Town and County.

Rev. Geo. H. Roach held services here in the morning and evening last Sunday.

Small pox is raging in Japan and people are said to be daily dying by the thousands.

Miss Wright of Del Norte, came down from Coos by Monday's stage on her way home.

Mrs. Glidden arrived by Monday's stage, and went out to her homestead on Elk river next morning.

Dave Carey of Bandon was in town Friday night, and went down to Rogue river next day on business.

Mrs. F. A. Stewart, who has been visiting her daughter at North Bend arrived home Monday night, much improved in health.

Geo. and Rob't. Forty, Clarence Zumwalt and Geo. Quigley, were deep sea fishing the first of the week and caught 32 Red fish and Ling.

Blue Prints of Township maps showing all vacant lands, 50 cents each. For reliable information concerning Government land, write to Frank E. Alley, Abstractor, Roseburg, Oregon.

Deed Fitzhugh was in town Saturday night greeting old friends, it being his first visit here since his return from Alaska, whither he may return.

There was a very enjoyable dance at Nielsen's hall Saturday night, which brought to town quite a number of the young people from the surrounding country.

The Collinwood school house, near Cleveland, Ohio, containing 400 pupils, was burned last week and two teachers and 160 children were trampled and burned to death in the panic.

Candidates who want their names on the primary ticket should send out their petitions in time, and such petitions, for a county office, must contain 5 per cent of the voters of the county.

Will Johnson who is running the Bagley ranch on Elk River, bought 22 cows of John Anderson of Denmark last week, and will milk 45 cows, this year. Will is a hustler and is getting to be an up-to-date farmer and dairyman.

D. L. Moore stood the trip to his home remarkably well, and is able, with a cane to walk around some, but says he is in no shape for a foot race. Both he and Mr. Woodruff are making a brave fight for their health, and we hope they will win.

In an article in the Coos Bay News, Hon. J. H. Upton of Curry county, gives the Coos bayites some good pointers on their waterfront, which they should hold with a grip of an Abelson for all the people, and not let a few rich men steal it away from them.

Mr. Newton representing the International School of Correspondence was in town the first of the week looking up new pupils. The school affords a fine opportunity to persons of studious habits to acquire any kind of an education at home, and its students are scattered world-wide and of all grades and ages.

Walton Miller was in town Saturday after supplies, and reports that his house on his homestead on Hubbard's creek is now habitable, but he has not decided the date of his bachelor dance. Both he and Steve Merrill are busy helping H. T. Stewart on his house, which they will have ready for occupancy in a short time.

Petitions for Hon. Ed Rackleff are in circulation for his re-nomination as Joint Representative. He did not wish for the position but the persistent urging of his many friends at last induced him to yield as a duty. In him we will have a legislator whose honor is above reproach and whose honesty has never been questioned, and our voters will not forsake him at this time for those who are untried.

We received a pleasant call from Cyrus Madden last Friday, who states that the men working his old beach mine, have sluiced off considerable top dirt, and are just beginning to wash their pay sand. This mine about 150 feet above sea level, is one of the most interesting from a geological standpoint of all our back beach mines, and has produced thousands of dollars, and will continue to do so for half a century.

Steve Merrill came up yesterday to work on his homestead on Hubbard's creek.

Theron J. Fromm, Dem. candidate for Sheriff, passed through town yesterday to interview the voters of northern Curry.

Duck hunters had better oil up their shot guns and put them away until the next open season, as the Game Warden has his eagle eye up on them.

The Capital Journal charges County candidates $5 and State or District $10, for announcement cards. The TRIBUNE charges but $2.50.

F. A. Stewart returned to Port Orford Thursday after an absence of two weeks, during which he defended the Homestead of his son, Fred D. Stewart, deceased against the contest of H. A. Stites.

B. W. Dean announces himself in this issue of the TRIBUNE as a Democratic candidate for Sheriff. Mr. Dean was once Sheriff of Jackson county, is now Deputy Game Warden, and is thoroughly competent to make a good officer.

Asa Turner's announcement as Democratic candidate for the Sheriff's nomination appears in this issue of the TRIBUNE. Asa is well known and personally popular, and his friends are picking him to win the nomination.

Mrs. Ida N. Hansen of Empire, wife of Capt. Ed Hansen, engineer on the tug Columbia, died at her home Feb. 19, 1908, while her husband was at sea on the tug, towing the disabled steamer "Plant" to San Francisco. Mrs. Hansen belonged to her mother's side to the Owens family of Douglas county, who were among the oldest pioneers of Oregon. She was a cousin of Senator Fulton's wife.

L. R. Wyatt, the absconding debtor, for whom Col. Rosa swore out a warrant, was arrested on Brush creek, nine miles below Port Orford, early Thursday morning by B. W. Dean and James Lane, and turned over to Rube Gardner, Marshall of Bandon Friday. Mr. Wyatt is a colored man, talks like a well educated person, and seems to be a victim of the financial panic. Many believe who have talked with him, that he should not have been arrested.

The week preceding last Thursday was one of mad March storms, with variable wind, and much rain, hail and snow in the nearby mountains, which are now all white, and deeply covered. But the cold spell, by checking the swelling buds, insures a better crop of fruit, while stock has not been seriously injured. Friday ushered in bright sunny weather, with delightful days, though the nights are chilly. Not a snow flake, however, has been in Port Orford, thus proving its matchless temperature.

Little Christina Olsen has been very sick. It was reported to be the dreaded Spinal Meningitis, which proved untrue. It is becoming as much of a fad to have Spinal Meningitis now as the one time fashionable Appendicitis.

Sunday was "At Home" day at the Langlois oil well and among the visitors were Mrs. Gedney, Mrs. C. A. Woolley, Mrs. Bossen, Mrs. Guerin, Mrs. W. H. Button, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Chenoweth, Dr. and Mrs. Mann, the Misses Bossen, Nettie Gedney, Wm. Russell, John Gerber, E. Bossen, H. Bossen and Allie Guerin.

Langlois Hotel register:—A. Thorhaven, Langlois; John Thorhaven, R. Beverly, C. Taylor, Dave Carey, Bandon; Robert Bolan, John Anderson, J. A. Engelman, G. W. Sydnan, John Wendell, Denmark; Dr. Mann, Mrs. Mann, Langlois; Frank Cook, Jos. Kreuzer, Chas. Quigley, Chas. Crew, Jr., W. R. Johnson, B. W. Dean, Port Orford; Jas. Conco, Marshfield; Jas. Wilson, Bandon; W. J. Emmons, Cape Blanco; W. J. Hanley, Coquille.

Little Jack Saunders, of Empire City, had the misfortune to break his right leg last week while playing with companions. The leg was fractured in two places and required the greatest skill in reducing them. Jack bore up stoically under the trying ordeal. He was treated at the Mercy hospital, North Bend, where he is at present confined and doing well.

Little Jack's mother is a sister to Lyman Noble, and was well known by the pioneers, as Emma Noble, having resided at the mouth of Rogue river until 1867. The family moved to Empire in 1867 having been formerly located on Coos Bay.

Mrs. Martha Owens—nee Jackson, a half sister of Mrs. Saunders's now lies dangerously ill at Marshfield, with small hopes of recovery.

J. R. Miller, the proprietor of the new boat Enterprise, which he is about to put on the regular run between Coos Bay and Bandon, Coquille and Port Orford, was a Marshfield visitor this week. Mr. Miller invested in some real estate adjoining the C. A. Smith mill offices, and will also build a home and move his family to this city which will be made general headquarters for the new boat. Mr. Miller met a number of Coos Bay business men and received many flattering assurances of business for his new line of transportation. The enterprise will be one of the largest gasoline boats on the bay, being 66 feet long with 13 foot beam and 5 1/2 feet in the hold. A fifty horse power engine will drive its propeller.

The Gold Bar Mining Company will close down soon, and Mr. Muncy and family will go out over the mountains. We regret to lose such nice people out of our neighborhood.

Everybody is well at this closing.

Will Pribce was up from Wedderburn with a team last week to meet Herbert Hume who was returning from a trip to San Francisco.

Langlois Items.

Mr. Rackleff spent several days of last week in Bandon.

Mrs. Ivy Cox was in town, doing some shopping Thursday.

Marie Bossen has been engaged to teach the Hare district school.

Miss Walker closed a very successful term of school Wednesday.

Wm. Russell returned to Langlois after nearly a year's absence in Wash.

Oh, Say! are you going? Every one else will be there,—at the Leap Year Ball, Mar. 14. Don't miss it.

Agate Circle No. 506 met Thursday last, with a fair attendance. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Susan Cox.

The milking machines are in running order at the Star Ranch, and in all probability will prove a great success to their owner.

Mrs. Malehorn has been having the bay window in her house treated to a fresh coat of paint, John Gerber doing the work.

Mr. Dave Carey was thrown from the freight wagon last Friday, but with the exception of several bruises experienced no other injuries.

Mrs. Olsen has ordered a tall line of the newest and smartest Millinery. Get your Easter hat there if you want to look like the other girl.

The Concert Saturday night given by Rader and Cope was thoroughly enjoyed by all who were fortunate enough to be there. Some fine Graphophone selections were rendered.

Little Christina Olsen has been very sick. It was reported to be the dreaded Spinal Meningitis, which proved untrue. It is becoming as much of a fad to have Spinal Meningitis now as the one time fashionable Appendicitis.

Sunday was "At Home" day at the Langlois oil well and among the visitors were Mrs. Gedney, Mrs. C. A. Woolley, Mrs. Bossen, Mrs. Guerin, Mrs. W. H. Button, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Agness Items.

Editor TRIBUNE:—I will again try to give you some of the few items of this country.

Since writing last we have had a big snow storm. It is reported that there is 4 1/2 feet of snow at the Big Meadows, and that means about 8 feet on beyond.

A. Aubrey of Grants Pass, is visiting his old friends in this neighborhood, and will go on to Gold Beach before returning.

Mr. Allen has let a contract for the building of a house on his homestead, which joins R. J. Canfield's.

The Gold Bar Mining Company will close down soon, and Mr. Muncy and family will go out over the mountains. We regret to lose such nice people out of our neighborhood.

Everybody is well at this closing.
FROSTY JIM.

Gold Beach Items.

Fred Caughell's new gasoline ferry boat is nearing completion.

Several new houses will be built in town the coming summer.

Alf Gauntlett is clearing off a spot to build a hall near the court house.

Many candidates took their departure for Chetco last week to interview the voters in that section.

Delmer Colgrove and Mrs. Colgrove of Mountain Ranch, visited Gold Beach on business last week.

Milt Moore brought some fine beef cattle to town last week, and now we are to have plenty of a No. 1 beefsteak.

The good weather is doing excellent work on our roads, and Postmaster Riley says that we will get a newspaper from the outside by and by.

Floyd Huntley and Jim Caughell Gold Beach boys who have been attending the Agricultural College at Corvallis this winter, write that they are pleased with the school, and are making good progress.
Frank Lowery came down from Bacon Flat last week on business, and was shaking hands on our street. Frank reports that coyotes are coming in on his stock range and killing many sheep. He says that the question, "What shall we do with the coyotes?" is the leading question in his neighborhood. That is dead easy, Frank. Just get a lot of candidates and advertise a coyote drive.
