, has been very successful in business; and that Richard Guthrie, who is now married and has a son, in association with Mr. Davis in business. Times are lively at Grants Pass. Laborers are in demand at good wages. The mines are constantly growing in importance, and Southern Oregon, before long, will be one of the greatest mining fields in the world.

Walter Riley says that when at San Jose he visited Thrift et their beautiful home near the city, where they own 22 acres and raise much fruit. "Sand" Thrift has a good position in a store in Honolulu. Walter also saw Con McQueen in Frisco, says he is enjoying life and sent regards to old friends in Curry.

Tim Hays who ran the Wedderburn Hotel a while is dead. Capt. Jacobson is running the Astelpo which sails to the Coquille. Walter does not like the climate of Louisiana very well. He will leave Rogue river on the Berwick for San Jose.

Our old time friend James McVay, died at his home at Handy Ranch, after long months of suffering with a complication of diseases on Feb. 27, 1906, and was laid to rest by the side of his brother John in Gold Beach cemetery. He leaves a wife, and several nephews and nieces in San Francisco, and numerous friends to mourn his loss. Mr. McVay was born in Tyrone Co. Ireland, Sept. 1st, 1835, came to Curry County in 1859, and engaged for many years in Beach mining. He and his brother John located Handy Ranch, where he resided at the time of his death. Mr. McVay was industrious, warm hearted and witty; and his genial company will be much missed by those who knew him.

The rival Balls held here on the 17th illustrate the necessity of neighborhood unity. Many people did not attend who otherwise would have done so, as they did not wish to appear as taking sides and incurring the ill will of their friends. As it was, however, they had a good time at both balls, but much the larger crowd was at Nielsen's where a goodly array of maskers paraded, and had much fun. Mrs. Alice Zumwalt again captured the prize as the best dressed masker and Court Guerin for the best costume among the gents—the decision being popular. The music by Norman Tyler on the violin accompanied by his uncle at the piano was very fine—the dancers say there was never better dance music at Port Orford. Norman has a fine violin, and he knows how to play it.

Langlois, Ore. E. H. CHEEVER,
Mar. 28th, 1906.

Misses Anna and Katie Fromm and Miss Violet White, with their brothers came up to the ball.

What monumental cheek it must require for Alton B. Parker to advise the Democrats what to do, and still ignore Bryan!

For Coos and Curry.
Salem, Or., March 10.—Edward Rackliff, of Langlin, Republican filed his petition asking to be nominated for Joint representatives for Coos and Curry counties, and took the pledge No. 1.

(COOS DAY NEWS)
Frank Boutton, owner of the Chadwick tract of timber, containing about 8,000 acres, closed a contract on Friday last with the Simpson Lumber Company, to furnish said company with 30,000,000 feet of logs per year for five years. The Chadwick tract contains some of the finest white cedar timber in the world.

(COQUILLE HERALD)
M. O. Hawkins, of this city, has been appointed a deputy by assessor Thrift and spent last week in the vicinity of Myrtle Point assessing for the current year.

J. A. Laughhead, formerly of Bandon, now inspector of light house construction, passed through town last week to look after improvements under way at Bandon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hofess, late arrivals from Missouri, passed through town on Thursday enroute to Dairyville, where Mr. H. will join a couple of brothers who live in that section.

H. M. Brownell, the attorney, whom we mentioned lately as having decided to locate in Jackson Co., took his departure on Thursday going out over the Myrtle Point stage line.

Dairyville, Mar. 18, '06.
Editor TRIBUNE:—We wish to call attention to a matter that the County Authorities should take cognizance of—that is, the running of automobiles through the county.

So far none have appeared, but the probabilities are that the coming season will bring them here, and if any of our teams were to meet a touring car on our mountain roads, it would mean disaster and perhaps death to the driver.

No automobiles should be allowed to pass through without having an advance horseman to keep the road clear, and signboards stating this fact should be placed at both ends of the county.

OBSERVER.
Editor TRIBUNE:—The little Lounge was disposed of on the 17th, in the presence of Mrs. Louis Knapp, the Misses Anna and Katie Fromm, Rose Pfisterer, Ollie Post and Linda Sution, and Messrs Court Guerin, and Gent Russell. Orris Knapp was blindfolded and drew the tickets, handed them to Gent Russell, who called the numbers and it was checked off in the presence of the above named ladies and gentlemen, and all of them are well known for their integrity and honor, and any one of them would not stoop to allow anything unfair to be done in their presence. Of course only one could get the Lounge and Orris Knapp got it. His father paid me for 17 tickets; I gave them one and Orris paid the two dollars for five. He got the Lounge and I am glad of it. Some people will bluster and growl, so they would if an angel would come down. And if any one wishes to see me regarding the Lounge, the latch string is always on the door.

Very Respectfully,
CHAR. BARKER.

A Mule Creek Wedding

Monday, March 5th was the scene of festivities and rejoicing on Mule Creek, for on that date Miss Olive Williams and Joe Hyzer were united in the bonds of matrimony, in the presence of 42 other Mule Creekers, and it was a typical old time country wedding, reminding the old timers of their boyhood days. The scene of the wedding was at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. G. W. Billings, situated at the junction of the two streams, a white farm house surrounded by a green lawn and flower garden, with orchard and grain field in the background, and on this green lawn, in front of this cozy home, gathered 42 of the real dents of the surrounding hills, to witness the initiative marriage of the community, and while the sumptuous repast was being spread within, the merry crowd, in gay colors attired, lounged on the green sod in picturesque groups.

The nuptial knot was tied by the Hon Judge G. Elton of Big Bend, who acted his part as though accustomed to the business.

The bride was arrayed in a costume suitable to the occasion, being white in the extreme, as white flowers bedecked her hair and white kid slippers encased her dainty feet.

After the wedding supper, the orchestra played the wedding march and all danced until the chickens called for breakfast.

E. B. Burns, his wife and three children have moved in from Frisco to the Mule Mountain mines. Mr. P. and residing at the mines and giving the workings his personal attention.

The remains found in the river Feb. 2, have been identified by Mrs. N. C. Seavy of Grants Pass, as that of her dearly beloved brother who was accidentally drowned March last.

Many new comers are crossing the trail daily, and indications point to immense travel through these parts this season.

Solitude Bar is now being worked by Capt. H. Hutton, he having a force of six men there. Fine weather is lending him a helping hand.

Life Guards.
The Life Guards are two regiments of cavalry forming part of the British household troops. They are gallant soldiers, and every loyal British heart is proud of them. Not only the King's household, but yours, ours, everybody's should have its life guards. The need of them is especially great when the greatest foes of life, diseases, find allies in the very elements as cold, influenza, catarrh, the grip, and pneumonia do in the stormy month of March. The best way that we know of to guard against these diseases is to strengthen the system with Hood's Sarsaparilla—the greatest of all life guards. It removes the conditions in which these diseases make their most successful attacks, gives vigor and tone to all the vital organs and functions, and imparts a genial warmth to the blood. Remember the weaker the system the greater the exposure to disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the system strong.
