Marshfield, Oregon, March 16 08.
To whom it may concern, I did not leave Bandon presumably to abscond from any debt whatever as was stated. I disposed of the Va chop house to Mr. Anderson for $25.00 and he was to assume the bills of contracts. I paid all to $7.04. I left the other bills, Col. Rosa's, $17.06 and others amounting to between $85 and $37, his included with most worthy Col. Blumenrother to attend to for me. I had to pursue some work, and thro the excitement of the coming of the pulp mill, etc. he was unable to attend to my business. I was sought for as though I had committed some great crime but got the courtesy of a lord. It was no secret about where I was going. I am only sorry that I went that way to get work. I have all the work that one can very well do.

I beg to remain your servant,
L. P. WYATT.
