Bowerman should be elected President of the Senate it would mean ten thousand more Insurgents at the next election, and insure the election of Jonathan Bourne to the U. S. Senate by an overwhelming majority.

Oregon loans its school funds to farmers on mortgages, and has now over a million dollars at interest. There is no reason why it should not borrow twenty millions and loan to home builders at an advance sufficient to pay it back in twenty years.

Efforts are being made to secure $100,000 from the state to issue a boost pamphlet for free distribution in the east. The same parties supporting this scheme are almost invariably found deprecating the issuance of the state pamphlet on injudicious measures at the a-w-f-u-l cost of $25,000, or less.

The people of Coos and Curry should remember, forever, that Senator Chase is a Bowerman supporter for the Presidency of the State Senate. If Chase has any intelligence he knows that he is not representing this district in so doing.

The School legislation needed just now in Oregon is to permit every district in the State to control the grades to be taught, and select their own text books, for nothing more attainable than, most of the text books now in use was ever inflicted upon a helpless people.

Timber Claims Bought. I will consider the purchase of fir and cedar timber claims, the description on whereof is submitted to me by the original locator.

A strong effort will be made in the present Legislature in Oregon to a high capital punishment, and from the support the movement is receiving there is considerable likelihood that it will carry.

Not only builds her up, but enriches the mother's milk and properly nourishes the child. Nearly all mothers who nurse their children should take this splendid food-tonic, not only to keep up their own strength but to properly nourish their children.

Editor TRIBUNE: At a late banquet under the auspices of the "Lawyers Union," spread at Portland, many complimentary speeches were delivered, and the Courts were valiantly defended against all aspersions in general and those by Mr. Roosevelt in particular.

But here is another story. The four culprits mentioned in the low dispatch had mocked at the law for years, had become cattle barons and millionaires by open usurpation of millions of acres of the public lands; had mobbed and murdered men who had attempted settlements on their domains, and terrorized poor people to the point of abandoning all efforts to maintain homes in any section after the barons had extended their barbed wire enclosures so as to include their claims.

Washington, Jan 5.—Both Houses of Congress adjourned early today out of respect to the memory of Senator Stephen B. Elkins, of West Virginia, who died in his residence here last night after a lingering illness. The Senate was in session only six minutes, adjourning until Monday.

Boys may be had and sometimes girls. The older ones at ordinary wages and others to be schooled and cared for in return for slight services rendered.

Equal before the law truly! And it was by special permission of the U. S. Judge at Omaha that these four convicts visited every county in the state in automobiles in quest of the jail that best suited their caprice.

Thus the law as administered by our "impartial" Federal Courts has made heroes of a band of thieves and cut throats.

And wherefore are we enjoined to "respect the Courts," Langlois, Or.

The Editor.

A little boy in town was given the stunt by his father to write an essay on Editors, and here was the result: "I don't know how newspapers come to be in the world. I don't think God does for he hasn't got nothing to say about them in the Bible. I think the editor is one of the missing links you read of and stayed in the business until after the flood; and then come out and wrote the thing up and has been here ever since. I don't think he ever dies, I never saw a dead one and never heard of one getting ficked. Our paper is a mighty good one; but the editor goes with out underclothes all winter and don't wear any socks and pa ain't paid his subscription since the paper started. I set pa if that was why the editor had to suck the juice out of snowballs in winter and go to bed when he had his shirt washed in the summer. And then pa took me out in the woodshed and he licked me awful hard. If the editor makes a mistake folks say he ought to be hung and if a doctor makes a mistake he buries them and people dasent say nothing because doctors can read and write latin. When the editor makes a mistake there is lawsuits and swearing and a big fuss; but if a doctor makes one there is a funeral. Only flowers and perfect silence. A doctor can use a word a yard long without him or anybody else knowing what it means; but if the editor uses one he has to spell it. If the doctor goes to see another man's wife he charges for the visit; but if the editor does he gets a charge of buckshot.—Ex.

Washington, Jan 5.—Both Houses of Congress adjourned early today out of respect to the memory of Senator Stephen B. Elkins, of West Virginia, who died in his residence here last night after a lingering illness. The Senate was in session only six minutes, adjourning until Monday. The House devoted a half hour to pressing business and then adjourned until noon tomorrow.

A GREAT record of cures, time-qualified in medical history, proves Wood's Sarsaparilla possesses merit unknown to any other MEDICINE.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these "unpleasant examinations" are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its very ingredients on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.—take the advice received and be well.
