Town and County.

F. J. Smith, wife and daughter made a pleasant call last Thursday on their return to Seattle.

The two month old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Jess died this morning in a spasms and will be buried tomorrow at two o'clock.

Mr. Buchanan, an attorney of Roseburg, made a pleasant call on his way home from Gold Beach.

F. A. Krita and son passed through Port Orford Aug. 25 on their return to Portland from a visit to Gold Beach.

Agents of C. A. Smith are again negotiating for the Adolphsen mill on Elk river and it is believed that a sale will soon be made.

Mr. Nielsen has leased the Tichenor place here and enclosing it with a good fence, but murmurs over lawsuits are still persisting in the air—probably hot air.

Miss Anna Dean was in town last Wednesday and dropped in the Tribune office for a friendly chat. No compositor ever forgets the school where they learned to make type talk.

The cabin where Mr. Merrill's men had been living caught fire last Wednesday when all were absent and burned supplies worth $150. A new supply was taken in from Port Orford next day.

J. H. Johnston, Agent of the Bandon and Fifield, was in town Thursday and says the Fifield will call in here before long after lumber and Matchwood. He was accompanied by A. Myres of Bandon.

Wednesday night a south wind came up from the ocean with the delightful breath of our summer winters, and the rain pattered on the window panes like fairy drumbeats calling all living things to dance and rejoice.

Dr. L. L. Higgins of Oakland, Calif., and his wife who have been enjoying an outing at Axtell's on Elk river made us a pleasant call last Tuesday. They left next day on their return home via Coos Bay.

Dr. Elgin spent a day or two in town last week greeting his old friends. His health is not very good nor yet very poor for one of his age, but his cheerful philosophy grows stronger as time strengthens its wisdom.

H. A. Butters who is said to be a millionaire mining man who has been spending some time at the Axtell mine, left for San Francisco last week accompanied by his amanuensis and assistants. If the tunnel started strikes as good ore as anticipated, he says we shall see him often in the future.

H. T. Stewart, editor and proprietor of the TRIBUNE, left here last week with his wife to visit relatives at North Bend and attend the Fair at Marshfield, being the Fair Commissioner from Curry county. He went overland via Bullards ferry and Empire.

Ray Hall, a brother of Mrs. H. T. Stewart, arrived in Port Orford last week, and will probably make his home in this section. He is a young man just of age, and having been brought up in this climate, he says he has had enough of the climate of Southern California the past three years to make him appreciate Coos and Curry for the rest of his days.

The term of the Circuit court at Gold Beach last week, lasted only a day and a half. There was one jury trial in a Minor Assault case resulting in a hung jury. The Injunction on the Denmark-Sixes Road case was dissolved, but we are told that an appeal will be taken to the Supreme Court. In the meanwhile the road will be built, the money paid out to the contractor, and the county will have the road—and there you are!

Frank Gillman's patented dredger for river bed mining will soon be in operation on Rogue river near Galice creek. If successful it will revolutionize river bed mining and give its plucky inventor a fortune. Frank Gillman married Maud Carey of Curry county, hence our people take unusual interest in the inventor and hope he will succeed. Frank's head was always buzzing with invention, and it is to such men that civilization owes its deepest debt of gratitude.

The wife of Judge E. A. Bailey, of Gold Beach, gave birth to a 12 pound son on Aug. 25.

Langlois Items.

H. R. Smith was doing business in town Thursday.

Mrs. Z. Boice returned Friday to her home in Bandon.

Nellie Kerrigan and Belle Thrift who have been visiting near Langlois returned to Coquille Monday.

Wm. Sorenson wife and little daughter are spending several weeks at the Pioneer Hotel. They recently arrived from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Marshall started for Roseburg Friday with seventy five head of beef cattle for Portland buyers. They were assisted by Ralph Cope and R. B. Turner.

Jessie Bosen closed six months term of school in the New Lake district.

Atty. L. A. Roberts of Myrtle Point spent several days at the home of E. Backoff.

E. H. Cheever, J. Bowman and Franz Thomsen returned from Marshfield Monday.

Mrs. Geo. Fitzhugh from Sixes is staying with her daughter Mrs. Farrier, in Bandon.

Mrs. Jessie Hale passed through town Wednesday to her home on Sixes. She has been visiting relatives at the bay.

A. Davis, Rollie Davis and Walter Simpson with their families left for Redding Cal., Sunday, going overland with camping outfits.

Last Friday evening closed the Singing club for a time. A dainty luncheon was served by the members in honor of Miss Willard who departed next day for a twelve weeks stay at the Hughes home on the Sixes.

Agate Circle met Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Derrick, special organizer of Mrs. Francisco being present to instruct the Circle, also to solicit new members, in which she was very successful. A banquet was prepared for the visiting neighbors of the Port Orford Circle who honored us with their presence. Among those were Mrs. Knapp, Miss Belle McKenzie, Florence McKenzie and Mrs. A. A. Jamieson.

Rev. Miss H. Reese, an evangelist claiming to hail from Herkener, N. Y. arrived at Port Orford, Saturday, and preached Sunday morning and night in the church. She is a religious zealot evidently sincere and is to be pitied for not knowing her lack of qualifications as a public speaker. She went down to Rogue river by stage.

Mrs. Ames Johnston who underwent a surgical operation two weeks ago under Doctors Tyler and Mann has about recovered. Her sisters, Rena and Bernice Chandler of Myrtle Point, are now visiting her while her sister Rose is assisting in the household duties.

Will Doyle "laid over" Saturday in Port Orford on his return from Bandon whither he drove up with Ed Mather and family and Cecil Doyle.

James M. Bowen the barber, so long and favorably known by all the old timers of Coos and Curry, died at his home in San Francisco August 21st 1908. Mr. Bowen was an upright honorable man, and respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and two grown daughters to mourn his loss.

Gold Beach Items.

For the past few weeks Gold Beach has been enjoying an unusual amount of gaiety, what with the Teacher's institute, Marchmont races, and Circuit court, and her two hotels have been full and overflowing with visitors. Now that these events are over, she will once more settle down to her usual quietude.

Last week, while returning home from the Marchmont races, Miss Eula Childs, Miss Gladys Duley and Walter Bailey from Del Norte County, had the misfortune to be thrown from their hack near the Scott ranch. Miss Duley's collar bone was broken but the rest of the party were uninjured. At last accounts, Miss Duley's condition was rapidly improving.

X. Q. Phillips, the Crescent City merchant, arrived in Gold Beach Aug. 17th with a wagon load of merchandise and remained with us until the 26th. His wagon is quite a novelty, being specially fitted to contain the greatest amount of merchandise in the smallest possible space. Mr. Phillips seemed quite busy during his stay, attracting numerous customers by his genial smile and low prices.

The many friends of Miss Lizzie Coughell who has been ill for some days past, will be glad to learn that she is rapidly regaining health.

Gold Beach was surprised last Tuesday by the advent of an automobile, a Tourist model, North bound from California. Its occupants stated that they had no trouble in crossing sand or climbing hills. The machine, however, seemed to be working poorly as they had some trouble with it before leaving here Wednesday morning and again at Alf Miller's place where they halted until they could send to Wedderburn for new batteries.

Quite a large number of large snakes have been seen on the beaches during the past week. They are harbingers of approaching autumn, and weather prophets are predicting an early winter. But all signs fall in Oregon.

The entire public is cordially invited to attend a Ball to be given at the Cold Storage Building Saturday night.

Circuit Court Proceedings.

The case of Ida Brown vs. James Fry et al. to recover money, was dismissed per stipulation.

Wm. L. Cobb vs. P. G. Egan, suit in equity to quiet title. Amended complaint filed; Geo. W. Smith appointed referee to take testimony and report by first day of next term of court.

The case of R. E. Cox, administrator, vs. James M. Fry, to recover money, which was appealed from County Court, was dismissed per stipulation.

R. D. Hume vs. Frances Kennedy, to recover money, dismissed.

M. H. True vs. Irene Hamlin to quiet title, demurrer to complaint sustained; case continued by agreement of parties.

Nellie F. Burns, administratrix, vs. R. D. Hume, to recover money. Demurred sustained; plaintiff failed to amend; case dismissed.

Hunling Lundy and sons vs. W. T. Estberg, to recover money. Default judgment granted plaintiff for $287 and order of sale of real property.

Fair Notes.

The greater Oregon state fair will this year be the largest and best in the history of the northwest.

McElroy's band, consisting of twenty five expert musicians, has been engaged to play every day during the week of September 14-19 at the Oregon state fair at Salem.

Eight counties of Oregon have signified their intention of providing large exhibits for the state fair (Sept. 14-19). The counties to participate are: Clatsop, Columbia, Clackamas, Marion, Linn, Lane, Benton, Multnomah and Yamhill.

College Maid, a guideless pacer, has been engaged as one of the many attractions of the greater Oregon state fair (Sept. 14-19). She has a record of 2:09 for a mile, without a driver. Mr. Ervin the trainer of the mare, says she will lower this mark if given a chance on Lone Oak track.

One of the features of the greater Oregon State fair, September 14-19, will be the herd of eight performing Shetland ponies, which is owned in Fresno, Cal. The ponies will be raced every day at the fair, with boy jockies, the distance to be one-fourth of a mile. None of the shetlands is more than 42 inches high.

The ponies will be at the service of the children during the day and a ride will be one of the delights of the fair for the youngsters.

"Meet me at the Corral" will be the password for the thousands of pleasure seekers at the Greater Oregon state fair. The "Corral" is the amusement and concession street at the big exposition. Sideshows, stands and many of the restaurants of the grounds will be located here. Numerous free acts and features are being signed up. The "Corral" is a clean and legitimate attraction, no games of chance, immoral shows or fakery being allowed.

(DEL NORTE RECORD)

Many salmon are entering the Klamath river, the catch taxing the capacity of the cannery. One day last week the fishermen landed 2500 fine fish. A shipment of 700 of these was made at Eureka on the gasoline boat Kingfisher.

The steamer Charles Nelson with the schooner Borealis in tow met with an accident off this port on August 11th. The tail shaft broke and she drifted helplessly for forty hours, finally temporary repairs were made and she reached San Francisco on the 14th.

The steamer Aberdeen in crossing Humbolt bar last Monday morning struck on the rocks of the south spit and was badly battered and lies on the beach north of the Life Saving Station. A dense fog prevailed at the time of the accident.

James A. McVay, of Pistol river, Curry County, Oregon, was visiting relatives and friends here this week. Mr. McVay, as well as his brothers John and Samuel, has a homestead claim in Curry county and will prove up next December.

The committee on Ways and Means appointed by the Oregon Good Roads conference have arranged for a Good Road Convention at Tillamook on September 4th, and another at Roseburg September 22. Other meetings are under consideration and definite dates will be decided in a few days. There is universal determination to make this campaign the most effective the state has ever experienced.

William Magee, youngest son of Captain James Magee of Empire City, Coos County, Oregon, and Miss Ida Wickman were married August 25 in Oakland Calif. at the home of Mrs. Field, a mutual friend. Both the happy youngsters were raised at Empire City, where they will reside in the future. The Tribune wishes them full measure of life's choicest blessings.

Captain McDonald of the Am. S. S. W. S. Porter reports to the Branch Hydrographic Office that a large log 60 feet long, covered with grass, in Lat. 41 degrees 46 min. N. Long. 125 degrees 47 min. W.
