Town and County.

Henry McBride has returned to Port Orford after spending the summer at Bandon.

Ray Hall of the TRIBUNE force, made a business trip to Coquille Friday, returning Monday.

S. E. Marsters was in town over Thursday night on his way from Portland to his home at Gold Beach.

Nat Dean and family moved down from Bandon Saturday and are now occupying the McBride house.

Considerable rain has fallen the past week, but the weather has been warm and grass is growing like spring.

Dan Jurgensen made a trip to Wedderburn last week after a large work-horse that L. Knapp purchased from R. D. Hume.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Curry welcomed the arrival of a fine nine pound baby girl at their home on Elk river last Thursday.

Harry Allen and wife and Wess Waite, and wife of Bandon have been spending several days at the old Neely place near Elk river.

The boys are talking of having a shooting match at Port Orford on Thanksgiving, with beef, turkeys etc. given as prizes to the lucky ones.

Gunder Anderson and Robt. Fromm were passengers on the stage for Wedderburn yesterday on their return from a short visit to Coos.

Jas. Lane drove to Dairyville Monday to meet Mrs. Thos. Lane of Coquille, who is spending a week with her mother in law, Mrs. P. J. Lindberg.

Miss Anna Colebrook was a passenger to San Francisco on the Plant last week when the steamer broke down and was taken in tow by the tug Columbia.

Charley Bailey passed down the coast several days ago with some 20 head of blooded sheep which he had purchased at Portland and was driving to his fine stock ranch near Wedderburn.

Al Marsh started for Gold Beach yesterday afternoon to attend the meeting of the Board of Equalization, which has been held open awaiting the return of himself and Clerk Smith from the land trials at Portland.

Hallowe'en passed quietly in Port Orford, and while the usual crowd of sun-loving boys collected after dark their pranks were all of the harmless order and such as is a credit to the manhood of the youthful American.

This office received a pleasant call from Geo. B. and Ervin Miller last week as they were returning from the land trial at Portland, where they were subpoenaed by the government but were not placed upon the stand as witnesses.

The Coquille Sentinel of last week has a liberal and broad-minded editorial on the recent land fraud cases at Portland—one that people of this county who like to throw mud at the misfortunes of their fellow man would do well to read and ponder.

The little Rickman boy, whom we mentioned in our last issue as being shot in the leg by a soft pointed bullet from a 32-40 rifle, is getting along nicely under the care of Dr. Glanville and unless unexpected complications appear will soon be out of danger.

Chas. Neumann was at the Knapp hotel Friday night on his way down the coast to Euchre creek—greeting old friends and noting the changes that have occurred during his absence. Since leaving Curry, some ten years ago, Charley has been a resident of San Francisco, but has recently purchased a farm on Bear creek, and will make his home in Coos county.

The witnesses at the Portland trial have all returned home, having been dropping in one and two at a time for the last week. They all report a pleasant trip with the exception of the tiresome wait in the witness room. Those who made the trip to Los Angeles last spring in connection with the same case were out of pocket, but the compensation on this trip was enough to meet their wants—being $3 per day and 15c a mile to the railroad and 6c on the train.

Considerable difficulty is being experienced in securing the services of a good teacher for this district. school will start however as soon as one can be found, whenever that may be.

The vote in Port Orford yesterday, considering the fine weather, was small, but 63 ballots being cast. Taft carried the precinct by over 80, while the Socialist and Independence candidates each received one vote.

We publish an item from the Badius of October 22, which would indicate that our informant was mistaken in regard to Mr. Hume not intending to do any repair work on the Port Orford wharf this winter. It is to be hoped that the wharf will be kept standing as it would be a great misfortune to have it go down during the early part of winter.

John Engleman, who is cutting and hauling piles from the forest several miles up the river, was in town Tuesday to have some black-smithing done. He was accompanied by his two helpers and they brought down a raft of 17 piles and moored them at a point a short distance above the cannery. The piles are for use at Port Orford in repairing the Hume wharf. They are sixty feet in length and of fir. A little less than half the work is completed and when the raft is ready the lot will be towed to Port Orford.—Radium.

Mr. Walter Rhule and Miss Maud Cook were married at Langlois, Monday, November 2nd, 1908. Mr. Rhule is a well appearing young man who came to Port Orford several months ago to work on the cold storage for R. D. Hume, and for the past month or so has been associated with Mr. Cook in driving the tunnel at the Merrill mine on Elk river. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Cook and has resided in Port Orford and vicinity for several years, having been waitress at the Knapp hotel for some time past—a position that she resigned for the joys of matrimonial bliss. The young people will reside for a time at the Elk river mine. The TANNUS extends its best wishes, and as the bride is a cook in fact as well as she was in name it doubts not but that happiness will be theirs.

Theron Fromm and Miss Mae Anderson passed through Port Orford last week on their way up the coast, and were married at Langlois Saturday, October 31. After attending the dance there that night given by Jas. White, they left for Coos bay where they intended to take the Breakwater for Portland, and after spending a couple of weeks in the Rose City will go to San Francisco for the winter. The young people were both raised in this county, the groom being the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fromm of Brush Creek, and a young man of industrious habits who is making a success in life. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gunder Anderson of Wedderburn, and an estimable young lady in every way. The congratulations of the many friends of the happy couple go with them, and they will be gladly welcomed when they return to Curry in the spring to make their future home.

Thousands of Saloons Defeated
By Prohib.

Columbus, O., Oct. 28.—Under the new county local option law a total of 1045 saloons were voted out in Ohio yesterday as follows: Trumbull County 72 saloons; Williams County, 19 saloons, and Greene County, 27 saloons.

Union, S. C., Oct. 28.—By a majority of about 300 out of 2500 votes cast Union County voted for prohibition yesterday. It is estimated that during the last three years of prohibition that property values in the county increased $2,000,000 and drunkenness decreased 50 per cent.

Church Services

There will be preaching services held in the church at Port Orford Sunday Nov. 8. In my enforced absence for two or three months on account of health, Rev. A. Haberly will meet my appointments, which will be as heretofore on the second Sunday of each month.

For the present the Port Orford church will be served again in connection with Bandon.

GEORGE H. ROACH, Minister

Mrs. Dave Carey of Bandon was visiting her sister, Mrs. W. R. Johnson of Elk river the first of the week.

Jury Convicts Three of Five

William H. Smith, Dr. A. H. Hedderly and Richard Hynes, found guilty yesterday by a federal jury on a charge of having conspired to defraud the government, are to be granted a new trial and should this be granted an appeal will be taken. Two of the five defendants, Leo R. Myers and Jeremiah Huntley, were yesterday found not guilty.

The defendants were members of the Pacific Furniture & Lumber company, and were indicted together with many others. Two of the indicted ones have since died and another has never been apprehended. Four others pleaded guilty when the case was called for trial before Judge Wolverton in the United States district court two weeks ago.

The government charged the defendants with forming a conspiracy to defraud the government out of 30,000 acres of timber lands in Curry county. The plan was to sell stock in the company and induce the investor to take up a timber claim, all expenses being paid by the company, which was eventually to gain title to the land.

Before being brought here for trial the defendants made a hard fight in the federal court at Los Angeles against removal to Oregon to stand trial. Most of the defendants live in Los Angeles, where the headquarters of the Pacific Furniture & Lumber company were located. Tracy C. Becker, special assistant to the attorney general, and John McCourt, United States district attorney, had charge of the prosecution for the government. The defense was represented by John Manning of Portland and Marcus C. McLenore of Los Angeles.

Langlois Items.

Edna Capps has been spending a week in Bandon.

Mrs. Jo. Holman returned to her home after a weeks visit at Bosses.

A baby girl was born to the wife of Jas. Cheneweth Oct. 26th.

Hallowe'en passed with the usual amount of pranks and fun for the boys with no great damages.

Melvin Rakeff came down from Bandon and will stay with his father and go to school here.

Lena Langlois and Sylvia Rakeff of Bandon attended the dance Sat. returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Dean passed through town Friday from Portland where they were called as witnesses in the Land Fraud Case.

Mr. Sorensen is having the old Laurel Inn painted and given a general overhauling, which adds much to the appearance of the town.

Frank Colvin of Gold Beach will soon open a Billiard room in connection with a candy, cigar and soft drink dept. in the building opposite the Pioneer Hotel.

A quiet wedding took place Sat. the 31st at the Langlois Hotel when Theron Fromm and Miss Mae Anderson were united in marriage by Justice Cox. Mr. and Mrs. John Haggensen attended the bridal couple, only a few intimate friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Fromm left the same day for Portland, from there will go to Cal. to spend the winter months.

The dance Sat. night given by Jas. White was, as wedding dances usually are, well attended and every one enjoyed themselves immensely. The music was good. Ralph Cope furnishing the greater part assisted by several of the Local violinists. An excellent midnight supper was served at the Hotel Langlois.

Dr. W. S. Abbot, the widely known veterinarian of Myrtle Point, is no more. While sitting in a chair on the sidewalk at that place conversing with friends last Sunday forenoon he suddenly fell forward and expired without uttering a word. Dropsy and heart trouble from which deceased had for many months suffered, are presumed to have been the cause of dissolution.

"Doc" Abbot, as he was familiarly known, was a genial whole-souled fellow, and one of the very best veterinarians in this section of Oregon. He was a long-time resident of this county, about 50 years of age and unmarried. His horse hospital at the Point was known by everybody. The funeral took place at Myrtle Point Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and many sympathizing friends saw the remains laid to their final rest—Septinel.

Louis A. Lux, who has been held in the county jail for a week pending a hearing of habeas corpus proceedings to prevent his being returned to a hospital for the insane at Napa, California, was ordered committed to the insane asylum at Salem by Presiding Judge Guteben in the circuit court yesterday afternoon. At the last moment his attorneys disclosed the fact that the reason they have made such a hard fight against his being taken back to California is that his wife's relatives are trying to get possession of $15,000 worth of property that belonged to him. He says he wants to go to New York to wage a fight for this property.

Judge Guteben had already made an order giving Lux into the custody of an officer of the Napa asylum when John F. Logan brought up the property question. The court then changed the order and sent the man to Salem until more light can be had on the subject. Dr. William Johnson, who made an examination of Lux, reported to the court that the man should be kept under surveillance as he is a sufferer from paresis.

Logan said that Governor Chamberlain had expressed surprise that the officers of the Napa asylum should be so anxious to have Lux returned, as it is unusual to read to another state for an escaped lunatic. The attorney expressed the opinion that the state of California is not paying the expenses of the officer who came after Lux, but that someone who has an eye on the $15,000 is behind the move.—Oregon Journal.

The tallest tree in the world is the Australian eucalyptus, reaching a total altitude 480 feet. The biggest are the mammoth trees of California, some of which are 276 to 376 feet in height and 108 feet in circumference at the base. From measurements of the rings it is believed that some of these trees are from 2000 to 2500 years old. The oldest tree in the world is said to be on the island of Kos, off the coast of Asia Minor. It is several thousand years old, but just how many no one has dared to say. The tree is carefully preserved by a wall of masonry around it, and the trunk is 30 feet in circumference.

DOCTORS MISTAKES

Are said often to be buried six feet under ground. But many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they present alike to themselves and their easy-going doctor, many diseases, for which they assume them to be such, prescribe pills and poisons. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some sterile cause of suffering. Says up his treatment until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better. The doctor's wrong treatment, but probably worse, is worse medicine. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured." Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects. It is the only medicine that cures.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "nerve-racked" run-down, debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

The new law provides that you can't talk politics on election day within a certain distance of the polling places.

J. W. Bennett, who has been suffering from inflammatory rheumatism for the past three weeks, left for Paso Robles, Cal., on Sunday, attended by Miss Mauzey as nurse.

A week from today will be election day. In this portion of the county, at least, there never has been less interest manifested by the voters. There are five tickets in the field.

There was a large attendance at the ceremony of laying the cornerstone of the new schoolhouse building at North Bend yesterday afternoon. A program had been prepared for the occasion and was carried out in a creditable manner. The building will be modern in every respect, and will have concrete foundation and brick construction. It will cost $53,000.

The Alliance arrived from Portland yesterday, bringing 67 passengers and 240 tons of freight. Capt. Olsen brought his bride with him this trip, and bay boats and the C. A. Smith will saluted with whistles in honor of the occasion. The captain's many friends here extend congratulations, and hope that any squalls he may encounter on the matrimonial sea will be only such as will subside by the judicious use of soothing syrup.
