WHEN a country becomes civilized it demands typewriters. When it becomes posted on comparative values it demands

THE SMITH PREMIER TYPEWRITER

The fact that The Smith Premier Typewriter is used in every civilized country on the globe is not so important as the further fact that the demand increases year after year.

The reputation of The Smith Premier is world-wide. World-wide use has made it so.

Try for Health
222 South Peoria St., CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 7, 1902.
Eight months ago I was so ill that I was compelled to lie or sit down nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption. It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no desire to live. A sister visited me from St. Louis and asked me if I had ever tried Wine of Cardui. I told her I had not and she bought a bottle. I believe that it saved my life. I believe many women could have much suffering relieved if they but knew of its value.

TOWN RUNS TO SEED.
INHABITANTS OF MATTAMISCONTS COUNTS NUMBER ONLY 28.

Although Once Very Prosperous, Maine Village Is Now in Danger of Becoming a Plantation—People All Related.
Augusta, Me.—The story of the average backwoods town in Maine is much like the history of a star, as each begins its career in a fabulous condition, reaches a stage of heated activity and finally burns itself out.
This winter Representative Mullon, of Bangor, has introduced an act in the Maine legislature permitting the town of Mattamiscontis, 44 miles northeast from Bangor, to surrender its town organization and lapse back into a plantation so as to change the support of its paupers and the payment of county and state taxes.
Mattamiscontis was incorporated as a town, being a slice taken from Howland, on March 8, 1839. At that time the valuation of the town was $60,000 and its population was 32. The residents had every prospect of getting rich rapidly. The town grew and prospered.
On March 4, 1904, the entire population of Mattamiscontis was 28, of whom 11 were voters, and every one in town was either a Sawyer or a Roberts. There were one Sawyer and two Roberts on the board of assessors, two Sawyers and one Roberts were overseers of the poor, a Sawyer was collector of taxes and treasurer, three Sawyers were serving as selectmen, a Roberts was superintendent of schools, Miss Maud Sawyer and Miss Agnes Roberts taught the two schools, a Sawyer was justice of the peace, a Roberts was under contract to furnish wood for the schoolhouse and a Sawyer broke out the spiky highways and carried the children to and from school.
Everybody was related to everybody else. The entire community was no more than a family affair. There was no post office, no clergyman, no lawyer and no doctor in the whole town. The entire assets of the municipality were of an appraised valuation of $19,296 and a weed-grown cemetery, in which there had been no interment for six years.
Under the laws of Maine when a person is unable to support himself and becomes a public charge while residing on a plantation the cost of his maintenance falls upon the adjoining town which has been organized for the longest time. Mattamiscontis has four papers who have been supported at a cost of $750 a year. By becoming a plantation the community can compel Howland to care for them.
In addition to getting rid of this bill the plantation will have to pay no taxes, except for common schools and repairing the highways. The change from a town to a plantation form of government will be a profitable investment for the Sawyers and Roberts' who dwell in Mattamiscontis.

LIBRARIANS OF OLD AGES.
As an Armory to a Castle So Was the Library to the Ancient Monastery.
The librarian was sworn into office on the holy gospels, and became one whose duty it is to furnish to those who have need the "food" and "weapons" of the soul—for so they used to call books. "Books are the nourishment of the soul," says one abbot, speaking of the library of his convent; and another says: "As the armory is to the castle, so the library is to the monastery." The very name librarian, "armarius" derived as it is from the press, cupboard or almeric in which the books are kept, is precisely the modern word almoner—as the almoner serves from his cupboard food and drink for the needy, so the librarian deals out books, which are the food and drink of the soul, says Harper's Magazine.
In the beginning the librarian was, curiously enough as it sounds at first, the precursor or choir-master, but the explanation of this is, in fact, simple enough; since the first books were the service books kept in the apse-cupboard in the church, the precursor was naturally charged with their care, and when the collection grew by the addition of other books he kept charge until the growth made subdivision of labor necessary.
The ordinary duties of librarians are often laid down with great minuteness in monastic rules; they differ greatly in detail, but not much in essence from those of the modern; he must take charge of the books, "keep and know under their separate titles," frequently examine carefully to prevent damage from damp, dust, mice and "moth worms," and repair them when damaged. He must lend books to the brethren, enter such loan carefully in his register, and see that a sufficient deposit is left for its return, or proper bond given.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.
How to Find Out.
Fill a bottle of common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; it stains your linen if it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidney, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Everybody Says So.

THE SUNNY SOUTH
Fifty Cents a Year—Less Than a Penny a Number.
Published at Atlanta, Ga.—Circulation Over 50,000.
The SUNNY SOUTH is the Great Literary Weekly of the South. It is devoted to Literature, Romance, Fact and Fiction and gives the best of all that is current in its field. Among its contributors the most noted southern writers appear—Joel Chandler Harris, Harry Stillwell Edwards and others of growing fame. Serial stories from Anthony Hope, Maurice Thompson, Sidney R. Crockett, Mrs. George Corbett and Arthur W. Marchmont have appeared, and others are in waiting from the pen of authors of national note. A short story contest brought out nearly five hundred splendid short stories, all worthy a place in the SUNNY SOUTH'S readable columns. Other contests are contemplated that will successfully exploit the popular field of talent that only needs such fostering to illustrate the wealth that is to be ascertained.
The SUNNY SOUTH teams with the life of the great south. The gentle sunshine warms everything into activity and the season's never ends enough to check the hand of industry. The paper comes fragrant with the breath of the magnolia and pine, and gives out the very air of the orange, peach and bay. The beauty and pathos, the romance and mystery of the land where the corn stores up the golden sunshine and the cotton whitens in the moonlight, will be given in the well-filled columns of this fascinating weekly.
The subscription price is Only Fifty Cents a year, alike to all persons, agents, newspapers, postmasters and every one else. Clubs of five, accompanied by the full $2.50, entitles the club ruler to the paper one year gratis.
Send on a Postal Card the names of six of your neighbors who would appreciate the opportunity to read a copy of The Sunny South, and one sample will be mailed free. You can get your club of five out of these very people.
The SUNNY SOUTH enters over 50,000 American homes now; and caring 1909, is sure to be welcomed a fifty as many more homes, as the great weekly least of good things. The Southern Literary Weekly, whose columns for 1909, will be the most readable of all the papers that come to you.

BLACK-DRAUGHT STOCK and POULTRY MEDICINE
Stock and poultry have few troubles which are more bowel and liver irregularities. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is a bowel and liver remedy for stock. It puts the organs of digestion in a perfect condition. Prominent American breeders and farmers keep their herds and flocks healthy by giving them an occasional dose of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine in their food. Any stock raiser may buy a 25-cent half-pound air-tight can of this medicine from his dealer and keep his stock in vigorous health for weeks. Dealers generally keep Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine. If yours does not, send 25 cents for a sample can to the manufacturers, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.
ROSELAND, GA., Jan. 30, 1909.
Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is the best I ever tried. My stock was sick when you sent me the medicine and now they are getting so fat. They are looking so good. S. P. BROCKINGTON.
