Admiral Dewey celebrated his 70th birthday Dec. 18th. The President was one of his guests.
Game Licenses expire Dec. 31st, and Deputy Wardens will be vigilantly on the lookout for violators.

Dr. Tyler spent Monday night in town on his way to Gold Beach to represent road matters to the County Court.
Commissioner Sypher was in Port Orford Monday night on his way to Gold Beach, where County Court convenes tomorrow.

Guaranteed Forest Reserve Scrip for sale in large or small quantities, by Frank E. Alley, upstairs over Land Office Roseburg, Oregon. Will place same for non resident purchasers.
The Crescent City News issued a very creditable Holiday number, and no doubt the citizens of that enterprising county will appreciate its excellence.

Oscar Mather brought down from Bandon with a four-horse team 3000 pounds of freight for N. C. Nielsen, which shows that there is bottom to our roads after all.
Asa Carey got back from Bandon Sunday, and left next morning for Pistol river with his wife and family, where Mrs. Carey will cook for Smith's sawmill.

Eugene White spent a couple of days in town the first of the week, the weather being too bad for working on his homestead. We received a pleasant call from him.
John Fromm and R. F. Pearce came up to attend the Woodmen meeting Saturday night. Al Marsh, Mike Linnach, Dave and Robt. McKenzie represented Elk river.

For a brief, masterful description of the condition of our country, read the article in this issue of the TRIBUNE, as stated by Burke Cockrane the Democratic orator of New York.
Thos. Carey and wife departed Friday for their home in North Bend.—Mr. Carey's father driving them up to Bandon. Mrs. Carey's home-coming was a sad one, but she was of great help to her relatives in their tribulations.

We received five dollars from an old friend of "Port Orford Jake," to be used in the most beneficial way for his comfort. The donor resides in Spokane, Wash., and the kindly deed shows that his heart beats right for a friend in need.
There was quite a rally of Woodmen at their hall in town last Saturday night. The hall has been carpeted and otherwise quite comfortably fitted up. The same officers were elected with the exception of two managers and the banker.

A very pleasant party of young folks assembled at the residence of Hon. W. Sutton in Port Orford on the evening of Dec. 26th to celebrate the birthday of his daughter Mary. The TRIBUNE wishes her many happy returns of the anniversary, but hopes she may never grow older except in years.

Hon. J. Huntley, as will be seen elsewhere in the TRIBUNE, announces his candidacy for the Republican nomination for County Judge. Mr. Huntley is one of our oldest citizens, a lawyer of many years experience with a practice that has made him familiar with county affairs, and possesses ability of a high order.

Considering the plant and the size of the town, and that the work was all done at home,—we wish to congratulate Editor Bath of the Bandon Recorder for having issued one of the best and neatest Holiday editions ever issued in Oregon. It would be a credit to a Metropolitan town and we hope his patrons will appreciate all that it means.
McMillan, the strong man, gave an exhibition of feats of strength at Nielsen's hall Monday night. His feats were good ones, only there were not enough of them. He was once one of the world's great wrestlers, and it is truly interesting to hear him tell of some of his great matches. It is worth while to those who have never seen a really strong man to see him in tights and examine his heavy arms.

Wonder why false eyes are made of glass, Pat?
Fathe ye blockhead how else could they see through 'em I'd like to know! Said Pat.

The TRIBUNE acknowledges the receipt of a useful and beautiful office calendar from Frank E. Alley of Roseburg.

A. Jamieson was in town Thursday. His mill is ready for sawing just as soon as the river runs down, and the weather is favorable.
Mrs. F. A. Stewart has been improving for several days past and is now able to sit up a portion of the time, and her recovery is only a question of time.

Margaret Steif, a crippled German woman of Wurtemberg, made the first Teddy Bear. No other toy of modern days ever became so speedily popular.
"What would you say if I should throw you a kiss?" asked the bashful fellow. "I would say that if it was as slow as you it would never land," said she; whereupon he took the hint and the wedding bells soon rang.

Mrs. S. A. Youkam of Coos has been elected first vice president of the State Dairywomen's Association, in recognition of the importance of Coos county which stands with Tillamook at the head of the list of dairy counties of Oregon.
Bandon has been raised to a Presidential post office, with a salary of $1100 a year. We congratulate the growing city, and are pleased that the raise shall have come during the term of the present incumbents and hope they may long live to enjoy the raise and many future ones.

Cyrus Madden made the TRIBUNE a friendly call Saturday, and states that John Crock, Dede Fitzhugh, and Alfred Haft had started up his black sand mine about two weeks ago, on a per cent of the out put. Mr. Madden is enjoying good health this winter, and is active and strong for one 76 years of age.

A masquerade at Bowman hall X'mas eve was heartily enjoyed notwithstanding the fierce storm. Some of the characters were well represented, notably one by Miss Nettie Gednes, who simulated an Indian maiden with perfect success. Miss Allen Boyce was given the prize,—she represented the Women of Woodcraft.
The subject of late forced upon our attention to the exclusion of every thing else has been the weather. We have been longing for a change; and wishing Old Sol would show his face once more. Water enough has fallen to start Uncle Sam in his Western irrigation plan if it could only be turned on in the right locality,—and still it comes.

Editor Irving S. Bath of the Recorder was here Tuesday on his way to Hillsboro to spend Christmas with his parents.
Miss Rebecca Neygren, who has been waitress at the Hotel Coquille returned to her home at Bandon last Sunday.

The Flanagan & Bennett bank of Myrtle Point, Branch No. 1, opened up Monday of this week in the elegant quarters that have been prepared for it at the corners of Spruce and Fifth street, and this city is now the home of two financial institutions, both of which are strong individually and have good sound backing. The new bank is officered by J. W. Bennett, president; J. H. Flanagan, vice president, and Louis M. Supple, cashier. It has a capital stock of $25,000 fully paid up, and is a branch of the Flanagan & Bennett bank of Marshfield.

What Ails You?
Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heartburn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?
If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from a diseased liver with indigestion, sour stomach, flatulency, etc. Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener. The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants, viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandrake root.
The following leading medical authorities, among a host of others, extol the foregoing roots for the cure of just such ailments as the above symptoms indicate: Prof. E. Hartshorn, M. D., of Jefferson Med. College, Phila.; Prof. H. C. Wood, M. D., of Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., Author of American Dispensatory; Prof. Jno. M. Scudder, M. D., Author of "Soleil Medical Discovery"; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Med. Univ. of N. Y.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., Author of Materia Medica and Prof. in Bennett Medical College, Chicago. Send name and address on Postal Card to R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive free booklet giving extracts from writings of all the above named authors and many others endorsing the strongest possible terms, each and every grain of "Golden Medical Discovery" is compounded.
Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They may be used in conjunction with "Golden Medical Discovery" if "torments are much constituted. They may be used in conjunction with "Golden Medical Discovery" if "torments are much constituted.

A GREAT record of cures, unequalled in medical history, proves Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses merit unknown to any other MEDICINE.

Much keen interest is being taken in the coming six round boxing contest between Frank Blackerby and Monte Terry, both of Bandon, and which will be held under the auspices of the Pacific Athletic Club, at Frisco club, at the Opera house, on Dec. 31. The admirers are backing their respective favorites as a sure winner. Blackerby's cleverness is being calculated to offset Terry's superior weight. Terry is a South Sea Islander, and this will be his first appearance in America. Blackerby is taking a course of training under Jack Hanley.—Bandon Recorder.

Our farm readers will be interested in learning that a commercial grade of gas may be made from corn, hay and other vegetable matters, for lighting and fuel. The fact has been demonstrated by a firm at Beatrice, Neb., which sells its product at $1.19 a thousand, which is lower than any other gas in the state. In quality it is said to be as good as coal or oil gas. Absolutely nothing is said to be used in manufacturing the gas except farm refuse. Because of the cheapness of the raw material, the gas can be manufactured and sold at a much lower rate than coal gas.—American Farmer.

COOS BAY NEWS.
Several loaded vessels are bound in the lower bay.
The municipal tax of Marshfield for 1908 is 3 1/2 mills, which is half a mill less than last year.
The barometer has been high for several days, but the weather held no attention to the glass and kept on storming just the same.
Sheriff Gage attended the masquerade at North Bend, Saturday night; but didn't devote much time to dancing, as other business demanded his attention. He arrested three saloon keepers for permitting gambling on their premises, and also arrested a number of players who were caught in the act.
It is said that the Porter mill will be improved to such an extent that it will be practically a new mill. The latest machinery is to be installed, and the cut of the mill will be increased to 150,000 feet per day. A few changes in the North Bend mill are also contemplated.
Joaquin Miller, the Post of the Sierras, well known by some of the old settlers of Coos and Curry, is about to visit Mecca, Babylon and the Holy Lands. Waikene must be getting religious in his old days, and evidently wishes to become soiled with the Sahilla Tyre before he goes to the happy hunting grounds.

(COOS BAY TIMES)
Dr. R. G. Gale, of North Bend, has been appointed marine surgeon for Coos Bay by the surgeon general at Washington, to take the place of Dr. J. T. McCormac, who sent in his resignation last October. Dr. McCormac received word yesterday that his resignation had been accepted and the North Bend physician appointed.
Word has come from Drain that about twenty more cars of steel bridge material arrived there this week for the Drain Coos Bay road. There is now piled up in South Drain enough bridge material for the 15 or more bridges that will be put in between there and Scottsburg, all having been made expressly for this road. A vast army of men will be put to work on this new road just as soon as the wet season is over.
Capt. C. Litchwork, a pioneer of this district, will leave on the Breakwater tomorrow for Portland where he will make his future home. He has sold his business, and has decided to spend the rest of his days in the larger city. His wife and daughter have already gone to Portland where they await his arrival.
Mr. Litchwork, like a number of citizens who are pioneers in Oregon, first arrived from a wreck. He was one of two men saved from the two-masted schooner Bankalation which was wrecked on Cape Blanco on May 18th, 1870. Both men were sailors on the ship which was built in North Bend, and was wrecked on her first trip. Julius Koch was the name of the other man who has since been a resident of Port Orford. At that time the construction work of the Blanco lighthouse had just commenced and both men secured a job, working on the foundations of the structure. It appeared somewhat apt that the two men saved from a wreck, which had probably been caused by the lack of a light, should set to work on a structure which was for the purpose of saving other ships.

Joaquin Miller, the Post of the Sierras, well known by some of the old settlers of Coos and Curry, is about to visit Mecca, Babylon and the Holy Lands. Waikene must be getting religious in his old days, and evidently wishes to become soiled with the Sahilla Tyre before he goes to the happy hunting grounds.

A Boston schoolboy was tall, weak and sickly.

His arms were soft and flabby. He didn't have a strong muscle in his entire body.

The physician who had attended the family for thirty years prescribed Scott's Emulsion.

NOW:
To feel that boy's arm you would think he was apprenticed to a blacksmith.

ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

Political Announcements.
For Judge.
I announce myself as a candidate for nomination on the Republican ticket for the office of County Judge of Curry County at the ensuing primary election.
J. HUNTLEY.

America Over Seventy Years Ago.
In 1831 the American people were free, but they held in their hands the land tools of slaves. They had to labor and sweat in the fields, with the crude implements that had been produced by ages of slavery. For two generations the sickles, flails, and wooden plows, with which they had tried to build up a prosperous republic, had held back agricultural progress. Let us try to reconstruct mentally the America of those days.
Enterprise was then a National characteristic. The few men who dared to suggest improvements were prosecuted as enemies of society. The first iron plows were said to poison the soil. The first railroad was torn up. The first telegraph wires were cut. The first sewing machine was smashed. And the first man who sold coal in Philadelphia was chased from the city as a swindler.
Even the railway was a dangerous toy. The telegraph was still a dream in the brain of Morse. John Deere had not invented his steam plow, nor Howe his sewing machine, nor Hoe his printing press. There were no stoves or matches or oil lamps. Petroleum was peddled as a medicine at $1 a bottle. Iron was $75 a ton. Money was about as reliable as mining stocks are today; and all the savings in all the banks would not buy the chickens in Iowa.
The total exports amounted to no more than we paid last year for diamonds and champagne. Chicago was a 12 family village. There was no West nor Middle West. Not one grain of wheat had been grown in Minnesota, the Dakotas, Nebraska, Colorado, Kansas, Washington, Nevada, Idaho, Montana, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Arizona, Wyoming, Oklahoma or Texas.

$50 Reward. $50.
I will pay fifty dollars ($50) for evidence that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who broke into my ware-house room in my stable at Dairyville on Friday night Oct. 24th 1907, and stole some liquors therefrom.
DICK SORENSEN.
