OUR AGENTS:
A. B. SAMES, Bandon, Oregon.
ISSUED EVERY WEDNESDAY EVENING.

Better let the old gun stay in the rack until open season, boys, and then take a spy glass along to tell the age and sex of your game.

An interesting and bitter three-cornered fight is going on between Heny and Becker on one side and Fulton on the other, in which the two former are trying to prevent the latter's appointment to the Supreme bench of Oregon. The matter is now up to President Taft and a decision is expected at any time. It is reported that in case of Fulton's appointment Heny and Becker will resign their government positions.

According to indications a more strenuous effort than ever before will be made in Curry this summer to enforce our obnoxious game law to the strict letter of the law. Conditions in this sparsely settled county are different from those in any other county in the state, and all the deer law needed is enough to keep the hide hunter and city sport from their murderous raids on our mountains. The scalp bounty law will do more towards propagating deer than all the game wardens. Since Curry county was peopled by the whites it has ever been the practice of its sturdy mountaineers to kill deer at will for family use, and the practice is one that will be hard, if not impossible, to stamp out. Our people will uphold to a unit the man who says that he would assign his position as deputy game warden before he would arrest his neighbors for killing an occasional deer for the family larder.

"Fighting Bob" Evans, one of, if not the most, popular hero of the American Navy, is visiting on the Pacific coast. Rear Admiral Evans is in many ways the ideal Yankee sea-fighter, and stands as the peer of such men as Paul Jones and Farragut.
Following are a few paragraphs clipped from Admiral Evans' address in Portland, a portion of which, referring to the fleet's late cruise around the world, should touch the pride and fire the ambition of the country boy:

"When we started, a majority of the men on the ships were plow boys, many of them not knowing just which end of the ship went first.
But they were smart and husky, and before long were the best seamen in the world. The plow boy is a good thing, and we want more of him in the Navy. Why, do you know, down at our first target practice in Magdalena Bay, the first big gun fired at a target, was in charge of a plow-boy gun pointer, who had never done any of this sort of work before. We wondered just what he would do. He fired 10 shots the first minute, then we went over to see if any of them had hit the target. There were just 10 holes in that target. That's the kind of men you've got in your battleships.

He declares that the Pacific should have as large a fleet as the Atlantic, stating that an alert enemy could "cut this coast into ribbons before a fleet could even get started out here from our Eastern seaboard.
If you want peace on both the Pacific and Atlantic, just put 24 battleships and all the vessels that go with them to make a first class fighting fleet, in each ocean, and we will insure you that we will keep the peace, even if we have to fight to do it."

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, it cannot perform its function of carrying sound waves from the eardrum into the inner ear. It is entirely closed, and deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; unless it is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

CURRENT TOPICS
Editor TRIBUNE:—Memorial services were celebrated at Carnegie Hall New York March 18 in honor of Grover Cleveland's birthday, the leading eulogists being Gov. Hughes, President Taft, Elihu Root and Melville W. Fuller, while a long "letter of regret" was read from Ex-President Roosevelt, the latter dwelling particularly on the part Mr. Cleveland took in crushing the great Pullman strike at Chicago. And the question obtruded itself right here, would these leading Republicans vied with one another in doing honors to the memory of Mr. Cleveland but for the recollection that he had recently bolted his party and done all he possibly could to destroy it?
In early Republican days, quite another sort of leading Republicans including Abraham Lincoln were in the habit of meeting together and extolling the steadfast honor and statesmanship of Thomas Jefferson, who had never betrayed his party, and when the country had no Melville W. Fuller, August Belmonts, Thomas F. Ryans and Alton B.
Parkers masquerading as Democrats.

The New York World of March 22 says editorially:
"The story of the wrecks that have occurred along the Cape Cod coast has been told for hundreds of years by the New England seafarers.
The fact that a large part of the danger could be avoided by the apparently simple expedient of cutting a canal only seven miles long across that neck of land has been perceived and discussed by New England for nearly 300 years—as far back in fact as 1625, in the days of the valiant Capt. Miles Standish, when the scheme of a canal following the Indian portage was first discussed.

"Since that time at recurrent intervals the digging of a canal has been discussed and actual excavation was once begun. But the difficulties of constructing an artificial waterway amid the ever-shifting sands of the Cape Cod peninsula have again and again daunted engineers and chilled the enthusiasm of the supporters of the project.
At last, however, the money has been raised, and word comes from Newport that a contract has been awarded a Baltimore firm for the construction of this long-talked of waterway. The estimated cost of the canal is between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000, and operations are to begin in May."

And this reminds me that the "Citizens Development Co." advertises in the Portland Sunday Journal of March 21, that said Co. will have a ship channel connecting the Pacific ocean with Floras Lake in operation by the early fall through which the ships of all nations will be able to come and go, and people are invited to call at the office of the Co. in Portland and inspect the charts and drawings of "our engineers" and see for themselves how very simple the problem really is.
The Co. even boasts that it will have the best, safest and most secure harbor of any between San Francisco and Puget Sound!

The success of the above enterprise will shame the long line of engineers that have shied in dismay at tackling the ridge of sand at Cape Cod.
The late legislature created five new Judgeships and one additional district formed out of the territory comprising the First Dist. which contains the counties of Jackson, Josephine and Lake, and which district already sports two Judges.
The new district is numbered 13.
And the readers of the TRIBUNE will not have forgotten that, when new Judgeships with the emergency appendages were being approved by Mr. Chamberlain, I suggested a very obvious connection between these facts and a promised truce on the part of the Republican Machine which had made ample preparations for a fight in the last ditch against the Governor taking this sent as United States Senator. Well, truce or no truce, not a whisper of objection to the seating of the Governor was heard afterward. "Practical politics" moves in inscrutable ways, and the five new Judges will cost the taxpayers $90,000 per term for extra judicial salaries alone.

And we go on carrying torches in the procession apparently obli-vions of the relation the ever increasing tax burdens carried by those who labor and produce bears to Machine manipulations. We are a jolly lot of hood carriers truly, but we are learning, and that fact regards the better time coming when they who will not work shall not eat. Abe Lincoln in his visions saw the Common, Plain People shaking the parasites and drones off their backs for good and all.
I omitted to state in my article last week on the cost of the Floras Lake channel as estimated by Mr.
Bernstein's experts, more than half the estimated three million and odd dollars was based on the costs of wing breakwaters which must be projected far out to protect the entrance to the proposed channel.

Wool and Mohair.

I saw in the Oregonian of March 4th, a letter to the members of the Angora Goat Breeder's Association signed by John W. Fulton, as secretary of the Association. He seems to think that an increase in the duty on mohair will protect the goat breeder and help him get a better price for his mohair, and he says a large number of the members think so, but such is not the fact, and if they think so they are mistaken for mohair and wool are on parallel lines and the duty will help the mohair grower in the same way. Mohair compared with wool should bring at least 50 cents per pound and then leave a handsome margin for the factory, but if the duty was 15 cents per pound it would not force the American buyer to pay the American producer one single cent more for his wool or mohair, and the law of supply and demand is null and void in this case also, for there is an unlimited supply and never over production.

The United States does not produce one-half of what it consumes of either. Now let us see what the duty did for the sheep breeder in the Year of our Lord, 1908. In the winter when there was nothing doing in wool, the wool buyers cut the price almost one half in the United States. They bought good clean wool that would scour out nearly as large a percentage of scoured wool as any in the United States for from eleven to thirteen cents, right here in Coos and Curry, and there is hardly any grease in this rainy belt.
Now let us see what American buyers were doing at the London wool sales. They were paying from 18 to 24 cents per pound in the grease—paying the 11 cents duty, and paying the freight back to America, and all I can get out of leading papers is to the effect that prices have advanced from 5 to 10 per cent in England every few weeks. Now did the duty help the American sheep breeder? I say not on your tin type. The facts are that the wool and mohair buyers have got as skinned and are taking a large amount of flesh with the hide and some tallow. But there is a remedy for the Oregon Mohair growers if they would only combine and put in a factory for Mohair in Oregon. Oregon has the capital to do it, and if rightly handled it would pay good interest on the investment, and if they don't do this they will always be at the mercy of the Massachusetts Mohair Plosh Company, and other concerns of like nature.
With a finished product you always have the world for a market, and if sold at a reasonable price I think little Mohair goods would ever be shipped out of Oregon. It is of a very strong fiber and wears better than anything I ever saw in the cloth line.
The cheapest Mohair dress goods are quoted at from $5.00 to $1.50 per yard; weight from 3/4 to 5 ounces a yard, and the best Mohair does not go into this kind of goods.

Afraid of Ghosts
Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be imagined as a man equal to its terror it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.
The germ can only prosper when the conditions of the system given it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, hunger, restlessness, a yellow check, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ.
You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Fier's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of obnoxious impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed.
"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whiskey or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on its outside wrapper. It is not a secret nostrum but a medicine as known and common with a record of 40 years' success. Accept no substitutes—there is nothing "just as good." Ask your neighbors.

For anything in Harness or Saddlery it will pay you to call on Pearce, the Harness Man, Myrtle Point, Oregon.

It brings much higher prices. Isn't it funny that the Oregon buyers are willing to pay as much as 25 cents a pound, with a 12 per cent duty, and Mohair will scour away not over ten per cent, as there is no grease and very little dirt in it.

(Coos Bay News)
The steamers Alliance and Eureka, which arrived Wednesday, last, crossed a very rough bar. The Alliance shipped one sea, which, however, did but little damage; but the Eureka did not fare so well. Her after house was damaged and the monkey rail was carried away, necessitating repairs at Kruse & Banks shipyard at Porter.

The Home Hospital lately opened on Pine street by Grace Gould-Wood-craft, is conducted in the nature of a general hospital and is open to all patients. Five rooms and a double room are neatly fitted up, and the operating room is furnished with everything necessary for successfully conducting this branch of the institution. The matron has had years of experience in hospital work, and has earned an enviable reputation for proficiency in all details connected with the management of such an establishment.

John F. Fox, who has been employed at E. G. Flanagan's slaughter house off and on, for many years, was apprehended by inhaling the fumes from a leaking gasoline pipe, while going from Marshfield in a motor boat to the slaughter house on Coal Bank slough, Saturday afternoon. Geo. Baines, who was working on a boat house, near the race track, was the only witness. He noticed the boat stop, and also noticed that the man on board entered the little cabin that covered the engine. Some time afterwards, Mr.
Fox, who was alone in the launch, came out of the cabin and fell over the side into the water. Mr. Baines procured a skiff as quickly as possible, but before he could get to the body, which was floating with the top of the head over water, it had disappeared. The authorities were notified and soon afterwards the remains were recovered.—An examination of the launch showed a leaking feed pipe from the tank to the engine, and indications were plain that the unfortunate man had been trying to stop the leak. There was no water in the lungs, showing that drowning was not the cause of death.
—Deceased, who was born in Eastport in 1872, was a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Fox, of Davis slough, and Dr. Thos. Fox, of Portland, and four sisters.—Deceased had many warm friends in this community, who learned with sincere regret of his untimely death.
