

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. One Copy One Year $1.50 One Copy Six Months .75 One Copy Three Months .50

Published Every Wednesday, by HARDY T. STEWART. FRANK A STEWART, Associate Editor

The printed address on your paper shows the date to which your subscription is paid.

OUR AGENTS: A. B. SARRIS, Bandon Oregon. COL. L. N. MURPHY, Gold Beach, Ore.

ADVERTISING RATES REASONABLE.

ISSUED EVERY WEDNESDAY EVENING.

Everyone of the sixteen candidates has accepted, or will accept. That's some comfort, for the buttons have all been made.

Labor Day, Sept. 14th, was marked by enormous parades of working men in all our large cities. But, while laborers parade in harmony, they do not vote together, and, until they do, they will continue to "get it in the neck." This year they will scatter their "votes like fools between six of the Presidential candidates. The trusts have nothing to fear from such a broken front.

A Cops and Curry Fair.

The Radium in its last issue gives many excellent reasons in favor of Cops and Curry making an effort at the next legislative session to be joined together in a separate fair district. Their interests as well as their history are identical, and moreover the intermarriages of pioneer families have made a tie of blood that brings us closer together as the years roll by and will produce a marked effect in maintaining the harmonious relations and spirit of fair play that has always marked our business and political relations. Not only geographical, but climatic reasons, will ever raise impassable barriers between the coast counties of Oregon and those on the other side of the mountains. No attractions that the east side can ever devise would attract many people away from the coast during the hot period of the "dog days"—and that is when the fairs are usually held, but without fairs people come to the coast by thousands to escape the heat, and to fill their dusty lungs with ozone from the sea. Give them the stimulus of a "Fair on the Coast," and they would come in ever increasing thousands.

But now comes the storm. Can the petty jealousies between Cops Bay and the Coquille be stilled? We say with sorrow, that we fear not. Where there are Dimes at stake there are always Damns! Marshfield, because of her wealth, and her success in the late Fair, would press her claims. But Marshfield is too far away from the ocean, which is the best attraction we have to offer. Coquille City is even worse off than Marshfield in this respect.

Bandon is in all respects the ideal place, and we have often heard long headed men express surprise that Bandon did not secure a good mile track and grounds for a permanent Fair. She is now wealthy enough to raise sufficient funds by assessment, and it would be the best investment she could possibly make. The older generation with small funds, did much for Bandon; let the younger men, like Bedillion, Sellmer and the Galliers and many others, get together and the thing can be done.

To get such an act through the legislature there should be a united front, and it might be necessary to compromise with the Bay, by letting the Fair be held by alternate years at Bandon and Marshfield, though, if the interests of Curry are considered, it must be conceded that in yielding to Bandon, she has given more than half way.

It is not the purpose of this article to slight any place, but we have placidly stated the position as it appears to us. We should keep in sight that policy which is best for the greater number, and promises to be best in the future. Things can be done cheaply now, that will be costly hereafter, if not impossible.

As We See It.

Senator Borah of Idaho easily looms up as the greatest man in the Northwest—a position held by Fulton, but blindly relinquished by his failure to stand up for reformations demanded by the people. Borah is now campaigning for Taft in the New England states. He is the author of Idaho's Primary Law, and he goes beyond the Republican National platform and advocates the election of U. S. Senators by the people. Had Fulton stood up for this measure alone in the Chicago convention, we could still trust him; but he chose the other side, and we believe the people will hereafter tell him to look to the "other side" for political favors. He may pull down the Chamberlain structure with some show of ethics, but it will be a Sampson—Phyllis affair. But he can plead no justification for abandoning the cause of reformations demanded by the people. Bourne's opportunity is at hand to strengthen his admitted popularity with the people, but he will have to strip bare of hypocrisy, and steer straight for wise reforms. The people are on guard with open eyes.

CURRENT TOPICS.

Editor TRIBUNE:—It was "Henry Clews," not "F. Haney Clews," the great banker.

The little tempest in a tea pot between Holland and Venezuela has been reduced to amateur vaudeville now that the latter has demanded an apology for alleged slight of the latter.

The Baltimore Sun, the oldest Democratic(?) paper in Maryland, has come out strong for Taft, while the New York World has concluded to support Bryan, but with many apologies. The Sun is owned by an assortment of malefactors of great wealth and must do the bidding of its masters, while the World is owned by Mr. Pulitzer alone and is a great newspaper, but its editor feels constrained to "save his face" in the light of its former treatment of the great Nebraskan.

The railroads gave special rates to visitors to Cincinnati to witness the Taft notification proceedings, but scrupulously demanded full rates to Lincoln when Bryan was notified, and explained that it was because Nebraska had a 2 cent passenger rate law, and it has since been pointed out that Ohio has a 2 cent law also, wherefore the General Passenger Agents are now calling on their neighbors to help them "explain."

The Denver Convention, not to be surprised by the Chicago Convention in praise of the courts, allowed Alton B. Parker to "resolve" that the Courts are the "bulwark of our liberties." However, not every body is of that opinion, and, perhaps least of all, the Oregonian, which recently said:

"The plutocratic oligarchy, like the oligarchy of slaveholders half a century ago, has its hand on the throat of the courts. Any judge who dares to defy its mandates in his decisions is assailed with systematic slander; any court which it cannot control it seeks to disgrace by falsehood and calumny. The plutocracy aspires to rule the country by ruling the judiciary. It aspires also to corrupt legislation at the source by filling the senate with its creatures and driving the House with an ox goad in the hands of its most servicable retainer."

And the Oregonian gave expression the above excerpts the conclusion the whole country has reluctantly been forced to; and the people are seeking a way out, wherefore the present indication for more than a million votes for Eugene V. Debs, while other hosts are lining up under the banner of the Independence party.

Many manufacturing establishments are, in a way, resuming operations, with notices posted conspicuously about their plants that if Taft fails of election they will close them down again. This is an attempt to play the workers' stomach against their judgment and preferences.

J. H. UPRON,

Langlois, Oregon.

No-To-Bac for Fifty Cents. Guaranteed tobacco habit cure, makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c. All drugists.

HARRIMAN WANTS HARMONY.

"We Must Work Together," He Tells Albany.

Albany, Or., Sept. 5.—"I'd like to know what you have against me," said E. H. Harriman this morning, replying to a remark that the people of Oregon would send him to the United States Senate if he would make his home here. The millionaire arrived at noon on his special train, stopping here half an hour. He was greeted by the Mayor and several hundred citizens. Answering to an inquiry as to whether he would extend the C. & E., Harriman said: "I intend to do more extensive railroad building this year than for a long time, and Oregon will receive her share. I will build across the mountains, but I have formed no definite plans yet. My reception at Albany and other points in Oregon has been most pleasing. 'We must work together.'"

Eyes tell Character.

If eyes are placed too close together the owner is jealous and critical. If eyes are far apart, the owner has a fine memory and broad intelligence.

Deep set eyes show melancholy and moodiness.

Protruding eyes show self indulgence.

Wide open, round eyes mark a mind that is not developed, is credulous and serious about small gossip. The owners have no self control.

If the eye is very oval, almost almond shape, with the outward droop shaped to a point, look out for a crafty and subtle nature.

Gray eyes are those of intellect and a well balanced character. They show unselfishness and a strict sense of justice. When they are put below a broad, high forehead, they denote great talent.

Brown eyes, with a touch of hazel, show courage, intelligence and affection.

When the hazel eye has an arched eye-brow, it shows fickle temper.

Velvety brown eyes show intense feeling, and are not often to be trusted.

A glittering black eye expresses meager intelligence and often physical courage.

Very light blue eyes are said to always show deceit and cruelty.

Violet blue eyes are loving and ardent, but impetuous, and do not show a high order of intellect.

What Do They Cure?

The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription." The answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alternative or blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorant, and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder—curing a large per cent of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrhal dyspepsia), bowels (as mucous colitis, hemorrhoids, uterus or other pelvic organs). It is the chronic or alternative stages of these Affections it is often successful in affecting.

The "Favorite Prescription" is advised for the cure of one class of diseases—the "Female Weakness" with its attendant symptoms—menstrual irregularities, etc. It is a powerful yet gentle acting invigorating tonic and nerve. For weak worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the woman's functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formulae of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines. The words of praise bestowed on Dr. Pierce's medicines by such writers should have more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials, because such men are writing for the guidance of their medical brethren and know whereof they speak.

Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native, American medicinal forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicines. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret nostrum. Dr. Pierce's Peppermint, small sugar-coated, easy to take as candy, regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

United States Land Office, Roseburg, Oregon, September 10, 1908.

Notice of filing of plat of Survey.

Notice is hereby given that the E. & W. of sec. 21 and N. of sec. 28, in T. 36 S., R. 13 W., of the Willamette Meridian Oregon, as the township which the above notice should be published.

BENJAMIN L. EDDY, Register. J. N. LA WRENCE, Receiver.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; and no cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of a mucous surface.

It is estimated that there are something like 30,000 persons scattered throughout the U. S. who are entitled to moneys and lands now tied up in the English High Court of Chancery owing to the inability of lawyers to locate them.

The great trouble is that English lawyers when searching for lost heirs almost invariably advertise for them in London or Edinburgh papers; as these papers are seldom seen in this country of course the missing heir never knows of the good fortune that is awaiting him or her, and thus the case drags along in the courts for an indefinite time.

As an aid to those interested in Chancery cases, and who believe that they are entitled to inheritance an enterprising publisher has prepared an authentic list of persons who have been advertised for during the past 150 years, and includes the famous Annska Jantze and Haarlens estates. The list is a very long one and not only gives the full name of the heir being searched for but also the name and address of the Attorney having charge of the estate in Chancery. Any person can secure a copy of this list by sending a 2-cent stamp to The Royal Register, 16 Madison Square Station, N. Y. City.

It does not matter that the creator has sown with stars the fields of ether and decked the earth with countless beauties for man's enjoyment. It does not matter that air and ocean teem with the wonders of innumerable forms of life to challenge man's admiration and investigation. It does not matter that nature spreads forth all her scenes of beauty and gladness and pours forth the melodies of her myriad tongued voices for man's delectation.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

It does not matter that the creator has sown with stars the fields of ether and decked the earth with countless beauties for man's enjoyment. It does not matter that air and ocean teem with the wonders of innumerable forms of life to challenge man's admiration and investigation. It does not matter that nature spreads forth all her scenes of beauty and gladness and pours forth the melodies of her myriad tongued voices for man's delectation.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

If liberty is ostracized and exiled, man is a slave and the world rolls in space and whirls around the sun a gilded prison, a domed dungeon, and, though painted in all the enchanting hues that infinite art could command, it must stand forth a blotch amid the singing spheres of the sideral heavens, and those who cull from the vocabularies of nations, living or dead, their flashing phrases with which to apostrophize liberty, are engaged in perpetuating the most stupendous delusions the ages have known. Strike down liberty, no matter by what subtle and infernal art the deed is done, the spinal cord of humanity is sundered, and the world is paralyzed by the indescribable crime.—Eugene V. Debs.

Agricultural College

Corvallis, Oregon.

Offers collegiate courses in Agriculture, including Agronomy, Horticulture, Animal Husbandry, Dairy Husbandry, etc.; Forestry; Domestic Science and Art; Civil, Electrical, Mechanical and Mining Engineering; Commerce; Pharmacy.

Offers elementary courses in Agriculture, Forestry, Domestic Science and Art, Commerce and Mechanic Arts, including forge work, cabinet making, steam fitting, plumbing, machine work, etc.

Strong faculty, modern equipment; free tuition; opens Sept. 23. Illustrated catalogue with full information on application to the Registrar free.

IN THE COUNTY COURT, FOR THE COUNTY OF CURRY, STATE OF OREGON.

In the Matter of the Estate of C. E. Moulton, deceased, J. Don, To Anna Jurgensen, Chris Jurgensen, Peter Jurgensen, Daniel Jurgensen, Mary Jurgensen and Ida Jurgensen, and all other persons interested in said Estate.

Whereas, application having been made in due form to the above-named Court on the 13th day of August, 1908, by Ames S. Johnston, administrator of said Estate for an order and license directing, authorizing and empowering him to sell the Real Estate belonging to the Estate of said decedent, and described as follows: E. of NW 1/4 and Lots one, two, of section 22, T. 32 S. of R. 15 W., Willamette Meridian, Containing One hundred and forty-two and forty-one-hundredths of an acre. The E. of NW 1/4 of section 21, T. 32 S. of R. 15 W., Willamette Meridian, containing 80 acres.

And Whereas, said Court fixed on the 5th day of October, 1908, at 10 o'clock, A. M., at the Court Room of this Court in the Court House in Gold Beach, County and State of Oregon, as the time and place for hearing any and all objections to said Petition and the granting of said order and license of sale.

Therefore, in the Name of the State of Oregon, You and each of you are hereby cited, directed and required to be and appear at said time and place then and there to show cause, if any you have or if any exist, why an order of sale should not be made, as in the Petition prayed for, and why said Petition should not be granted and said order and license should not issue.

Witness, the Hon. E. A. BALLEW, Judge of said Court with the seal of said Court affixed this 13th day of August, A. D. 1908.

TIMBER LAND ACT, JUNE 3, 1878.— Notice for Publication.

United States Land Office, Roseburg, Oregon, April 10, 1908. Notice is hereby given, that in compliance with the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An Act for the sale of Timber Lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all Public Land States by Act of August 4, 1892.

JAMES McDERMID of Hixton, County of Jackson, State of Wisconsin, filed in this office on August 8th, 1907 his sworn statement No. 9619 for the purchase of the NE 1/4, SE 1/4, NE 1/4 of Section No. 24 in Township No. 33 South of Range No. 15 West, W. M., Oregon, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office, at Roseburg, Oregon, on Wednesday the 21st day of October, 1908.

He names as witnesses: William A. Leonard of Portland, Ore. William E. Pratt, and Harry A. Miller of Hixton Wisconsin. Henry Colvin of Gold Beach, Oregon. Frank J. Leonard, of Kirby, Oregon. Any and all persons claiming adversely the above described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 21st day of October, 1908.

BENJAMIN L. EDDY, Register.

Imported Percheron Stallion

KEBOR (No. 51,602) was a prize-winner at the District Fair at Roseburg in 1906, taking four first prizes as follows: First as percheron draft horse; first premiums on two colts; first on horse and family of five colts.

WILL MAKE THE SEASON AT Bandon, Bear Creek, Four Mile, Dalryville, and Sixes river; being at the latter place on Sunday April 19th, and every nine days thereafter.

SERVICE FEES: $10, $15 and $20. S. J. CULVER & CO., BANDON, OREGON.

L. A. ROBERTS, ATTORNEY AT LAW. My office Point, Oregon.

Probate business a specialty. DENNIS CUNIFF, JR., Lep. U. S. Mineral Surveyor

Surveyor for the District of Oregon. Gold Beach, Oregon.

Send your Agates for Mounting & Polishing also your Watches and Jewelry for repair, to Fred H. Van Norden

Bandon, Oregon. Careful attention given to mail orders.

EDUCATE YOUR BOWELS WITH CASCARA. Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. No. 35. H. C. C. Co. Druggists refund money.

EDUCATE YOUR BOWELS WITH CASCARA. Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. No. 35. H. C. C. Co. Druggists refund money.

EDUCATE YOUR BOWELS WITH CASCARA. Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. No. 35. H. C. C. Co. Druggists refund money.

EDUCATE YOUR BOWELS WITH CASCARA. Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. No. 35. H. C. C. Co. Druggists refund money.

AMES S. JOHNSTON (Successor to John E. Miller) GENERAL MERCHANT, Port Orford, Or. NEW GOODS, and fresh supplies will be received by every steamer. It shall be my purpose to keep a full stock of everything required by the trade in the line of GROCERIES and PROVISIONS, BOOTS and SHOES, MENS' and BOYS' CLOTHING, LADIES' DRESS GOODS, HARDWARE, GRANITE and TINWARE, CIGARS, TOBACCO, PIPES, CANDY, NUTS and NOTIONS. In fact, a supply of everything usually kept in a well stocked General Merchandise Store. ORDERS TAKEN FOR ANY ARTICLE NOT IN STOCK. Call and examine goods and get prices.

GENERAL MERCHANDISE, Groceries & Provisions, Port Orford, Curry County, Ore. BARGAINS In Everything. Ladies' & Gents' Furnishing Goods, Dry Goods, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes, Cigars and Tobacco. Fine Assortment of Ladies' Dress Goods, muslins, calicos, flannels, etc. Hardware & Tinware, Harness,