Local Happenings

Remember the dentist is in town and will remain the rest of the week.

E. J. Bement was a visitor in Port Orford over Monday night from his home near Denmark.

Robt. McPhillamy made a trip to Bandon the latter part of last week for medical treatment.

Don't overlook the big May Day dance in Port Orford; and your money will be spent in a good cause.

Arthur M. Hopkins passed down the coast last week returning from Portland to his father's home at Corvallis.

A notice from the county clerk calling for bids for the construction of the market road up Elk river appears in this issue.

W. H. Bennett received the plate glass windows for his store building yesterday, and the new quarters are now ready for occupancy.

Mrs. C. H. Crow, of Powers, and her little sister Ella Clarno, of Langlois, have been visiting relatives in Port Orford during the past week.

Rev. J. Edward Blair was in town over Thursday night while returning to his charge at Gold Beach from a visit to his home in Albany.

Rev. Cooper, Episcopal minister from Coquille, will hold services in the Port Orford church next Friday evening. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

Two auto trucks came down from Bandon last Friday after 35 head of fat hogs that Ford, the Marshfield butcher, had bought from J. F. Hopkins of Corvallis.

D. Quillen, after driving a Ford for four years, had his first experience, Sunday, in being towed in. He broke a reverse drum near Long's camp, north of Sixes.

C. H. Pearce came in town Sunday from his Middle Elk home and has started the preliminary work in the construction of the $25,000 dock the port commission is going to build in our harbor.

The gasoline boats Osprey and Tramp were in our harbor over Sunday night while enroute from Coos Bay to Rogue river with cargo of fishing equipment and general merchandise.

The Marsh Bros. recently brought down from Bandon a new Buick Six, which they purchased through S. G. Whitsett. They have stored the new car until better weather brings better roads.

Mrs. Lewis passed down the coast one day last week returning to her home at Gold Beach from Bandon, where she had been to have some dental work done. She also visited with her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Uican, at Sixes.

The Ladies Aid held another of its enjoyable parties last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Larson, the members of the Aid and their families being present. Refreshments of coffee, sandwiches and cream puffs were served about midnight.

Andy Ellis was in town Saturday from his home on Sixes showing his friends what a splendid trade he had made in getting rid of his reliable old Ford. No doubt Mr. Ellis did make a good trade, but when about half way home that evening he ran into a mudhole and stripped a gear and left his new car sitting in the middle of the road.

R. G. McKennis made a trip to Bandon last Friday with his Ford truck. Mr. McKennis said he met 14 cars on the trip, the most of which were heavy trucks. This large amount of traffic, over roads made soft by continued rain, is responsible for numerous mudholes that keep auto drivers guessing as to whether they will get through one to reach another.

Wine Chinamen passed down the coast last week enroute to Rogue river to work in the Seaborg cannery near the ferry. The Celestials were brought down from Bandon by Ben Hoyt with a touring car and Tom Lewis with a truck, while from here they sent over half a ton of baggage by parcel post and E. L. White took five of them through with his Ford and R. O. Smith took the rest with a team. Mr. White made the run to Wedderburn and back without getting stuck, and one must go over the road to appreciate what this means.

De your part on Cleanup Day.

The Coos and Curry Fair Association is advertising a Mid-summer Race Meet at Myrtle Point on June 18th and 19th. There will be four running races each day, with purses ranging from $50 to $200.

Chas. Long recently built a small skiff that he will use with a gasoline launch this summer in connection with deep sea fishing. He launched the boat in the lake, Saturday, where he will use it for pleasure until outside work commences.

C. F. Pape, the Sperry flour man, and C. I. Freese, Standard Oil representative, were visitors in town Monday from Bandon. The gentlemen tried their luck on the lake with rod and line, but the day was not favorable and they got more exercise than fish.

M. T. Wright's two trucks made a couple of trips to Bandon during the past week with 500,000 running feet, or about 100 miles, of 1/2 inch square cedar strips that the local mill had just cut for a San Francisco steel company. What use will be made of the strips is not known.

Louis Marsh went to Bandon one day last week and brought back a truckload of pure blood Jersey calves that were bought from Mr. Jarman, of Bullards, and will be raised to improve the Marsh herd. The Marsh farm is one of the model dairies of northern Curry, and the land and the stock are being constantly brought to a higher state of production.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wallace started through the mountains one day last week enroute to their mining claims on Boulder creek. They had two burros packed with provisions and equipment, and Mrs. Wallace was walking with her husband. Considerable snow showed in the mountains when they left, and they were sure to have to break trail through two or three feet of it.

Wm. Johnson "Coonskin Bill" established a new endurance record last week for the run between Wedderburn and Port Orford, making the 21 miles in 21 hours. Bill spent the night in one place on the mountain, and travelers the next day thought they had discovered where a horse had been down in the mud until they learned it was but the imprint of Bill's buck where he had been under his car.

W. S. Robinson is doing much work clearing and planting the 11 acres, near Silver House, that he bought last fall from W. R. Hurst. He is setting out 300 loganberry vines and 1000 strawberry plants. He is also getting some choice pear, peach and apple trees to start an orchard. Adjoining Mr. Robinson, his brother and R. F. Abbott are making many improvements on their place which is making a big difference in the appearance of that neighborhood.

State School Superintendent J. A. Churchill spoke in Port Orford last Thursday evening on school consolidation and the 2 mill tax measure. Mr. Churchill believes that consolidation is the only solution to the question of better schools for rural districts, and he had a large array of statistics to prove his position. He also believes the 2 mill tax measure must be passed if all the schools of the state are to be kept from deteriorating. Mr. Churchill was accompanied here by Supt. W. M. Kest, of Langlois, who gave an interesting talk on the school situation in Curry county and also urged consolidation.

Clean-Up Day.

Next Saturday, the 24th, if the weather permits, there will be a general street cleaning day in Port Orford. If it should storm that day, then the work will be done the first following Saturday that the weather is suitable.

R. O. Smith has promised the use of his team to haul the junk away after it has been sacked or boxed up. It will be appreciated if anyone having old barrels, boxes or sacks will donate them for that purpose.

A subscription has been raised, and boys will be hired to do the work under the supervision of Geo. Forty and J. M. Limpach.

People having trash around their yards are requested to get it ready to be hauled away, and in the future they are asked to provide some kind of a receptacle for it so it can be hauled away periodically and not become scattered about town.

It is hoped everybody will join in helping make our town a cleaner and more beautiful place to live.

Demand for advertising space compels the TRIBUNE to omit its editorial column this week.

Lester Lucas, a well known Harbor resident who would doubtless make a good official, announces his candidacy for the Republican nomination for County Commissioner.

May Day Dance.

A May Day Dance will be given in the Fromm hall at Port Orford, May 1, 1920, under the auspices of the Civic Improvement Club, the proceeds to be used to help pay for the cleaning of the cemetery.

All ladies that dance will be charged 10c admission fee to help pay war tax. Music by the Woodcock orchestra. Supper with hot coffee will be served in the hall at 50c per plate.

Everybody is invited to come and have a jolly time and help with a good work.

Death of Mrs. Wakeman.

Mrs. Mary E. Wakeman, a pioneer resident of Curry county, died at the home of her son C. E. Wakeman in Wedderburn, April 16, 1920, aged 76 years.

The deceased was born in Morgan county, Ohio, May 3, 1844, and was married to James F. Wakeman Oct. 30, 1866, coming to Curry county with her husband, now deceased, in 1876 and settling on Rogue river. They later moved to Euchre creek where Mr. Wakeman operated a small saw mill. Following his death about 20 years ago Mrs. Wakeman bought a home in Gold Beach where she resided until failing health a few months ago caused her to sell it and move to Wedderburn to live with her son.

Mrs. Wakeman was a good wife, a good mother, a good neighbor and a good citizen, and her many years of residence in Curry county won her a host of lasting friends. She survived by one son and 3 grand children. Interment took place Sunday afternoon in the Gold Beach cemetery.

Mrs. Geo. Fitzhugh Dies.

Mrs. George Fitzhugh died at the family home on Sixes last Monday evening, aged 68 years.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Sarah Cox, was born in Polk county, Oregon, April 12, 1852, and came to Curry county with her husband in 1872, settling on Flores creek where they resided until 1888 when they moved to Sixes on a ranch about two miles above the bridge.

Mrs. Fitzhugh was a home-loving woman, whose many admirable traits of character endeared her to a wide circle of friends. She was the mother of five boys and four girls all of whom, together with many grandchildren, survive her. Her husband passed away about a year ago, at which time she suffered a light paralytic stroke and had not been strong since.

Interment will take place in the Denmark cemetery at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, having been postponed to await the arrival of a son, Deed, from his home in the state of Washington.

Pioneer Resident of Curry Dies in California.

DIED—In San Jose, California, April 6, 1920, Clarissa Merriman, beloved sister of Amiea Merriman of San Jose and aunt of G. R. Merriman of Campbell, Cal.; Mrs. F. N. Guild of Arizona; Lue Merriman of Honolulu, and Ethel Merriman of Los Angeles, Cal., a native of Vermont, aged 84 years and 10 days.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral today (Wednesday) April 7, 1920, at 2 o'clock p. m. at Madrone Cemetery, Saratoga, Cal.

The above obituary appeared in a San Jose paper of April 7th, last.

The Merriman family were among the pioneer residents of Curry county, having settled on Rogue river about 1870. The deceased taught school in the county for thirty years or more before moving to California about twenty years ago.

Many former acquaintances and pupils of Miss Merriman in this section, who held her in high respect, will regret to learn of her death.

Red Cross Nurse Instructor Coming to Curry County.

The Red Cross Chapter of Coos and Curry has at last succeeded in employing a Red Cross Nurse Instructor who will organize classes in Home Nursing in the two counties.

Miss Cecil Schreyer, Coos County Public Health Nurse, who has been instrumental in securing this instructor for Curry county, will be in Curry next week with the instructor and is anxious that the classes be organized when they come.

Mrs. A. W. Cope has been asked by the association to organize the Curry classes, and Dr. Wheeler, the County Health Officer, is cooperating with her by organizing the lower end of the county.

Anyone over 14 is eligible, and the classes should number from 12 to 15. There is no expense attached to the course except 50c for the cost of the text book. Any woman unable to pay that amount, but wishing to take the course, may enroll and the Chapter will care for the expense. It will be necessary for living quarters to be provided for the nurse and a place to hold the classes. In town some central place will do, but in the rural communities the classes will be held in the homes where beds, bedding, and stoves are available. In a town two or more classes might be organized. Organization classes are under way at Langlois (2), Denmark, Sixes, Port Orford, and one will probably be organized on Elk river.

Sheriff Tolman Has Exciting Experience With Prisoner.

Ray Norton and D. E. Ellsworth, living on opposite sides of Rogue river about 3 miles above Ilwaco, had trouble and a few days ago Ellsworth crossed over to give Norton a beating, but was met with a pitchfork and driven off. He started back home with the avowed intention of getting his gun and shooting it out. Norton went to Gold Beach and swore out a warrant for Ellsworth's arrest on an insanity charge.

Sheriff Tolman arrested his man Tuesday morning and started with him on horseback for the county seat. On reaching Lone Tree creek Ellsworth suddenly threw himself from the saddle and went after a sheer rock bluff about 75 feet high, landing in the creek. The sheriff expected to see the prisoner killed by the fall, but instead, the latter clambered to his feet and started for the adjacent brush paying no attention to a command to 'halt' and a shot from the sheriff's revolver that went wide of its mark.

After eluding the sheriff, Ellsworth doubled back and started up the mountain intending to take the divide to Port Orford, but when night came on he struck snow and turned back, reaching Noble Shearer's place about 11 o'clock more dead than alive. In the meantime sheriff Tolman had tracked his man far enough to learn his intentions and had notified all the settlers in the vicinity of his escape. Having had enough running away experience, Ellsworth gave himself up to the sheriff the following morning.

At a hearing in Gold Beach the insanity charge against Ellsworth was not sustained and he was discharged from custody. Examination showed one bone in his forearm broken, but he did not state whether Norton and the pitchfork or the fall did it.
