Town and County.

Lorin Forty is now handling the ribbons on the stage line from here to Corbin.

Willie Crewe was in town last week on his way to his parent's home at Myrtle Point.

Walton Miller came up from Euchre creek Sunday, and has resumed work on his homestead on Hubbard's creek.

Frank Cook, S. P. Peirce and Mr. and Mrs. Pickett were in from their Sixes river homes yesterday, attending to business.

Elizabeth Gauntlett, the little meningitis patient at Gold Beach, is reported to have again taken a turn for the worse.

John R. Miller is expected down from Coos bay in a few days with his gasoline boat and some 30 tons of freight for this place.

F. A. Stewart was a passenger on last Thursday's stage for Rogue river, where he will spend a few weeks visiting and attending to business.

J. H. Zumwalt spent Sunday in Port Orford and returned to Bandon the following day where he has been employed on the government works.

BORN—February 22, 1908, to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Curry, a son. Jim was able to be in town Monday and was enquiring for a hatchet to give to the youthful George.

Dr. Tyler passed through town Sunday in answer to a call from Delos Woodruff's. The latters condition has not improved since his return from San Francisco.

Will Colebrook was in town Sunday night on his return from an electioneering tour of northern Curry. He seemed well satisfied with the encouragement he received.

The fair weather of the past week has started farmers to work at their spring plowing, while early fruit trees are budding out and the violets and buttercups are showing their heads above the ground.

Oscar Neygren, who has been driving the lower stage for some time, resigned his position and went to Bandon Friday, where he will be met by Eugene Strain and and the two boys will go on a pleasure trip to Eastern Oregon.

Two battleships, the Colorado and Pennsylvania, passed up the coast Friday morning. They were plainly visible from the shore, and were in communication with the wireless station at Cape Blanco but did not state their business or destination.

Jas. Lane's announcement for constable of this precinct appears in this issue of the TRIBUNE. Jim is a Port Orford boy and so well known that comment is unnecessary. Suffice it to say that he is not lacking in any of the qualities that are needed to make a most efficient officer.

A debate was had in the Port Orford school Friday on the woman suffrage question, the boys taking the affirmative and the girls the negative. By out talking the boys the young ladies won the decision, but by doing so deprived themselves of the right to consistently plead their cause, which fact the defeated youngsters will no doubt remember.

Julius Smith was in town Saturday on his way to visit his boyhood home at Gold Beach, after an absence of several years, during which time he served four years in Uncle Sam's navy. He is fresh from the Philippines, where he says extensive war preparations are being carried on, and he believes that a clash with Japan is inevitable. Julius has twice rounded the world, and has been in many foreign lands, yet he says that in his travels he did not find a place that looked as good to him as old Curry does.

Fourteen W. O. W. choppers, including a full quota of officers met in their hall in Port Orford last Saturday night. Through the efforts of four of the Elk river members the lodge was treated to an agreeable surprise in the donation of four social tables and a set of five stumps,—the latter are beauties and would be an ornament to any lodge in the land. They are nicely cut from oddly shaped myrtle, and the center one, cut from the swelling butt of a myrtle tree at the point where it entered the ground, is an artistic find, and would without doubt command a fancy price.

James Hughes was attending to business in town Monday.

John Fromm was up from Brushes creek Saturday, and attended the W. O. W. meeting.

If you want your life insured, consult W. A. Wood, agent for the Columbia Life and Trust Co.

Ed Rackleff has just received a nice lot of fresh Garden Seeds from Portland. Don't forget, but order at once.

Rube Gardiner, the town marshal, and C. R. Wade, an attorney, were Bandon people who had business in Port Orford the first of the week.

Blue Prints of Township maps showing all vacant lands, 50 cents each. For reliable information concerning Government land, write to Frank E. Alley, Abstracter, Roseburg Oregon.

We are in receipt of a couple of copies of the daily San Jose Mercury, in which an interesting series of articles, on the early days in Curry county, are appearing from the pen of W. F. Riley.

J. M. Woodworth passed down the coast Sunday on his return from Roseburg where he had gone with his team after a gasoline engine for the boat to be used in carrying the mail from Gold Beach to the Illinois.

A petition was being circulated in Port Orford last week, asking for a vote on the local option question, but as a good many of our people are satisfied with the present "dry" state of affairs it is doubtful if a change can be secured.

Miss Kabkee, who has been nursing little Elizabeth Gauntlett at Gold Beach for the past six weeks, stopped over Sunday at the Knapp hotel on her way home, to which we understand she is returning on account of the illness of her father.

Jim Neygren came down from Bandon last Thursday, returning by stage the next day. He has been employed in the government works at that place, but is taking a lay-off as one of his legs was badly bruised by a falling rock a short time ago.

The following clipping from a San Francisco paper was sent to the TRIBUNE. Mrs Bowen was formerly Miss Anna Jurgensen of this place.

"DIED—In this city February 17, Harold A. J., dearly beloved son of Joseph and Anna Bowen, a native of San Francisco, aged six months and 28 days."

The TRIBUNE family were guests of Mr and Mrs P. J. Lindberg for the noon day meal last Saturday, the occasion being in honor of a triple birthday—George Washington, E. W. Jensen and W. A. Wood. An elaborate feast was prepared to which all did justice, and the partakers departed to their homes indebted to the hosts for an enjoyable and satisfying time.

A lot of youngsters gathered on the street corner last Thursday heralded the approach of a sight which looked as though Port Orford had retrograded to primeval days. The excitement was caused by Henry Axtell and his two yoke of oxen bringing a wagon load of merchandise from Bandon for N. C. Nielsen. They passed on through town the same day on their way to Mr. Axtell's ranch on upper Elk river, where he will log off some land before returning to Coos. Henry states that he and his slow plodding bovines will be open to engagement after the primaries and that for a moderate fare he will take a load of defeated candidates up the oft' traveled Salt river, and owing to the preserving qualities attached to the name of the stream along which their route lies he will guarantee a fresh arrival at the city of Disappointment. Speak early and engage your seat before the rush.

We Hear of More Cures
Of troubles originating in impure blood, scrofula, loss of appetite, catarrh, rheumatism, by Hood's Sarsaparilla than by all other so-called remedies combined. Somehow those cured by Hood's seem to stay cured, and they gladly tell the good news to others.

Scrofula Sore—"My wife had a scrofulous sore on her leg for years. Many different medicines gave but little benefit. She turned to Hood's Sarsaparilla and the sore quickly healed. It is a good blood medicine." J. N. DAFT, Crosby, Texas.

Afflicted 16 Years—"Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured me of scrofula, with which I have been troubled 16 years, and caused by vaccination. My little daughter had a scrofula swelling on her neck and Hood's Sarsaparilla also cured her." MRS. NORA HUGHEY, Hughey, Tennessee.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold everywhere. In the usual liquid, or in tablet form called Sarsatabs. 100 Doses One Dollar. Prepared only by C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucious lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for Circulars free.

A communication was received from Hon. J. H. Upton yesterday evening—one day too late for this issue.

C. W. Zumwalt will be at the Sixes school house on Saturday the 7th day of March, for the purpose of registering voters.

Asher Moore was in town last night with a team on his way to to Bandon to meet his father. The latter is returning much benefitted by his treatment at Myrtle Point.

Albert Smith of Gold Beach, passed up the coast this morning on his way to Toledo, Lincoln county, Or., where he goes to settle up an estate to which his mother has fallen heir.

Gold Beach Items.

M. Doyle, the genial Wedderburn rancher, was in town last Thursday registering a kick against his taxes.

Alf Gauntlett's little daughter Lizzie, who has been quite sick for two months, is slowly recovering.

Hon. Frank A. Stewart, of the TRIBUNE force, was in town last week looking after the interests of the estate of his son Fred, and getting ready for the contest involving the homestead of the latter.

Mr. Avery, who lives on the old Stewart ranch on upper Pistol river was seriously hurt the other day by a vicious horse. While harnessing the horse it kicked Mr. A. in the mouth, knocking out several teeth, and bruising his face. Though badly hurt, the unfortunate man was resting easy at last accounts.

Otto Ismert, one of the Republican candidates for commissioner, came up from his Pistol river home the other day and was extending the glad hands to his friends. Like Major Bagstock, Otto is "devilish sly," and his opponent should keep an eye on the musket.

Agness Items.

Editor TRIBUNE:—I will try and give you a few items from this place if you will give me space in your columns.

Mrs G. W. Baker is making a visit at Mule Creek.

Elmer Miller of Pistol River is in our vicinity.

The people of this vicinity are all enjoying the best of health.

Mr M. Lucas is out with a posse of men gathering his wild cattle.

Mr M. D. Cooley intends on raising a crop this year by fencing.

Isaac Fry is planting an orchard of several hundred trees of various kinds.

James Kennedy is expected in the town of Agness tonight with a supply of influence.

We are having some fine Spring weather now, and ranchers are doing some plowing and gardening.

C. M. Fleming came up the river today, bringing Mr Berryman, who will prospect these regions.

The launch, Sheba, made one successful trip to Agness, but they have been afraid to attempt it again.

Wm. Toleman has come and gone, but Mr Bishel is still circulating these parts. Mr Bishel is quite sure of winning out.

Mr McFarlane, a young gentleman, has located a homestead on the Illinois river, about two miles and a half from its mouth.

Mr M. Scott has filed on a timber claim in this locality, and he and Mr. McFarlane are boarding at Isaac Fry's.

We are sorry to state that Uncle Bill Rumley received some painful injuries by falling from a scaffold while engaged in felling a tree, but he is improving a little, and we hope he will soon be a well man again.

FROSTY JIM.

Langlois Items.

Mr. Rackleff has been on the sick list.

J. A. C. Freund of Portland is in town again.

We are enjoying some beautiful weather with an occasional rainy day.

Watch for the grand time at Langlois on March 17th and be there.

The new derrick being completed things are moving again at the oil well.

Miss Julia Guerin was presented by her brothers, with a beautiful new piano.

Mrs. W. H. Button left Monday for Bandon, where she will remain a few days.

Mrs. N. B. Smith is gradually gaining her health after several months illness.

Mr. Roach held service Sunday morning, but was called home by phone, his wife being very ill.

The public schoolhouse is undergoing some much needed repairs, the recent storms making it almost unsafe for use.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hale who has been seriously ill with spinal meningitis, is slowly recovering.

Robert and Chas. Russell have the tonsilitis quite badly, but under the skillful care of Dr. Mann will soon be about again.

The "Star Ranch" received six milking machines per Elizabeth. Mrs. Yoakam of Coos river, is expected down to set them up.

The Langlois girls (not Ivy and Grace) have organized a Basket Ball team under the training of Miss Walker, who is an expert player.

Mr. Davis moved Frank Pomeroy and family to Bandon last week. Mrs. Bethel intends superintending the Bethel ranch this season.

Mr. E. A. Thorhaven arrived on the last Elizabeth from a three week's stay in Calif., visiting relatives in San Jose and attending business matters in San Francisco.

Misses Marie and Jennie Bossen were sent to Eugene as delegates from the Albany Christian Endeavor last Friday, and from there they will return to their home at Langlois via Portland.

Washington's Birthday was celebrated by a Ball and the usual good time prevailed until morning. An excellent supper was served at the Pioneer Hotel to which all did ample justice. Among those present from below were Mrs. Jamieson, Ethel Jamieson, Fred Jamieson, Oscar Mather, Miss Talbot, George Mather and wife, Addie Fitzhugh and Marion Zumwalt. From New Lake came Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Davis, Miss Davis, Miss Alice Davidson and Cleve Cox. Several violin selections were rendered by Mr. Pease of Port Orford and Mr. Simmons of New Lake, which were thoroughly enjoyed by the dancers.

A Boston schoolboy was tall, weak and sickly.

His arms were soft and flabby. He didn't have a strong muscle in his entire body.

The physician who had attended the family for thirty years prescribed Scott's Emulsion.

NOW:

To feel that boy's arm you would think he was apprenticed to a blacksmith.

Editor TRIBUNE:—I am writing you today about a matter which is troubling certain bachelors in our little community a great deal these days. You see this is Leap Year and naturally all our bachelors wish to show to the best advantage possible.

Just yesterday, one of our most esteemed bachelors—Mr M—came to me with tears in his eyes and said; "Now Bear, you know this is Leap Year and I have been sprucing up a bit, and to keep all things even I've been dyeing my hair, but every time it rains I have to dye it over, because I can't find any kind of stove polish that will stand rain. What kind of stove blacking do you use?"

Any suggestions from any of your valued readers would be gratefully received—ladies preferred.
Respectfully yours,
"THE BEAR."
