Town and County.

Mr. Ward of Humboldt county, a half-brother of A. S. Johnston, is visiting the latter at Port Orford.

Miss Bella McKenzie, who spent the fall and winter near San Francisco, is expected home this week.

E. C. Roberts of Myrtle Point, a brother type, was in Port Orford yesterday and made the Tribune a pleasant call.

Hon. R. D. Hume will run for joint senator as an Independent, instead of as a Republican as we stated last week.

Gene White went to Roseburg to file on a claim on Hubbard creek, and during his absence Grant Cook has been driving the north-bound mail stage.

Elwood Carey has patented a rope clamp which is highly spoken of as a useful thing in a logging camp. We hope he will make a fortune with it.

A steam schooner, towing a three-masted barge, passed up the coast yesterday forenoon, steaming close to Port Orford Heads, and making a fine scene in the clear atmosphere.

We are glad to report that Miss Mary Sutton, who has been very ill with pneumonia, and Miss Katie Fromm, who has had the scarlet fever in mild form at Brush creek, are both convalescent.

George E. Chamberlain is running for U. S. Senator, and J. J. Whitney for Congress, on the Democratic ticket. Those wishing to vote for them will have to write their names on the ballot in the proper space.

We received a very pleasant call last Thursday from Mr. Dwyer of Floras Creek and Mr. Clark, of New York, a brother of Dwyer's partner, who has been making the boys a visit, which has been greatly enjoyed by all.

Hume's horses were landed at Bandon and arrived here Thursday, in charge of a colored trainer and a white boy. Skipper never looked better, and everybody hopes the beautiful horse may recover, as his trainer says he will.

If you want Ed Rackleff for joint Representative, write his name in the primary ballot in the proper space, as owing to a technical defect in his petitions, the Secretary of State would not insert his name in the ticket.

Schmitt brothers of Creswell, Oregon, were in Port Orford Monday, with a German coach stallion which they desire to sell for $2750.00. The horse is certainly a beauty, and would be of great value to the citizens of this county.

During last week a continuous gale from the northwest prevailed, and seemed to come right out of the Arctic, so chilly were the evenings. Many vessels lugged the shore to escape the full force of the wind. The roads are dry and bumpy except in the green timber.

Johnny Prock was in from the Madden mine Sat., and says that owing to shortage of water they will be unable to wash all the black sand they have stripped, but they expect to make a good clean-up soon, and will resume work in the fall.

Mrs. Ames Johnston and son got home Friday from their visit to her parents at Myrtle Point. If the forlorn look has fled from Mr. Johnston's face, and his step is a little brisker, and his clothes a little tidier, you will know the reason why. Mrs. J. reports having had an enjoyable visit.

Eight homesteaders on the Byers survey on Hubbards creek, were at Commissioner Upton's early on the 9th, and filed on their homesteads, but there is a feeling that the policy of the Land Department is against actual settlers and in favor of the scrip holders, hence, contests are expected. The law does not forbid a man to take a homestead on timber land, but bureaucracy does when it is in the mood, and a poor man can not appeal to the courts, and is therefore defrauded of his rights.

The funeral of Mr. Divelbiss, who was laid at rest last Sunday afternoon in the Port Orford cemetery, was attended by a large number of his neighbors and by all the people of Port Orford. Some appropriate songs were sung by members of the Port Orford choir. He was buried in a beautiful casket, and the grave was nicely decorated with evergreens and flowers. When the coffin was lowered, four old veterans of our war deposited evergreen, in honor of their departed comrade—a touching sight, performed by decorated ranks, soon to be no more.

Please call at Mrs. A. Nielsen's and see the nice lot of Ladies and Childrens hats, and notions.

The Curry County witnesses who went down to Los Angeles in connection with the land frauds of the P. F. and L. Co., arrived home yesterday—only three of them having testified.

Miss Rose Ferry of Marshfield arrived at Port Orford Monday, with a fine line of millinery goods, which she has opened up in Johnston's store. She is accompanied by Mrs. E. Bell of Marshfield, a cousin.

Several newcomers have located on lands between Elk and Sixes rivers of late. Places that were considered worthless are being located, and many of them will make desirable homes, where climatic conditions are so favorable.

The personal and household effects of the late Mr. Jurgensen, Sr., were sold at auction last Saturday by Administrator Johnston, Brad Dean acting as "specier." Fairly good prices were realized for most things, while a few were not bid on when offered.

Rev. George H. Roach arrived in Port Orford Saturday, and held services in the church at the usual morning and evening hours. He also conducted the funeral services of Daniel H. Divelbiss, at the grave in the Port Orford cemetery, in the afternoon.

A. A. Jamieson got back from Los Angeles Saturday, having come by train to Roseburg. The other Curry county witnesses arrived by steamer at Coos Bay Sunday. It is expected they will all have to go to Portland in May, when the case will be tried against those indicted in the Curry county land frauds.

The Tribune has been asked to state its opinion as to what candidates are most likely to be nominated; but this it declines to do; for, where there are so many aspirants, it could not name one, without slighting another equally competent. It is always hard to choose between two good men, but it is a good predicament to be in.

Death of D. H. Divelbiss.

The beautiful home of D. H. Divelbiss on Sixes river was destroyed by fire Friday with nearly all of its contents, consisting, in addition to articles found in a well-furnished home, of many valuable keepsakes, and things of rare artistic beauty and value. It was one of the completest and coziest homes in our county, where hospitality and good cheer reigned supreme. In attempting to fight the flames and save things, Mr. Divelbiss no doubt over exerted himself, and an hour or so afterward, when coming from his barn, Mr. Divelbiss suddenly fell. His son, who was near, rushed to his assistance, but the vital spark had fled beyond recall. Though enjoying good health all his life, yet he had attacks of heart trouble at times, and often said that he expected to pass away just as he did, without sickness and pain. He expressed a preference for such a mode of death. Fate granted his wish, and he died like a philosopher, with his loved ones near him, and his life work done.

Mr. Divelbiss was born in Franklin county, Penn., Oct. 16th, 1833, and was married to Mary A. Sowers, in Peoria, Ill., March 11th, 1857. They resided in Josephine County, Oregon, before coming to Curry, where they resided from 1878 until they located on their beautiful home on Sixes river.

Mr. Divelbiss was a veteran of the Civil War, and was at one time a member of the Arkansas Legislature. He was an earnest man of strong convictions, an original thinker, well read and immovable when sure of the right. He was a good companion, true to his friends, and no man ever thought more of his family. In his death a good husband, father, friend and citizen passed away at a ripe age, when death sits at the end of life, as naturally as Birth sits at its beginning.

Mr. Divelbiss is survived by his widow, and six children all grown and married but two sons. His children are Mrs. Emma R. Bowne of San Rafael, Mrs. Mary E. Haimes of Myrtle Point, and George, Newton, Ernest and Edward.

The Tribune, and entire community, extend words of heartfelt condolence and sympathy to the sorrowing relatives. May we all meet the "inevitable" bravely, for all must meet it.

Pierpoint Morgan, our financial king, is said to be very ill in Rome, where he is reported to have had a busy time dodging anarchists that wanted to "bomb" him.

Miss Ferry and Mrs. Bell of Marshfield will be in Wedderburn Thursday night and remain over Sunday, with their fine line of Spring Hats and millinery goods. As their stay will be short, call early and secure bargains.

Gold Beach Items.

The run of salmon in Rogue river so far has been very light.

Mr. Cheatum brought up a load of passengers from Chetco last Friday and reports the roads "horrible."

Hon. R. D. Hume came over from his town on the north bank last week and talked politics to the boys around the courthouse.

Alf Bagnell and Walter Tinker came down from the Mule Creek country last week to visit their old "stamping ground."

We are anxiously looking for the gasoline steamer Enterprise, the new boat that is to take the place of the Berwick.

Several capitalists looking for timber are expected from below next week to look over the claims on upper Hunter's creek.

W. A. Bishel and C. J. Smith returned from Chetco last week. Bishel was extending the glad hand during the trip, but we are unable to say just what part C. J. took in the campaign.

Langlois Items.

Mr. Gibson is convalescing.

Mrs. Merton Langlois was shopping in town Wednesday.

Mr. Thomsen and Dr. Mann visited Bandon Saturday, returning Sunday.

Miss Ivy Langlois is spending a week at the home of Miss Clio Tyler.

M. White, the derrick carpenter, spent several days of last week in town.

Mrs. Olsen has in those grass hats, that are the "best ever" for the sun and wind.

Mr. J. A. Hawkins has been very sick; requiring medical attention but at last reports was doing nicely.

Mr. Haagensen took Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Tyler to Bandon last Friday, where they will visit with friends and relatives.

Messrs. Schmitz, E. Roberts and R. Dement of Myrtle Point, were Langlois visitors Friday—taking in the dance Saturday night and going on to Sixes Sunday.

Miss Perry, the milliner of Coquille, opened a fine lot of goods at the Pioneer hotel Saturday, till Monday many beautiful hats were displayed, and the prices were very reasonable.

Clinton Malehorn moved Mr. and Mrs. Nat Dean and family to Bandon Monday, where they will reside for a time. Mr. Dean will drive Mr. Haagensen's Bandon-Langlois stage.

The Langlois Oil Well is progressing rapidly under the skillful management of J. O. Spencer, with W. H. Button driller and Charles Woolley assistant. A new cable-arrived Monday. They contemplate running a night shift soon.

A social dance took place in Bowman's hall Saturday night, but owing to short notice not very many were present. However a good time was certainly the motto of the evening. Supper was served at the Langlois hotel.

Hotel Langlois register: W. J. Emmons, E. H. Young, Bandon; Geo. Simons, Cape Blanco; J. P. Murphy, C. J. Crews, J. R. Green, Wm. Ware, Bandon; Muriel Baker, Myrtle Point; W. A. Sabin and W. Norton, city.

Ralph Green of the Golden Gate creamery of San Francisco, spent several days in town interviewing dairymen, establishing routes and arranging for the delivery of cream for the new creamery at Bandon. They expect to make 3000 pounds of butter daily.

Mrs. Rackleff gave a birthday party Monday April 6th, in honor of Ransom's eighteenth birthday. The evening was pleasantly passed with games and music, after which a dainty lunch was partaken of. Among the invited guests were: Maggie and Mattie Russell, Louie and Edie Hale, Ethel Cheever, Ruby Sorensen, Julia Guerin, Iry Langlois, Geo. Sorensen, Jno. Thorhaven, Jno. Haagensen, Gent Russell, Wm. Russell and Earl Hale.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to express my thanks to the many kind friends who extended to me their aid and sympathy during my bereavement. ELIZA WOODRUFF.

Harbor Items.

EDITOR TRIBUNE—Bright sunny weather is the order of the day, accompanied by cold northwest wind. Farmers are as busy as bees. The dairies have resumed operations with a limited output of product, owing to the shortage of pasture.

Health in this section is generally good.

Grass is growing nicely and stock is in a thriving condition.

Prospects are flattering for an abundant fruit crop in this section.

Floyd Pater arrived at Harbor from Eureka one day last week.

A cattle buyer from Grant's Pass whose name we have not learned, is in this vicinity.

Hog hunting in Hag Hollow is the order of the day. The one who gets the most hogs is considered the best man.

Operations have just started on the Crescent City and Gold Beach telephone line. Ray Cooley has the contract for building the line from the state line to the ferry at Chetco, two miles north of Harbor.

Captain Alexander, a U. S. Government land inspector, was in our vicinity a few days ago for the purpose of ferreting out land frauds. Mr. Alexander was instrumental in convicting S. A. D. Pater and other defrauders of Oregon.

The Coos Bay News hit the nail on the head when it stated that Curry county is thinly populated, but judging from the announcements in the Curry County papers, that there was no lack for candidates for the various offices.

Hon. W. A. Bishel of Gold Beach visited our town last Saturday. Word had reached Harbor that Mr. Bishel was going to make a speech on the political issues of the day, but on his arrival he declared that it was the first he had heard of it. He was prevailed on by the crowd, however, to give our citizens a speech. Mr. Bishel addressed quite a little audience before the Good Government Club in their hall on Fourth street, which was highly appreciated and loudly applauded.

Mr. Bishel is a good talker and a pleasant gentleman and we wish him success in his campaign.

Our old friend Indian Joe of Winchuck, came up from Del Norte county the other day. The old man was spruced up and looked as foxy as a French dancing master. "I hear there are ten candidates out for sheriff up in Curry," said Joe. In reply I said there were only nine. "They must think the sheriff's office is a pretty fat office or there would not be so many after it," said Joe. "Which candidate for sheriff do you think is going to win," inquired the inquisitive aborigine. He was informed that it is something like a banking game, hard to tell who would make keno. Joe laughed heartily, and said: "That's true;" and then exclaimed in Indian: "Chuee!" which is his favorite by-word.

High Pressure Days.

Men and women alike have to work incessantly with brain and hand to hold their own nowadays. Never were the demands of business, the wants of the family, the requirements of society, more numerous. The first effect of the pressure worthy effort to keep up with all these things is commonly seen in a weakened or debilitated condition of the nervous system, which results in dyspepsia, defective nutrition of both body and brain, and in extreme cases in complete nervous prostration. It is clearly seen that what is needed is what will sustain the system, give vigor and tone to the nerves, and keep the digestive and assimilative functions healthy and active. From personal knowledge, we can recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla for this purpose. It acts on all the vital organs, builds up the whole system, and fits men and women for these high-pressure days.

The effect of Scott's Emulsion on thin, pale children is magical. It makes them plump, rosy, active, happy. It contains Cod Liver Oil, Hypophosphites and Glycerine, to make fat, blood and bone, and so put together that it is easily digested by little folk. ALL DRUGGISTS, 50c. AND $1.00.

AGENTS WANTED—16x20 gray portraits 40 cents, frames 10 cents and up, sheet pictures one cent each. You can make 400 per cent profit or $36.00 per week. Catalogue and Samples free. FRANK W. WILLIAMS COMPANY, 1208 W. Taylor St., Chicago, Ill.
