The crooked politician always urges men to vote the "straight ticket," while a good man urges men to "vote right."

Turkey has at last been granted a constitution by her frightened Sultan. But while the blind faith in the Koran endures, there will be little faith paid to the constitution by such religious, ignorant fanatics and fatalists.

"Who said rain" is the latest advertisement issued by Manager John H. Hartog, of the Eugene Commercial Club. A Eugene belle is photographed three times, standing in glasses, each of which contains rain fall for one year, one in Eugene with 38 inches, and the girl's face has a happy expression; New York City with 45 inches, and the expression becomes doubtful, while New Orleans, with 62 inches, makes her cry for help. The leaflet quotes from the report of the United States Weather Bureau that during the year 1907 Eugene had 205 days without any rain and 70 days when it rained more than one tenth of an inch.

Among honorable men, the world over, there is no offence considered so low and despisable as that of entering the private closets of families, and dragging out skeletons which may be found every where. It is only fools and men of Ghoulish natures that do such despisable deeds, as if unaware that they themselves live in glass houses, and have ghostly skeletons in their families too big and too many to be hidden in closets. Men of honor and sense do not hunt for such things, and would rather help to conceal such tortures than to expose them. Not so the fool and the Ghoul, heedless that at any time they may publish things sacred to families, and for which they may be called to account at the risk of their miserable lives, for there are "dead lines" in family secrets which no outsider can cross and live, nor should such be allowed to live!

The platform of the Independence party is itself evidence that there is no need of, or room for the party. In the main, the attempted Independence party merely copies the Democratic party's platform and restates Mr. Bryan's ideas. On the labor question it goes farther into detail than the Democratic platform does, but Mr. Bryan stands for substantially all that this platform declares for; and if voters are not satisfied with the Democratic platform and candidate, there are the socialist and labor parties and candidates, besides Tom Watson, so that a surplusage to superfluity exists.

The fact that the platform of the so-called Indedendence party is practically a duplicate of that adopted at Denver, and that by denouncing and reviling Bryan the convention declared laws almost identical to his own, shows clearly enough that the object of the movement is to beat Bryan and elect Taft; hence no one can believe in the sincerity of the declarations. Whether the prompting impulse be venomous spite or only inflated and inflamed egotism, the so-called party presents no excuse for its attempted appearance on the stage of action.—Journal.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucious lining of the Eustachian Tube.—When the tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for Circulars free.

Editor TRIBUNE:—After about three years of harassing and bedeviling Steve Adams, and finally getting him back into Colorado where they figured on a sure thing, the jury acquitted him because no sort of credence could be given to the testimony of Adjutant General Bulkeley Wells and his cut throat pal McParland or any of the gang which they rallied to their standard. A more thoroughly discredited crowd from Gooding and Borah on down it would be difficult to find.

It will be remembered that, in his closing speech to the jury in the Haywood case, Borah pledged his word and sacred honor that Orchard the unspeakable, would be hung, this to mislead the jury into the conclusion that he had not been pledged immunity for his perjury. But note what followed. Gooding as Chairman of the Board of Pardons made haste to commute his sentence to life imprisonment, to be followed later by a full pardon, no doubt.

The old story has been started afresh that John W. Mackay, with his own ungloved hands, with pick and shovel, dug his multiplied Millions out of Nevada shafts and tunnels! The facts are, however, that he and his Flood and O'Brien, the saloon keepers, made their millions by systematic extortion and roguery, with the assistance of James G. Fair, the only one of the "big four" that made any pretense of rendering service for his share of the great spoil, except that Mackay in the beginning did some industrious but never remunerative prospecting. It was not he, but Fair and hired men, who found the Bonanza group.

The scheme of the "Big Four" was to capitalize a prospect and sell shares to servant girls and all others who would bite at the alluring bait held out, to raise money for development, and when Fair the Superintendent was able, stealing secretly, to report Millions in sight, which had been uncovered at the expense of the servant girls and others aforesaid, a big assessment would be levied on the outstanding shares, advertised at great expense, sold and bid in by the conspirators, to soon be followed by a boom when the same shares were sold to investors in some cases for hundreds of dollars each.

The investors were doomed to be plucked later on by an inner circle composed of the "Big four" in the character of a big ore milling corporation.

The truth is, that Mackay had bought a titled wretch for a son in-law and returned to Paris with his wife where he was living the gay life while his Millions were being multiplied by the toil of wage slaves, supplemented by stock jobbing and "ore milling" methods such as, under decent laws, ought to have landed the gang in the penitentiary; but had not a gang pirates aided by Sharon, Jones and Stewart made the laws, and were they not entitled to all and singular the usufruct thereof?

Nay, nay, they not only made the laws, but they owned the Courts, body and breeches, whose function it was to construe them.

Lest it be objected that the above is over plain speaking, let the reader remember that the source of President Roosevelt's great popularity is to be found in the fact that he unhesitatingly calls a spade a spade and makes a personal application not infrequently. For instance, in a special message last April, and having U. S. Senator Elkins in view he said:

"The multimillionaire, a man of whom it has well been said that his face has grown hard and cruel while his body has grown soft; whose son is a fool and whose daughter is a foreign princess."

Truth is truth, and I have adhered to truth in my discussion of the the great merits of the aforesaid "Big Four," while a like characterization will fit many others not in this instance named.

The New York Journal twitting both late conventions with hypocracy in their praise of the Judiciary says:

"It is an old saying in high financial American politics that the man is poor indeed who does not 'own a judge.'

"The big man owning his judge, or his string of judges, smiles pityingly at the small individual who owns no judge at all, and tries to worry along, taking justice as it comes from the mill evenly.

"Unfortunately, this is no joke about owning judges. When a big trust pays a lawyer tens of thousands of dollars a year, year after year, and then puts him on the bench there isn't much doubt about the ownership of that judge.

"When a great giver of bribes and all around public scoundrel picks out his man and makes a federal judge of him (that happened as everybody knows in a very conspicuous case,) it isn't hard to guess who owns this judge."

The "all round great public scoundrel" referred to above was Jay Gould, and the Judicial appointment he secured in recognition of a $300,000 contribution in the Garfield campaign was that of Stanley Mathews, which appointment it will be remembered would have been defeated by the Senate on a tie vote had not Senator George Pendleton a Democrat, come to the rescue with the one vote needed to break the tie.

A Woman's Back

Has many aches and pains caused by weaknesses and falling, or other displacement, of the pelvic organs. Other symptoms of female weakness are frequent headache, dizziness, imaginary specks or dark spots floating before the eyes, gnawing sensation in stomach, dragging or bearing down in lower abdominal or pelvic region, disagreeable drains from pelvic organs, faint spells with general weakness.

If any considerable number of the above symptoms are present there is no remedy that will give quicker relief or a more permanent cure than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has a record of over forty years of cures. It is the most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine known to medical science. It is made of the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots found in our forests and contains not a drop of alcohol or harmful, or habit-forming drugs. Its ingredients are all printed on the bottle-wrapper and attested under oath as correct.

Every ingredient entering into "Favorite Prescription" has the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice—more valuable than any amount of non-professional testimonials—though the latter are not lacking, having been contributed voluntarily by grateful patients in numbers to exceed the endorsements given to any other medicine extant for the cure of woman's ills.

You cannot afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for this well proven remedy OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, even though the dealer may make a little more profit thereby. Your interest in regaining health is paramount to any selfish interest of his and it is an insult to your intelligence for him to try to palm off upon you a substitute. You know what you want and it is his business to supply the article called for.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original "Little Liver Pills" first put up by old Dr. Pierce over forty years ago, much imitated but never equaled. Little sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

Bandon Woolen Mills.

Since last Saturday night Manager R. E. L. Bedillion has secured orders for the Bandon Woolen Mills amounting to almost $80,000, one firm alone, doing business in Detroit, Michigan, sending an order for $65,000 worth of finished woolen goods.

This is the largest order in the history of the Bandon Woolen Mills and together with the big orders already ahead, will be sufficient to keep the mill running for some time to come

The Bandon Woolen Mills are becoming far famed for the excellent class of work they put out, and their finished product is being sought by the biggest and best houses in the country.

Manager Bedillion is certainly to be congratulated upon his success in operating the mill, and from the fact that orders are coming in faster than the goods can be finished, is evidence that the goods are decidedly up to the standard.

Sufficient orders are now pending to keep the mills in operation to their fullest capacity, and they will be rushed as rapidly as possible.

The big industry is one in which all Bandon feels justly proud, and if conditions continue as they appear at present, it will not be long until it will be necessary to enlarge the plant.—Bandon Recorder.

It was for selling salmon without a license that deputy game warden, Cal. W. Wright, arrested Capt, Johnson, of the Enterprise, and for which he was fined $50 and costs by Justice Pennock.

The Fifield, the new steam schooner lately built by Kruse & Banks at Porter, has been completed. The machinery has been installed and it was the intention that the vessel should have her trial trip today. She has been chartered by the C. A. Smith Lbr. Co. to run between Marshfield and San Francisco; has accommodation for thirty passengers, and will also carry freight. The Fifield is an oil burner.

The Wilhelmina was launched Thursday afternoon from Kruse & Banks shipyard at Porter. She was built for Charles Thom, of North Bend, and is 86 ft. over all, 20 feet beam and 6½ feet depth. The Wilhelmina is intended for trade between the bay and ports along the southern Oregon coast, and as her machinery was installed before launching she will be ready for business in a few days.

Mike Summerlin is the latest to get in a shot at the panther family, having laid one of the biggest brutes this week. The panther had entered the yard of Mr. Leanord, had attacked and killed his dog and was eating the carcass when shot. It was a female brute and must have been on the verge of starvation to attack a dog, though one or two similar instances have occurred in this section.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

Friederichshafen, July 1.—Count Zeppelin today out-distanced all world's records for steerable baloons. He remained in the air 12 hours, traversed the greater part of Northern Switzerland, visited Zeurich, Winterheur, and Lucerne, attained an average speed throughout of 34 miles an hour. The airship displayed splendid qualities dirigibility and answered the slightest movement of the helm, while its stability was quite up to the greatest expectations.

Chicago July 22.—The Federal court of Appeals, consisting of Judge Peter S. Grosscup, Francis E. Baker and Wm. H. Seamen, in decision handed down today, reverses the descision of Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, in the United States Supreme court, about a year ago, imposing a fine of $29,240,000 on the Standard Oil Co., of Indiana. The case is remanded for a new trial. Landis is scathingly arraigned by the appellate court, which holds that he imposed the fine when the Standard was neither legally indicted or on trial.

John Bull is Jealous.

London, July 23.—While the American battleship fleet, which sailed today from Honolulu bound for the British colonies in the Antipodes, will be given a warm reception by the officials and people of New Zealand and Australia the feeling of the mother country is far from cordial. As a matter of fact John Bull is jealous of Uncle Sam and some of the London newspapers even charge the latter with an attempt to alienate the affections of King Edwards dominions beyond the seas.

The Australians have appropriated about half a million dollars for the entertainment of the fleet and this is branded as "extravagant" by the British press.

A White Turkey, Instead of Black.

Constantinople, July 28.—As a climax of the most remarkable series kaleaidoecopre revolutionary changes in the history of Turkey that have succeeded each other in rapid succession during the last two weeks, Sultan Hamid II issued an imperial irade today that changes the entire social existance of the imperial family in conformity with the reforms recently granted to his subjects.

Henceforth Abdul Hamid, no longer despotic ruler of an absolute depotism but constitutional monarch by his own declaration of Friday, will live the life of a democratic monarch who depends upon the good will of the people for his power.

The irade issued today declares officially that Abdul, who has been a self imposed prisoner in the imperial palace for the past 21 years will henceforth appear on the street like any other citizen of Turkey.

No less sweeping in his revolutionary aspect is the second decree of the irade, which announces that henceforth princesses of the imperial family must observe monogamy. They will not be compelled or allowed to be simply the chief of a harem, but must be queen in their household.

The sultan has long been known to fret under the bondage imposed upon him by the customs of his country and is said today to be the happiest man in all Turkey.

The entire country is amazed at the latest irade of the sultan, and he is today the most popular man in Turkey.
