ADVERTISING RATES REASONABLE.

We acknowledge the receipt of a letter from Hon. R. D. Hume relative to the late Supreme Court Decision against his claim of Exclusive Right to fish certain waters of Rogue river. Our opinions have never agreed as to his claim of exclusive right though they do as to his tide land but we refrain from further comments at present for fear of encroaching upon his "text."

After all, it seems that Ruef is not to receive immunity, but will be tried like any other criminal, just as he ought to have been, long ago, and would have been if he had been a poor man. This thing of letting Big Thieves, like Ruef and Puter escape in order to use them as tools to convict Little Thieves, reflects no credit upon our Judges and Prosecutors.

In a letter to the Oregonian, S. A. D. Puter admits having been a Land grafter, but has since learned the error of his way, and repented, saying in substance, that there is more joy in Heaven over the salvation of one sinner than over 99 good folks. Harry Orchard has confessed to the same kind of conversion. Psychologists will say, that that is because of their being "birds of a feather".

General Phil Sheridan when asked what was the funniest thing which ever happened to him told the following story:

"One time," he said, "I was walking out among some of my cavalry men and I noticed an Irishman who was having great difficulty in keeping astride of a bucking mule. Soon after I arrived on the scene the mule got his foot caught in the stirrup and Pat shrieked at him, 'Begorrah, if you're going to get on, I'm going to get off."

The TRIBUNE said at the start that the late panic was started to accomplish three great purposes: to lower wages, to reduce the value of property, and defeat Roosevelt's nomination and it looks to day as if they had accomplished all their purposes. The volume of money in our country cuts but a small figure: it is the control of the money that counts. Our imbecile and fraudulent financial system enables a few rich scoundrels in New York to create hard times and a panic at will by gathering in money and hoarding it, and accusing the public of a "want of confidence," while the crop of ruin ripens, and they laugh in their sleeves. Our great Dailies know this, but they dare not tell the people the truth. They have unhorsed our gallant President, and the trusts are in the saddle, secure, while all else is falling.

Salem, Or., Jan. 19.—Dr. L. L. Rowland, Oregon's first Superintendent of Public Instruction, died in this city today after an illness extending over several years. The immediate cause of his death was dropsy. Dr. Rowland was born in Nashville, Tenn., in 1832 and came to Oregon with his parents in 1844.

The Spirit of Winter.

The Spirit of Winter is with us, making its presence known in many different ways—sometimes by cheery sunshine and glistening snows, and sometimes by driving winds and blinding storms. To many people it seems to take a delight in making bad things worse, for rheumatism twists harder, twinges sharper, catarrh becomes more annoying, and the many symptoms of scrofula are developed and aggravated. There is not much poetry in this, but there is TRUTH, and it is a wonder that more people don't get rid of these ailments. The medicine that cures them—Hood's Sarsaparilla—is easily obtained and there is abundant proof that its cures are radical and permanent.
