There are said to be only 89 aspirants for the nomination as Vice President on the Democratic ticket.

Mr. Doyle came up from his home at Rogue river and enjoyed meeting his old friends, and the fourth of July festivities.

Miss Mary Sutton went down to Gold Beach last week and will spend several weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. Jesse Turner.

Cyrus Madden was in town Monday and made us a pleasant call. He looks well but says his health is not very good.

Last Thursday forenoon two torpedo boat destroyers went down the coast past Port Orford, at a rate of speed never before seen at this place.

Asa Carey came up Monday from his home and went back next day with a new mower, which came down from North Bend for him on the Enterprise.

Mr. Barkus passed through town yesterday on a visit to his family who reside on his homestead on Mussel creek. He will return to Coos Bay in a day or two.

James K. Mack the veteran printer and newspaper man made us a visit Monday on his way up the coast, where he will take a steamer for his home in San Francisco.

Mr. Marsters of Marshfield partner of Mr. McLain arrived in Port Orford Monday to superintend the construction of Hume's Cold Storage building here. He commenced work with a gang of men Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Alice Zumwalt has rented the Masterson residence building in town and will start a Hotel therein in a few days. It is a fine building and her ability as a cook and hostess are so well known as to guarantee her a profitable patronage.

It is reported here that C. A. Smith has bought the Waldbesen mill and property. Smith, it is said owns considerable timber in this section, throughout which there is considerable Port Orford cedar, the most valuable timber on the coast.

Monday was the hottest day of the season at Port Orford, registering 72 degrees, but a stiff breeze was blowing from the north making the temperature delightful. People do not yet appreciate the glorious climate of the Pacific coast,—but they will.

Hon. Ed Rackleff and family came down Friday evening to celebrate the fourth with us and enjoy an outing. He stretched his tent on the green flat near the church where the Azalias smile a welcome, and the cool sea breeze wafted their ozone with the aroma of flowers about him in Arcadian fashion.

Dr. Tatom the well known Dentist, who pulls teeth without pain as we know from experience, and whose work is guaranteed, will be in Port Orford July 12th, and remain only a few days. Don't forget the date. The Dr's wife has lately presented him with twins, and he is in a hurry to get home and keep up his study of "which from 'tother."

The thanks of the Tribune are due to Mr Emmons of the Cape Blanco Wireless Station for news of the Gans—Nelson fight, which Nelson won by a knockout in the 17th round. This is the first wireless news ever received by the Tribune direct from the station, and we have the promise of more in the future, which our readers will appreciate.

For the first time in history two Torpedo boats and two Destroyers went up Coos Bay last week and took aboard a supply of Coos Bay coal for a trial on their trip down the coast. This coal can be had at $4 a ton while such as they have been using cost $10. Perhaps this coal accounts for the black streamers of smoke we saw as they passed Port Orford; but they were running like scared wolves!

Our friend Upton is perhaps in error in stating that the fence between the Jensen—Tichenor properties, is a line fence. It is said here by disinterested parties that Tichenor and Jensen could not agree upon an exact line, and that Jensen built the fence alluded to, on his own land. As the true line had never been defined and as there may be litigation, hence the critical survey just made by two competent surveyors, who have just established the line about 15 feet East of the fence.

The official flower of the Alaska Yukon-Pacific exposition has been definitely selected. It is the Cactus Dahlia, a flower which grows profusely around Puget Sound.

A 62 story skyscraper is to be erected in New York which will tower 909 feet above the street, and a 150 foot flag pole will rise from the top of the building—the ball on the pole being 74 feet higher than Eiffel tower.

We received this week a fine portrait of Frank B. Tichenor, a Port Orford boy who has risen to prominence as an Organizer of the Woodmen of the World. He will attend the Democratic National Convention at Denver and act as correspondent of the Port Orford Tribune while there.

Frank Gotch of Iowa, champion catch as catch can wrestler of the world defeated Dr. Roller in two straight falls in 15 and 25 minutes, in Seattle July 1st. It is said to have been the first time that Rollers shoulders were ever pinned to the mat, either in a match or practice.

The people of Port Orford feel grateful to all those who by money and labor contributed to make our celebration a success, and especially thank Mr. Ellis and son. Prof. Wood, Mr. Meek and the Cook boys of Port Orford, who worked all day Friday preparing the grounds, with platforms, seats, etc.

Frank Moore passed through town yesterday, dressed in his best, and driving a nice top-buggy, and bound for some point on the Coquille where the sun shines and roses bloom. His brother Walter and Walton Miller a cousin, left here this morning for the same place, and if the wedding bells don't ring soon, there is no value in the signs. Frank has a beautiful home, and is one of the best young men ever raised in Curry and we congratulate both.

We publish this week an article taken from the Roseburg Review, showing that arrests are being made of parties who perjured themselves in making timber filings on lands that were occupied by squatters who had cabins and other improvements upon their claims and resided thereon. These cases orginated in Southern Oregon and are precisely similar to some cases here, which will be prosecuted if contests have to be pushed by those who had prior rights.

Mr. Merrill, the mining expert, came in from Axtell's Monday on his way to San Francisco. He was busy prospecting while there, and is so well pleased with the mineral deposits and ledges he saw that he will return about August 1st with a good outfit and set men to work developing two ledges, one of which he discovered himself. He says that if such prospects as he found were in Colorado there would be a stampede to reach them. He was over much of the mountain between Elk and Sixes and believes it is a great mineral region that will not remain hidden much longer. This has always been our emphatic opinion despite our knockers who never saw the country, even with a spy glass and would not know a fissure vein if they fell over or into one.

Dies from Heart-failure.

Mrs. Sorensen of Dairyville, wife of Dick Sorencen the pioneer hotel keeper of that place, died suddenly at their home on July 2nd of heart-failure, having been in her usual good health up to the time of the stroke, and surviving but a few minutes afterwards.

The deceased was beloved by all who knew her for her genial pleasant ways, and for her devotion to her home duties as a wife, mother, friend and neighbor. She lived to see her life work a success, in helping to create a comfortable home and rear a family of two sons and three daughters, who with her surviving husband, mourn her irreparable loss. She was buried July 3, in the Dairyville cemetery in the presence of her sorrowing family and a large concourse of sympathising friends and neighbors.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express through the columns of the Tribune our heartfelt thanks and gratitude to all our friends and neighbors for their kindly assistance and words of sympathy in the sudden affliction that came upon us, when a loving wife and affectionate mother was so quickly taken from us.

R. Sorensen and Family.

Orchard's sentence to hang has been commuted to life imprisonment in the Idaho penitentiary.

The trial of J. H. Booth, it is said, will be the last Land fraud trial until fall. He was acquitted.

The Fourth at Port Orford.

The fourth at Port Orford was a very enjoyable one, attended by a number of visitors from abroad, from Rogue river to Bandon. A stranger asked, "How comes it that there are so many handsome young ladies in so small a crowd?" We answered, "one half are our home girls and the rest are Curry county school-marms."

When the crowd had gathered at the beautiful grounds at the lake, the meeting was called to order by Prof. Wood, the chairman, who put them in good humor by a witty introduction of himself after which he introduced Hon. Ed Rackleff who opened the exercises with prayer. The Star Spangled banner was then sung by Mesdames Thresher and Stewart, and Messrs Marsh and Johnston. It was the first time Mrs. Thresher's pure soprano voice was heard by many, and though she was accompanied by three good singers in alto, bass and tenor everbody expressed delight at her singing and felt grateful for her assistance. W. T. White Sr. was then introduced, and read the Declaration of Independence in his usual eloquent and inimitable style. Singing again followed, when Mr. Thresher delivered the Oration in clear strident tones that reached every ear. His oration was not of the usual form, but was full of fancy that tickled, that created thought, of patriotism that rekindles the fires of liberty, the love of humanity, and of home and country. After the oration the crowd arose to their feet and joined in singing "America" the greatest of all our country's songs.

The table was then spread with sumptuous food, and everybody invited; besides there were numerous picnicers scattered about the clean grounds who preferred a spread in the "good old way."

The afternoon program was carried out with but little deviation.

The various races were won by the following children, Alta Sutton, Anna Laura Sutton, Frances Hurst, Lily Hurst, young ladies Lily Hurst, married woman's race Mrs. Knapp. The boys' Races were won by Lowell Johnston, Lloyd Knapp, John Masterson, George Sutton, Herbert Unican. Free for all Fred Jamieson. Old men's race Frank P. Cook. Potato race won by George Sutton, Three-legged race by Herbert Unican and Si Davis, Sack race by H. T. Stewart, Walking greased pole over water Jas. Neygren, pillow fight Jas Neygren.

The horse race in the evening on the beach was won by Robt. McKenzie's Skipper filly.

Though "booze" was in evidence, the crowd was well behaved and no disturbance marred the day.

The dance at night was all that could be expected.

The Haagensens—father, son and daughter furnished the music, and of a kind the dancers like.

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heartburn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants, viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandrake root.

The following leading medical authorities, among a host of others, extol the foregoing roots for the cure of just such ailments as the above symptoms indicate: Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Med. College, Phila.; Prof. H. C. Wood, M. D., of Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., Author of "American Dispensatory"; Prof. Jno. M. Scudder, M. D., Author of Specific Medicines; Prof. Lawrence Johnson, M. D., Med. Dept. Univ. of N. Y.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., Author of Materia Medica and Prof. in Bennett Medical College, Chicago. Send name and address on Postal Card to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive free booklet giving extracts from writings of all the above medical authors and many others endorsing, in strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient of which "Golden Medical Discovery" is composed.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They may be used in conjunction with "Golden Medical Discovery." If bowels are much constipated. They're tiny and sugar-coated.

The Coos Bay News has been publishing clippings from its old files which are very interesting to old timers. We clip the following which first appeared in the News June 23, 1875, when Siglin and Bennett were the Editors and proprietors.—Mr. Bennett being still at the helm.—a length of continual service seldom equalled in any one profession. He is a six-footer of the John L. Sullivan build, and is the same genial boy as in the days when Siglin used to delight in pointing him out as the "Fighting Editor of the News." Here's to you "Gus"—and here are the items:

"Ten cases on the Curry county circuit court docket, at the term just closed.

Asa Carman, Sheriff of Curry county is probably the most efficient tax collector in Oregon. Only about seventeen dollars delinquent taxes in his county; who can beat that?

Port Orford has probably the most equitable climate in Ore. The inhabitants say it is just as tropical in the winter as in the summer —Capt. Tichenor keeps it so.

Mr. McGraw, of San Francisco, formerly U. S. prosecuting Attorney of Oregon, arrived on the last steamer from Port Orford and took passage from Coos Bay to the city, the steamers not calling in at Port Orford on their way down.

The "Poet of the Sierras" Joaquin Miller, has returned from Europe, and is now in Boston. We may expect to soon hear of his arrival on the Pacific coast. His wife Minnie Mrytle Miller, is now residing with her mother at Port Orford. She is quite an acquisition to the society of that place.

The Fighting Editor tells quite a yarn about a whale he saw outside the bar Saturday. The tug Fearless Capt. Hill, went to tow in a schooner, and just as they got over the bar a large monster was seen on the surface. The deckhand was in the cabin when it was first seen, came up and prepared to heave a line. About this time the monster made its appearance close to the tug, and Jersey thinking it was the schooner, threw it a line and then began to curse the sailors for being all asleep."

Griffith Makes 3 Arrests.

Deputy United States Marshal W. B. Griffith, of Portland, who has been in Roseburg several different times during the past two weeks, Friday morning made three of the expected arrests, pursuant to indictments in government land cases returned by the Federal Grand jury at Portland last Saturday, June 20. The three persons arrested are Louis Kohlhagen, a local butcher, and L. S. Shipley, a well known land locator and mining speculator, and Jobe Gilpin who resides at Kohlhagen's home. Kohlhagen and Gilpin are charged with perjury and Shipley is accused of making false affidavit.

Bench warrants for the three men were issued out of the Federal court in Portland two days after the indictments were returned. In each case the amount of bonds were fixed at $1000. These will be furnished by the three defendants upon arrangements this evening before United States Commissioner W. W. Calkins, of Eugene who will arrive here on the 5:30 train.

Marshal Griffith admitted Friday that he had warrants of arrest for other persons in land cases, but he declined to make known the names of the parties wanted or where they reside. He expected, however, to serve the warrants in a day or two.

On Thursday at Medford, Griffith arrested Albert L. Cusick of that city, on a Federal warrant charging him with land perjury, and two days previously also served a warrant there upon a man named Hazelwood, accused of the same offense.

All these arrests grow out of the rush for batches of Jackson and Josephine county lands at the United States land office in this city last April. At that time twenty persons, most of them local people, filed entries on different sections thought to be available. It developed, however, that practically every valuable claim filed on had either a mineral or a squatter contestant and the result was that charges of perjury were laid before the Federal attorney at Portland. The alleged perjury was alleged to exist in the parties making entry swearings that the land was either unimproved or not chiefly valuable for its mineral. On some of the claims it is alleged that mining operations had been going on for years, while as to other claims it was contended that prior rights had long been established by squatters, who had built their cabins thereon.

The defense of the three local people arrested here is practicably analogous to the following cases cited in the Portland Oregonian received in Roseburg Friday.

Indicted by the recent Federal grand jury on a charge of perjury, Frank B. Roberts, of Salem appeared in the United States court yesterday and furnished $1000 bonds for his appearance in court when his case is called. Roberts is charged with having perjured himself by swearing falsely in a timber and stone land application in Josephine county that was recently thrown open to entry.

Several months ago a large tract of public land in Josephine county was thrown open to settlement. Under the general land laws, settlers who located upon the land and made improvements in good faith were allowed 90 days on which to make filings on the particular tracts on which they had lived and made improvements. But before the original settlers could formally file upon the land, several outsiders made prior filings. In order for them to do so it was necessary for them to made affidavit that the land applied for was not occupied or had not been improved.

This is the plan alleged to have been adopted by Roberts and by the same method a large number of the orginal settlers upon this land were about to be defrauded of their rights. There were several complaints of the kind and several were brought to the attention of United States Attorney McCourt, who immediately presented the facts before the Federal grand jury, which returned several indictments against the perjurers. Roberts is the first of probably half a dozen men indicted, who has reported to the courts and furnished bonds. He has retained the services of James Cole ex-United States attorney, to defend him.

Mr. Roberts said yesterday that if he had committed any offense against the government it was done unintentionally. He declares that he personally visited the land on which he filed and failed to find any evidence of habitation or improvements of any kind. He admits that he saw a cabin in the vicinity of the land on which he made a filing, but so far as he was able to determine, the structure was outside the bounds of his quarter section.—Roseburg Review.
