Town and County.
Johnny Coy of Ophir spent Friday in Port Orford, returning home the next day.

Alf Miller was in town last week smiling at the voters, and left for upper Curry to press his candidacy.

Dr. Mann was called to see Mrs. Hughes at the Cape last Friday night, who was quite sick with the grip.

Ed Rackleff has just received a nice lot of fresh Garden Seeds from Portland. Don't forget, but order at once.

James Kennedy passed through town Thursday after amputation to fight for the Republican nomination for Sheriff.

Mr. Bradley, the Marshfield candy man, was recently in town a couple of days taking orders. He returned north Monday.

Dr. Tyler was called to Bandon last Wednesday to see Mrs. O. Levee, who was very sick, but was improving when Dr. left.

A. F. Medine, representing Nol an-Earl Shoe Co. of San Francisco, was in town Friday, taking orders from our merchants. He left Saturday, going down the coast.

E. W. Jensen's announcement for Joint Representative appears in this TRIBUNE. Mr. Jensen is well qualified to fill the position, should he be elected.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Harry of Brewster Valley, Coos county, was recently burned so badly from her clothes catching fire from a stove that she died 36 hours later.

Eugene White has taken the place of Eugene Strain as stage driver from Port Orford to Hare, and the latter will return to his home and resume the work on his dairy. There are not two better stage drivers anywhere than these two Eugene.

Ben Schuyler and wife of Bandon, spent several days in Port Orford last week. Mr. Schuyler has not been in good health for some time, and a change from the raw damp air of the coast to a warmer and dryer climate may be necessary in his case.

Asher Moore came up with a team for Judge Woodruff and took him home Thursday, the latter standing the trip remarkably well. If grit and a cheerful spirit help to cure disease, the Judge ought to win out and pull through, as his friends hope he will.

MARRIED—In San Francisco, Jan. 30th, 1908 by Rev. Bell, Hugh C. Hampton of Louisville, Kentucky and Harriette Haines of Eckley, Or. The bride is a daughter of Joseph Haines and wife of Eckley, who are among the oldest of our settlers. We wish the happy pair success and happiness.

H. A. St. Earle and W. M. Dill-enback, the Government officials who went up to Big Bend via Lobster creek and Iron Mountain returned Saturday and left by Monday's stage. They say that the snow on the Iron Mountain divide was five feet deep. Will Coy of Corbin was their guide, and though they had some rough experience they stood it well.

Taxes will become delinquent on the first Monday in April. If the full amount is paid on or before March 15th, a rebate of three per cent will be allowed. If one-half of the above taxes is paid on or before the 1st Monday in April, the time for the remaining half will be extended to the first Monday in October; if not so paid and becomes delinquent a penalty of 10 per cent and 12 per cent increase will be added.

The announcement of Otto Ismert, Rep. aspirant for Commissioner, James Kennedy, Rep. aspirant for Sheriff, W. S. Guerin, Dem. aspirant for School Superintendent, and Dan Jurgensen, Rep. aspirant for Constable of Port Orford Precinct, appear in this issue. They are all well known.—Prof. Guerin having for a number of years in the past filled the position to which he aspires; while Otto Ismert is well qualified and would, without doubt, make an excellent Commissioner. The larger the number of candidates, the easier it will be for the voter to find a man to suit him. The TRIBUNE cannot hope that all will win for that would make too many officers, but it does hope that voters will be careful and vote for the best men for each office.

A letter from A. B. Sabin states that Walter Sabin, his son, is in good health and that our informant was mistaken in stating otherwise.

Blue Prints of Township maps showing all vacant lands, 50 cents each. For reliable information concerning Government land, write to Frank E. Alley, Abstractor, Roseburg Oregon.

Will Colebrook was in Port Orford yesterday interviewing the voters in his race for the Sheriff's nomination on the Republican ticket.

John R. Miller's boat is running fine and is said to be the fastest one on the Coquille river, and John R. fairly beams with smiles in consequence.

C. W. Zumwalt will be at the Sixes school house on Saturday the 7th day of March, for the purpose of registering voters. Don't forget the date.

Dr. Tyler and Dr. Mann have been in almost constant attendance upon Jesse Hale's baby all this last week, which they say is another case like the little Gauntlett child, but as the baby is getting better they have hopes of its recovery soon. The baby is only 10 months old.

The Leap Year Ball Friday night brought together about all the young men and ladies of the vicinity, as well as maturer ones. There were too many present from abroad to be enumerated, but the Ball was splendid and the young ladies showed their qualities by their successful management.

"Port Orford Jackie," the last of the Sixes Indians, died last Sunday at his home on Eureka creek, where for some time he has been in poor health and a county charge, although he had a valuable allotment claim in that section. He was about 70 years of age, and was liked by all who knew him.

Mrs. A. J. Krantz, who has been visiting her relatives here, left by Monday's stage for her home in Portland via Coos bay, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. T. L. Carey. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. F. A. Stewart, who will spend a few weeks at North Bend before returning.

The beach north and south of here is literally covered with a film of oil, which came in from the ocean a few days ago, coming no doubt, either from a leak of some oil burner or from some storm-tossed vessel that used it to calm the seas. Maybe a gusher opened in the ocean bed not far away.

We are pleased to inform our readers that in the future items will appear in the TRIBUNE from Langlois, upper Rogue river and Gold Beach, in addition to our Harbor correspondence and the able writings of Hon. J. H. Upton. The correspondent from the county seat will each week give a list of the recording done in the Clerk's office.

The steamer Plant on her last northward trip, lost her propeller when off Rogue river, and drifted and sailed to Hecata Heads, where the steamer Paulson picked her up and towed her to Coos Bay, where she unloaded and was thence towed by the tug Columbia to San Francisco. The passengers presented the Captain a handsome testimonial for his skill and courage in the emergency.

Dr. Strange, well known in Coos and Curry counties and also throughout the state, died at his home in Roseburg Feb. 11th, after a lingering illness of heart trouble, aged 55 years. Mr. Strange leaves a widow and son to mourn his death.

Will Doyle was in town last night on his way home from a few weeks visit at North Bend.

John McVay Jr. and wife of Smith river, were passengers on this morning's stage for Coquille, where they expect to reside in the future.

An interesting letter from Walter Riley, now living in San Jose, Calif., states that he is now a solicitor for the printers, Eaton & Co., of that city, and likes it for the wide acquaintance and valuable experience resulting. He enclosed a card from the Mansfield Conservatory of Music, and says:

"You know the Mansfield family who used to live on Rogue river near the ferry. The two older boys, Gilbert and Dudley were great violinists. They left Curry many years ago. I can just remember Gilbert and Dudley. The other day I visited their studio here in San Jose and found a young man, Johnny Mansfield in charge. He was a baby when they left Curry and doesn't remember their home up there. He seemed very glad to see me and said he had often heard his mother speak of the Rileys. His mother is living yet and he expects soon to move her to San Jose. He says he has a good class here and is doing well. Gilbert is in San Francisco and Dudley in New York. The Mansfield Brothers have conservatories of music in San Francisco, Oakland, San Rafael, Palo Alto and San Jose. Another brother, Weller is engaged in the lumbering business in one of the interior counties in this state."

Johnny Crook of Pistol river, contemplates re-stocking his dairy, and resuming business at the old stand.

A petition was circulated in town last week for the purpose of submitting the question "Shall the precinct remain dry?" and received enough signatures to order an election. Guess the boys are getting tired of getting their booze by the grapevine route.

Will Lake came up from Harbor Saturday with John McVay Jr. and wife, who are on their way to Coos County. A big tree that had fallen across the road blocked their way and they were compelled to take their wagon apart to get past the obstruction.

"Dad," said an inquisitive youth the other day, "what is this Statement No. 1, I heard you talking about?"

"Statement No. 1, my boy," answered the knowing father, "is a Democratic scheme to elect Gov. Chamberlain U. S. Senator, but it won't work!"

The new gasoline schooner built by Edwin Ellingson at the Roy place last year will soon be in commission. J. R. Miller, her owner came up from Port Orford last week and met L. Murray, an expert gasoline engineer from Portland, sent by the Fairbank-Morse Co. to put her engines in shape which had been refusing to run, and all corrections having been made, she has made a trip or so down the river to try her going qualities which prove to be all right. She is a trim little craft and makes good time and will no doubt prove a great success as a carrier and a boon to the citizens of Curry county in the way of carrying freight to and from Port Orford. Mr. Miller went to the bay Monday to order a suit of sails made for her, and as soon as those are done she will make her debut at sea from the mouth of the Coquille.—Herald.

Capt. Jacobsen, late of the power schooner Herwich, arrived from Portland on the Alliance, on his way to the mouth of Rogue river. Some disagreement between the manager of R. D. Hogue's business at Portland and Capt. Jacobsen was the cause of his removal.

Geo. W. Loggie, formerly manager of the S. O. Co. at Empire, arrived on the bay last week on a business trip. A coyote drive, after the method of the rabbit drives of Eastern Oregon, has been planned for Williams valley, near Grants Pass, next week. Coyotes have become very numerous and are committing wholesale depredations in the pigpens and chicken-houses of the farmers. The ranchers have decided upon extermination. All the boys and men of that part of the county will join in the drive, together with a number from this city. Captains, leaders and scouts have been chosen. A line will be formed and the coyotes routed from the brush and driven to the central rendezvous. No guns will be allowed. Clubs will be the only weapons and dogs will assist in the drive.—Gold Hill News.

A Lazy Liver
May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as an average thing to treat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with over work. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretion of the bile, makes the gallbladder, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the deflection of other organs.

If you have bitter or hot taste in the morning, poor or irregular appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, dependent, frequent headaches, pain or distress, "sore" back, nervousness, or indigestion, or if you are troubled with any of the above symptoms, you need a purgative to cleanse the system. Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret medicine of known composition.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for Circulars free.
