Town and County.

John H. Zumwalt, who has spent the last year in Jackson and Josephine, was in town Monday, having come down Rogue river via West Fork.

Will E. Dungan of Marshfield, representing J. H. Newbauer, and Jack Flanagan were in town Wednesday night, having come down from Bandon in a buggy, and returned next day.

C. H. Donac's made us a call Saturday. He has sold out his property in Bandon, and after a visit to Rogue river, will go to Portland to see a sister who wants him to make his home with her.

Walton Miller and wife were out riding in their new top buggy Sunday, and went out to Chas. Forty's place on Elk river. They started down Tuesday to visit their respective parents on Cedar Fork.

Charles Bailey passed through town Saturday with 40 head of blooded sheep, which he purchased in Yamhill county, for himself and neighbors. Charley has taken more pains to improve his sheep than any other large flockowner in the county.

The famous Draper bloodhounds, have been brought to Portland to run down the murderer of the Hill family. They have run down more desperate criminals than any pair of bloodhounds in the world, and have successfully followed tracks four days old.

The Randolph, so we are informed, left Rogue river last week for Klamath river, where she will load with salmon for Eureka. The Randolph is wanted at Chetco, Mack's Arch, as well as at Port Orford and Rogue river; but she is too small to do all the business that is offered her.

Louis Knapp Jr. who has been attending school at the Columbia University, at Portland, arrived home by Saturday's stage. He has been a model student, and made fine progress in all his studies, and is fortunate that he can spend his vacation at Port Orford.

Abe Sypher, an old pioneer, and father of ex-commissioner Ed. Sypher of this county, died at the latter's home on Floras Creek June 13th, 1911, aged 92 years. Mr. Sypher resided for many years, in early days at Rogue River, and is known by all old timers.

Will McPhillamey, while pulling stumps at his father's home on Sixes, had the misfortune to get his hand caught in a block and so badly smashed that three of his fingers had to be amputated. He was brought into town and is now at Dr. Glanville's home for treatment.

The little two year old son of Mr. Hutchinson, who lives between Elk and Sixes, fell into a tub of hot water a few days ago, and both arms to the elbow were literally cooked before the unfortunate child was rescued. Dr. Glanville is treating the child, and says that if it survives it will be crippled for life.

The Wagner brothers of Los Angeles and a Mr. Emery of North Bend, who have been on a prospecting tour from Salmon mountain to Iron mountain, were in Port Orford last week on their return home. They sold their horses and outfit here, and went north on the stage. They took out samples of ore to be assayed, and expect to return in the fall.

The heavy winds have bothered Wilson and Forty some in their sealion hunting; but whenever they run out to the reef they usually kill from 25 to 30—all they can take care of. They skin the animals with the blubber on the skins, and then bring them in to Nellie's Cove where they cut off the blubber, which they try out on the wharf, where they fry out the oil and put it in barrels. Of course they save the "trimmings."

Dennis Cuniff, County Surveyor, with a crew of men has been surveying a new road from Elk river bridge, northward, to intersect the present road a mile or so to the northward so as to avoid the gulch, and steep hill below the bridge. This is an essential change, and should have been made years ago. There are other places in our road where similar changes should be made, and no road money is more wisely spent, if properly guarded against grafters, than by establishing a practical, uniform grade, in all our public roads.

More big robberies of safes, trains, and hold ups on June 17th, than on any other date of the year. Perhaps the robbers were celebrating the battle of Bunker Hill.

Born, to the wife of George Quigley in Port Orford, Ore., June 20th, 1911, a son—wife and baby doing well, and George will survive. We congratulate the happy pair.

Dave Carey and wife, attended the funeral of their nephew, Winnie Marsters, at Gold Beach, and passed through here on their return Friday evening.

La Follette is out to fight Taft for the Republican nomination for the Presidency. The slogan is: "La Follette, and victory, or Taft, and defeat." The Democrats will rally to Wilson, Harmon or Folk.

Arthur Meyers, who came here from Portland, and is mining with Mr. Martin on Elk river had the misfortune to fall and break his collar-bone last Tuesday. Dr. Lowe of Delryville was called to treat him.

Mr. Clark, who owns the Jo Nay ranch on Elk river went out to Roseburg last week, and brought his family back with him, where they are enjoying life in our cool climate, and in their beautiful home.

D. R. Hurlburt and wife, Walter B. Hurlburt and Elmer Hurlburt, of Castle Rock, Wash., have spent a few days camping at Port Orford. They desire to find a location some where in our mountains where they can prospect and trap for fur bearing animals.

The School Meeting at Port Orford was a quiet one, with rather a small attendance, considering the fact that we are to erect a five thousand dollar school house. Every thing was harmonious. H. T. Stewart was re-elected Director, and Mrs. Knapp was re-elected Clerk.

Lorin Forty, second son of Geo. Forty of Port Orford received the appointment as third Assistant Light House Keeper at Tillamook, and left yesterday to assume the duties. Lorin is a universal favorite, just verging into manhood, a fine seaman, marksman, and all round fellow fully competent to take care of himself under all conditions. We shall all miss him and wish him well.

Teams are daily swinging into Port Orford with dead cedar poles for piling and telephones. These poles would be called logs in the East as they are about 1 foot at the small ends. Other teams are hauling railroad ties, several are hauling lumber from the Elk river mill, while others are hauling shingle bolts. These with the sound of the carpenter's hammer, and the sight of new buildings being painted, give our town a busy appearance, and if anything life-like is wanting, the northwest wind more than makes it up.

John Gillings and wife, of Sheridan, Wyoming, arrived here Saturday by stage from Bandon having come to Coos Bay on the Breakwater via Portland. Mr. Gillings is the son of our Hardware merchants, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gillings, and his wife is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Loucks, our banker and leading financier. The young couple enjoyed their long trip, and were joyfully received by their old Wyoming friends, and cordially welcomed by the people of Port Orford, with whom they expect to make their future home.

Bakerfield, Cal., June 12.—Born November 1, 1788, Mrs. Mary Rodriguez died here today at the age of 123 years, 7 months and 11 days. She was a native of Mexico. A fall in which Mrs. Rodriguez sustained a fracture of a hip bone compelled her to spend the last five months of her life in bed, but nevertheless she had hardly known a sick day.

Grants Pass, Or., June 16.—A party of Portland men, composed of John Powder of 91 Park street north, Anton Powder and Charles Stier, left Grants Pass Tuesday for Galice, going down the Rogue river in a boat. The little craft was wrecked Wednesday at Hell Gate and John Powder was drowned. The body has not been recovered.

The drowned man had all the money of the party in his pocket. He was a driver for Marshall Wells Hardware Co. of Portland, and Anton Powder, also a resident of 91 Park street north, is a baker.

Celebrate at Port Orford, the only place in Curry county that will observe the Nation's birthday.

(HARBOR NEWS.)

Editor TRIBUNE:
I suppose that you have begun to think after not hearing from us for so long a time that we had forsaken you.

There is not much news down this way. The people have talked Wooley Port boom, and Floras lake boom and mining booms until the story has become threadbare. And it seems that the railroad spoutings through the newspapers are gradually subsiding.

John Brookings and wife, of the Brookings Lumber Co., who have been spending a few days with us departed for the north last Sunday. During Mr. Brookings short stay with us we were unable to learn as to his plans in starting business in this place, but it is hoped that the Company will start the wheels of business moving in the near future. But when that will be is a matter of conjecture. The only way to find out is to wait and see.

A. J. Marsh of Northern Curry who has been in this vicinity for a few days, returned up the coast Thursday, taking with him the county road scraper.

G. S. Wilson, accompanied by his father, returned from an outing to Bawley Butte last Thursday. Mr. Wilson while out looking after his stock came across a doe deer that had been shot recently and lying near by was a young fawn in a starving condition. In order to save its life, he brought the little thing home with him where it is beginning to thrive.

A very dark and strange looking man, whose name we did not learn, has been about this place for the past ten days. He pretends that he is in the Government employ. He is called the snake and bug man down here. He is collecting a variety of snakes and other reptiles consisting of lizards, scorpions, frogs, worms and bugs of all description. He is thought by some people to be a crank.

Messrs. A. F. Gardner, Bert Tolman and Fred Gardner returned to this place on Monday from Roseburg where they had been in attendance in a land contest between Ray Gardner and Frank Delavan, where a decision was rendered, in favor of Gardner, the contestant. It is said that Delavan will appeal the case to a higher court.

Assessor Wm. Tolman is now a resident of Gold Beach, having moved his family, bed and baggage to the above mentioned place, where they will reside for an indefinite period.

Miss Sadie Heiberger, who has been attending high school at Crescent City, is now spending her vacation with her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. Heiberger of this place.

J. De Martin of this section met with quite a misfortune on the 4th of June by losing a fine horse. It is said the horse died from the effect of eating poison weed.

The hay harvest is close at hand and it will not be long before the humming of the mowing machines will be heard.

The fruit crop will be very light in this section owing to the pelting hail storms, frosts and cold weather so late in the season.

The little gasoline launch Eagle, owned by the Colvin brothers, came down from Rogue river about ten days ago, and is at anchor here in the river.

The boys contemplate fishing for halibut and other sea fish at different points between here and Crescent City during the present season.

The Higgins mine, situated on upper Chetco was sold recently to a company at Grants Pass, Oregon, for thirty thousand dollars and a ten per cent royalty for all ore taken from the mine as long as it is operated.

A Nelson a former resident of this neighborhood who sold his ranch here about a year ago, has recently married and is now a resident of Los Angeles.

Bear are reported to be numerous at the foot of Mt. Emma.

There was a dance here at the town hall on Saturday night which was well attended. There were more ladies present than gentlemen.

There will be nothing doing here in the way of celebrating the 4th of July. It looks like the people of this section are getting too unpatriotic to observe the National holiday, it being about 7 years since there was a 4th of July celebration here.

Mrs. Wm. Clark, of the North Fork, gave an entertainment last Sunday in the line of a feast for the benefit of the old bachelors, grass widowers and old maids of the neighborhood. Mrs. Clark is so well and favorably known in this and Del Norte counties for getting up good dinners that any comment on her culinary ability is unnecessary, the table being loaded to its full capacity with good things including strawberries and cream and other luxuries too numerous to mention. After partaking of the bountiful repast, the guests then departed for their various homes smiling, and the bachelors and grass-widowers doubtless imagining they were several years younger. As to the old maids, there were none present.

OCCASIONAL.

Port Orford Will Celebrate.

The meeting called for Thursday evening June 15th by the Committee from the Commercial Club for the purpose of discussing the question of holding a Fourth of July celebration was largely attended. It was decided to hold a local celebration in a befitting manner and to invite our country neighbors. The following committees were named:

COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS.
W. H. Meredith, M. T. Wright, E. J. Loney, H. T. Stewart and J. R. Miller.

ATHLETIC COMMITTEE.
E. J. Loney, R. McKenzie, H. T. Stewart and W. M. Kent.

COMMITTEE ON GROUND.
E. L. White, Henry Adolphsen, Robert Forty, Dan Jurgensen, Herbert Uman, Clarence Wright, Delmar Wright, Oscar Poste and Wm. Steding.

MUSIC COMMITTEE.
Mrs. H. T. Stewart, Mrs. W. H. Meredith and N. H. Larson.

COMMITTEE ON DECORATIONS.
Mrs. O. Leneve, Olive Poste and Georgia Forty.

The matter of refreshments and dinner was left to the ladies of the town to look after, and we know that they cannot be outdone when it comes to getting up picnic dinners. This end of the program is solely in their charge, and we would suggest that they get together and make their own arrangements.

It is desired that everyone appoint themselves a committee of one to aid in every manner or form to make the celebration an enjoyable one.

If the soliciting committee has not already had the pleasure of relieving you of some of your surplus cash put your hand in your pocket and shell out.
