Town and County.
 F. Cook is quite ill at his home in town.
 Grace Langlois and her mother of Cape Blanco, made a visit to Port Orford last week.
 Miss Nellie Anderson of Wedderburn is a guest of Miss Georgie Fort of this place.
 The Dairyville camp W. O. W. are contemplating the erecting of a new and commodious hall.
 S. E. Marsters was in Port Orford Saturday night on his return from attending his father's funeral at Myrtle Point.
 C. H. Pearce completed his contract work for Mr. Hume at the wharf last Friday, and returned to his mountain home on Elk river.
 The two gentlemen who are going to work the Madden black-sand mine were purchasing supplies in Port Orford one day last week.
 John L. Childs was elected Superior Judge of Del Norte county over Frank W. Taft by a majority of 180 votes.
 Frank Cook was in from Sixes river Saturday after supplies, being accompanied by F. B. Cameron and wife. Mr. Cameron has bought the Wilson place near "Haunts ranch," and has become a permanent resident of Curry.
 Steve Merrill returned to his mother's at Ophir last Friday, having been laid up for repairs for a while by a log rolling on his leg while he was working on his homestead on Hubbard's creek. He was fortunate to escape without a broken limb.
 Walter Sutton returned late Friday evening from Bandon, to which place he took his son and daughter, whom we mentioned in our last issue as starting for California. As Jim and Mary were unable to catch a steamer at the bay for San Francisco without a long wait, they went overland via Drain.
 A couple of Englishmen passed down the coast Saturday, having just come from Peru and other South American points. They will go to Eureka and take a steamer for Australia and New Zealand, after which they will return to their mother country with their trip around the world completed.
 A deputy Game Warden from Salem, was seen on our streets last week on his way down the coast as far as Rogue river. He was looking for parties who have been shipping deer hides out of the county via Myrtle Point, but it seems that the gully ones got wind of his coming and when he met the hide-wagon there was nothing in it.
 The shooting match at this place on Thanksgiving, the 25th, is now assured, unless prevented by stormy weather. The turkeys will be shot Wednesday afternoon so that they may be served on the festival board the following day. A good beef and other prizes will be offered and the "man behind the gun" is cordially invited to attend.
 W. O. Corbin was doing business in town Saturday. "Dad" says that he can raise as fine corn on his Sixes river farm as is grown in the state of Oregon. Last year his crop yielded 125 bushels to the acre, and while the yield is not so heavy this year he claims he has some ears that are record-breakers for size. When we get the promised sample we will ask our sister counties to match it.
 Wilhelm G. Holl, representing the Haines Music Company of Marshfield, was in town over Saturday and Sunday, tuning and repairing pianos etc. From him we learn that Mr. Tarnell of Bandon, who was down this way several months ago and induced a number of people to sign a paper in which he agreed to tune their piano twice a year for $7.50, has suddenly departed for other climes.
 Dr. Mings, who went to Wedderburn to attend R. D. Hume, was taken from Coos bay to Frankfort by the Osprey last Thursday afternoon. Owing to the ebb tide the boat could not enter the river until morning, so she dropped in at this place and took George Forty along as pilot, landing the Dr. at the above port—about 14 miles this side of Wedderburn. After going on to the Rogue, the Osprey called in here on her return north Friday evening and landed considerable freight.

P. J. Lindberg is engaged in using some carpenter work at the Hughes' dairy on Sixes river.
 Several of the boys went deep-sea fishing a few days ago and made a good catch of Redfish, Ling, etc.
 Editor Marsters of the Globe, had business in town last week. Mrs. Marsters presented him with a baby girl on the 4th instant.
 Bernal Forty and Orris Knapp landed nine salmon in Elk river recently—quite a good catch for a couple of boys. Parties who have been fishing with hook and line in the river report good luck, several large catches being made.
 A number of the young people gathered at Julius Koch's Saturday evening, dancing to the music of a phonograph. Mr. Koch has a good instrument and a large assortment of records, and he can favor you with anything from a hornpipe to the campaign speeches of Taft and Bryan.
 Several of the Coos county papers are publishing an item to the effect that as soon as the fixtures arrive Judge Bailey and one of his brothers will open up a state bank at Gold Beach, with a paid up capital stock of $10,000. It is to be hoped that the information is correct, as our county is badly in need of a local bank.
 The young ladies of Port Orford are going to give a masquerade ball in Nielsen's hall Thanksgiving night, Nov. 26th, and as the girls never do things by halves a good time is assured. Good music has been secured and suitable prizes will be awarded. Bring your gun along for the shooting match and your best girl for the dance and you'll have a good time in Port Orford Thanksgiving.

Seven teams are now engaged in hauling gravel on the new Denmark Sixes river road that lies in the Port Orford district. They have already graveled about a mile and another half mile will take them to the line dividing this and the Dairyville road district. We understand that there has been some kind of trouble on the northern end and that work up that way has been discontinued.
 The Osprey called in here last Wednesday evening to land some freight which she took up on her way down from the bay to Wedderburn, but after a few sling falls were hoisted on the wharf Capt. Johnson became alarmed and put to sea. The cause of his anxiety was not apparent and his action was roundly jeered by those on the dock, for while there was a light breeze from the south and, the sea was calm and those who have had experience in this line say that they could have landed freight in a row boat without danger of getting it wet.
 Ira Merrill spent several days at the Knapp hotel last week. He is highly pleased with the results of the development work that he is having done on his location near the Axtel mine on Elk river, and says that if he finds things as he expects to, as there is every indication he will, that there will be busy times out there next summer. He will put on a crew of men, build a quartz mill, and work the mine on a large scale. The success of this enterprise would mean considerable to Port Orford, as Mr. Merrill is a sound business man—one of the kind that develops a country and brings it out of its lethargy. If the outcroppings are correct and this mine can be operated extensively on an annually paying basis it will forever put a crimp in the appendage of local knackers.

Hon. R. D. Hume has been dangerously sick at his home in Wedderburn for the past week. Mrs. Hume started last week to visit her mother in New Zealand, who is also very ill, but was recalled from Bandon Wednesday and has since been at the bedside of her husband.
 Mr. Hume lay unconscious at the point of death for a couple of days and is still very weak, but Dr. Mings, who is in attendance, reports that his chances of recovery are improving. It would be a calamity if his chances of recovery are improving. It would be a calamity if his chances of recovery are improving. It would be a calamity if his chances of recovery are improving.
 Later—Dr. Mings arrived in town last night on his return to Marshfield but was recalled to Wedderburn by a message this morning stating that Mr. Hume was worse.

Heney Assassinated.
 Francis J. Heney was shot in the court room in San Francisco during the trial of Abe Ruef, last Friday afternoon. The shooting was done by a man named Morris Haas, who claims that he did it because of a personal grudge as Heney exposed his past life and ruined his business.
 San Francisco is greatly agitated over the affair, as it is believed that the attempted murder is the result of a plot planned by men in high position.
 The bullet entered above the cheek bone of the gifted prosecutor and was deflected downward, missing the brain by a fraction of an inch.
 Heney's condition is reported as favorable, and that he has a good fighting chance for recovery.
 Haas, in some unknown manner, secured a revolver and committed suicide in jail Saturday night.

We publish the following letter from Mrs. Bowen, formerly Miss Jurgensen of this place:
 San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 1st, 08.
 Editor Tribune,
 Dear Sir:—Please find enclosed $3 in payment for my paper. Am just lost without my home paper. I look for it like I do for a letter from one of my brothers or sisters. I am enjoying very good health, and am glad to say that times are picking up a little and that work is more plentiful at present than it has been the past summer, although everyone expects to see hard times in San Francisco this coming winter.
 The past few days have been cloudy and foggy, and with a shower of rain every now and then—real Oregon winter weather as we call it here.
 Will close thanking you again for your kindness, I remain,
 Yours very truly
 Mrs. J. M. Bowen.

Rev. C. B. Marsters Dead.
 Rev. C. B. Marsters, one of Oregon's earliest pioneers and at one time a resident of Roseburg, died at his home at Myrtle Point, Nov. 10, 1908, at the age of 80 years. Death was due to general debility. The funeral will be held at Myrtle Point Thursday.
 Rev. Marsters emigrated to Oregon in 1849, at first locating in the Waldo hills near Salem. After a short time he went to California and later came to Douglas county. He lived at Oakland for a time and then came to Roseburg, settling on the present Gouffrey place, abutting the west side of the river and now occupied by W. H. Lindsey. About 30 years ago, Rev. Marsters moved to Myrtle Point and never afterwards changed his place of residence.
 To Rev. Marsters is credited the distinction of introducing Angora goats in this section of the state. After his removal from Roseburg the business of raising such stock was continued extensively by one of his sons, L. A. Marsters, who died just ten months ago. Rev. Marsters was connected with the United Brethren church. His surviving brother Rev. E. M. Marsters, formerly of this city, now living at Silverton, is also a minister of that denomination, and in his 86th year. There also survives a sister, Mrs. L. C. Williams, a former resident of West Roseburg, now residing in California; Rev. Marsters' second wife and the following children by his first wife, who died 24 years ago: Melvo Marsters, of Arkansas; Lee and Ora Marsters, of Myrtle Point; S. E. Marsters, of Gold Beach; Mrs. Ed. Sherwood, of Klamath Falls, and E. S. Marsters of Brownsville. The last named left here on the stage Wednesday for Myrtle Point to attend the funeral.
 Rev. Marsters was an uncle of A. C. H. L. W. E., and R. W. Marsters, of this city.—Roseburg Review.

Langlois Items.
 Ida Cope returned Wednesday from visiting in Bandon.
 Edward E. Edwards of Coos Co., is visiting friends at Langlois.
 A small dance was enjoyed at Bowman's hall Saturday night.
 Christina Olsen, who has been quite sick, is gradually recovering.
 Julia Guerin spent several days of last week with friends at Bandon.
 C. A. Jamieson and wife passed through town Sunday on their way to Sixes.
 Rev. Haberly will hold services at the church Sunday, and all are cordially invited to attend.
 Mrs. Rackleff and children have returned to Bandon after a week's stay with Mr. Rackleff.
 Miss Belle Newland came in sudden contact with a rubber ball last week—result, a black eye and a beefsteak.

There will be a good time for everyone in our town Thanksgiving. A turkey shoot; a swell dinner at both hotels, and a Maque Ball and Basket Social the evening of the 26th. The proceeds will go for the erection of a porch and beiry on the new school building. Everyone is earnestly requested to be present and help a good cause along. The young ladies are asked to bring baskets to be sold to the highest bidder. Come, if only to be there, we promise you a good time.

Harbor Items.
 There is a fair run of fish at this place.
 School started last Monday in the Moore district with Miss Gladys Miller as teacher.
 We are having fine weather which reminds one of spring time. Grass is growing very rapidly.
 Commissioner Ismert in company with Dent Clark was in our town transacting official business on Monday.
 W. C. Lake of Harbor, had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse last Friday night. The horse was kicked and had its leg broken and had to be shot.
 J. H. McFerran has lately become a resident of Harbor he having moved in from his mountain ranch to his house and lot on Flood street where he expects to spend the winter.
 The Leap Year ball at the hall last Saturday night was well attended, there being about forty couple present. Notwithstanding that Curry county is dry, liquor caused some unpleasantness. We do not see as there is much difference in Curry county being voted dry as liquor is carted up from Del Norte in all quantities to suit.

A prominent Pistol River sport visited our town the night of the dance and happening to stroll in where there was a poker game in progress on the side—any chance for a Pistol River Sport in this game he enquired. Oh yes, no one is barred was the reply. He accumulated wealth pretty fast for awhile, but by the time daylight appeared he was bankrupt and went home with a somewhat lighter purse.
 A farmer brought a wagon wheel to the blacksmith shop a short time ago for repair.—During the night of a dance some hoodlums were lounging about the shop. One was heard to say, what in h—l can we do boys to have some fun. In reply one of them said that we might fill that wheel with giant powder and explode it. In a few minutes a loud explosion was heard which shook some of the buildings to their foundations and breaking some window panes. Nothing was left of the wagon wheel except some splinters.

Most people know that if they have been sick they need Scott's Emulsion to bring back health and strength.

But the strongest point about Scott's Emulsion is that you don't have to be sick to get results from it.

It keeps up the athlete's strength, puts fat on thin people, makes a fretful baby happy, brings color to a pale girl's cheeks, and prevents coughs, colds and consumption.

Food in concentrated form for sick and well, young and old, rich and poor.

And it contains no drugs and no alcohol.

ALL DRUGGISTS, 50c. AND $1.00.

(COOS BAY NEWS)
 The number of votes cast at the late election in Coos county was 484 short of the vote in June. Of the 3,362 votes cast for president, 1,857 were Republican; 894, Democratic; 437, Socialist; 52, Prohibition; and 28, Independent.
 Stockmen inform us that there is not a corned hog in the Coquille country this year, the corn crop having been ruined by the unusual frost in September. A few hogs are being fattened on peas, but there will be no corn-fed pork for the holidays this year.
 A raft of logs, containing about 250,000 feet, belonging to the C. A. Smith Co., went adrift, Sunday, from the anchorage near Rocky Point, and were swept to sea on the ebb tide. Some of the logs came in over the South spit on the flood and went ashore on the Bastendorf beach.
 A Coos bay man, visiting in Port land, writes that he learns from a reliable source that Hill will soon commence work on a railroad to Coos Bay. Good for Hill. If he'll only come down here and get to throwing dirt, we'll see that Harri-man's bear hounds don't interfere with him.
 O. W. Briggs, who has been editing the Wedderburn Radium for some time past, returned to Marshfield a few days ago. Mr. Briggs is a good newspaper man, and the Radium improved considerably while under his management. We understand that he contemplates entering the newspaper field in Coos county.
