Local Happenings

Farmers are busy hay-making.

Rev. Cooper, of Coquille, will preach in the local church next Friday evening, the 9th.

A celebration in honor of the event is talked of at Port Orford when the new wharf is completed.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bennett passed through town Sunday enroute from Portland to their home near Corbin.

Lloyd Koapp, after an absence of several months in the Willamette Valley and at Astoria, returned the first of the week to his home in Port Orford.

Commissioner E. E. Cope passed through town yesterday enroute to Gold Beach to attend the regular July term of county court which convened this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sutton went to Gold Beach to attend the 4th of July celebration at that place, and are spending a week there visiting their daughter, Mrs. Jesse Turner.

Mrs. E. A. Bailey and son, Chas., while returning from Gold Beach to their home in Portland, are stopping a few days in Port Orford while Mrs. Bailey is visiting with her sister, Mrs. L. E. Stewart.

Postmaster A. S. Johnston and family spent Sunday and Monday in Bandon celebrating the 4th and attending Chautauqua. W. J. Sabu looked out for the post office during Mr. Johnston's absence.

Herbert Duican and Andy Ellis were Sixes visitors who attended the celebration at Gold Beach on the 4th. The gentlemen were accompanied home, Sunday, by their families who had been visiting for a week at the county seat.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Moore and daughter, Stella, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Miller and child, of Cedar Fork, passed through Port Orford, Friday, in the Moore car enroute to Marshfield to spend the 4th. They returned home Monday.

The Kozy has received a fresh coat of paint both inside and out during the past week. Proprietor J. B. Carl was not going to be left in the lurch by the other business houses in town that have lately had their appearance improved by painter Wm. Heary.

Mrs. Mary E. Dean and grandson Lyman returned last week from spending the winter at Oakland, California. They came by train, and spent several weeks on the road visiting relatives enroute. Mrs. Dean will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Haft of Sixes.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Corson and little daughter, and Miss Mary Walsh, of Bandon, were Port Orford visitors one day last week. Mr. Corson is cashier of the First National Bank at Bandon, and Miss Walsh is one of the Chautauqua performers who will close a week's engagement in that town today.

Steve Spoerl returned last week from a trip to Sioux Falls, South Dakota, to which place he recently accompanied his mother, Mrs. E. J. Baker. The latter remained in the east visiting relatives and will not return until next month. Mr. Spoerl said a few days in the heat back there were enough to make him anxious to get back again to the coast and its cool sea breezes.

Col. B. K. Lawson, general manager of the Macleay Estate company at Rogue river, passed through town Sunday returning to his home at Wedderburn from a short business trip to Portland. While in the latter city Mr. Lawson completed the details that will permit the closing of the deal for the purchase by the Port of Port Orford of the right-of-way through the R. L. Macleay property to the wharf.

School Supt. W. M. Kent was in Port Orford over Friday night while returning to his home at Langlois from conducting the teachers' examination last week at Gold Beach. But two teachers, Mrs. Elvin Miller Jr. and Mrs. Harriet Starr, took the examination. Mrs. Miller has signed to teach a nine months' term of school at Euchre creek, while Mrs. Starr is teaching at Pistol river. Supt. Kent had been in the south end of the county about two weeks during which time he visited the various school districts of that section as well as those of the upper Rogue river country.

The Garden orchestra, of Bandon, will furnish the music for a big dance in Port Orford next Wednesday evening, the 14th.

A small run of fish this week has stirred the hope of a big catch that lies within the breast of every fisherman, but results so far obtained do not justify undue excitement over the situation. A few chinooks are also being taken on the troll at the jaws—Reporter.

Assessor F. S. Moore is in Port Orford on his yearly pilgrimage among the taxpayers of the county. Mr. Moore went up to the north end of the county several weeks ago, and is now working his way south. In speaking of local conditions, the assessor has no hesitancy in saying he believes a big mistake was made, both from an economic and educational standpoint, when school consolidation was defeated.

Lorin Forty has traded his Chevrolet car for a 1 ton Oldsmobile truck which he will use on the mail stage route between this place and Corbin. Mr. Forty took the new car on its trial trip Monday and was well pleased with the way it worked. He says it rides easy and has more room, clearance and power than his old car. He believes the two latter features will enable him to run all winter without trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gillings, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Larson and little daughter Virginia, and Mrs. A. F. Woodyard, made a party that went to Bandon Saturday morning in the Gillings car and remained until Monday evening attending the 4th of July celebration and Chautauqua. Mrs. Gillings acted as chaperone. It was her first long trip in that capacity, and she got along so nicely that it is safe to say it will not be her last. Mr. Woodyard was also a Bandon visitor at the same time, making the trip by stage.

Mrs. H. T. Stewart and children returned to Port Orford Thursday. The former had been attending the Rose Festival, and Miss Dorothy was coming home from going to school at the Washington high in Portland, while Byron and Helen had been visiting relatives at North Bend and Sitkum, in Coos county. On their way home Mrs. Stewart and Dorothy visited at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Myers at Coburg, 8 miles from Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Myers formerly resided at Port Orford where he was resident pastor for two years. This estimable couple are now very comfortably fixed at Coburg, where they own their own home and where they intend to reside permanently. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rickman and family, who for many years made Curry county their home, are also residents of Coburg.

Dr. Horsfall Coming For Red Cross Classes.

Dr. Horsfall, prominent physician and surgeon of Marshfield, will visit northern Curry in the near future prepared to operate for the removal of tonsils and adenoids. This announcement has been made by Miss Dorothy Hope, Red Cross nurse who is conducting nursing classes at Port Orford, Denmark and Langlois, and who was instrumental in getting the Dr. to make this visit. A dentist, who will extract and fill teeth, will accompany Dr. Horsfall, and it is going to be a rare opportunity indeed for the people of northern Curry to get expert work of this kind done at home. Those who wish the services of Dr. Horsfall should communicate with Miss Hope at once, as she will know shortly the exact date of the Dr.'s visit.

Indian Missionary Visits Port Orford.

Miss Hope Elizabeth Haupt, of Washington, D. C., a noted lecturer and worker among the Indians visited Port Orford over last Sunday night. She had announced to speak in the church that evening, but was delayed in her arrival here until it was too late to keep her appointment.

Miss Haupt's work is to better home conditions among the Indians and she also advocates giving them full citizen rights, instead of making them wards of the government. In Coos county she found but one full blood Coos Indian alive.

From Port Orford Miss Haupt returned north to continue her investigations in the Coquille country.

Lloyd Tyler Taken To San Francisco For Operation.

Lloyd Tyler, youngest son of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Tyler of Crescent City, has been taken to San Francisco by Dr. Tyler for an operation for tumor of the stomach. The young man has been ailing for some time, but it was only recently that the cause of his trouble was discovered.

Dr. Tyler and family are former residents of Curry county, and have relatives and many friends in this section who hope to hear that this serious operation is entirely successful.

The 4th of July.

Port Orford was almost a deserted village during the three days that marked the 4th of July celebrations. Many of our people went to Gold Beach and Bandon for the celebration on Friday and Saturday, and others went to Bandon for the Chautauqua and celebration Monday while still others went both places. All reported an enjoyable time.

The main event at Gold Beach was the wrestling match between Wilbur Ostrander, of Pistol river, and Ben Broadson, of Gold Beach. Those who witnessed the contest said it was a splendid exhibition. Ostrander won the first and third falls. Many seem to still be undecided as to which is the better man, and the two may meet again in a return match.

Health Nurse Coming.

Miss Jane Allen, of the Bureau of Nursing, of the state Board of health will be in Curry beginning July 8, and remain here until the 13th. The following schedule has been arranged and it is hoped that every one, men and women, will make an effort to hear her. She comes to acquaint herself with the conditions and people of Curry and to learn their sentiment toward securing a county nurse. Even though we are not able to place a nurse this next year, it will be interesting and helpful to learn of health conditions in other parts of the state. Mrs. A. W. Cope has arranged the schedule and will accompany Miss Allen. It was impossible for Miss Schreyer to come at the last moment.

July 8, Thursday afternoon Langlois; Evening Denmark.

July 9, Friday afternoon, Euchre Creek; evening Gold Beach.

July 10, Saturday afternoon, Wedderburn—Evening, Jerry's Flat.

July 11, Sunday, Pistol River.

July 12, Monday evening, Brookings.

July 13, Tuesday evening, Port Orford.

Fines Drawn In Justice Court.

D. M. Moore, Gold Beach merchant, was convicted in the Justice court at that place recently and fined $25 for selling beef iron and wine.

The attention of the TRIBUNE was called to this matter of official record, as its publication might have a tendency to restrain others from a sale of similar concoctions. Mr. Moore is a good citizen and no doubt thought he was within his rights when he offered this drink to the public and while our personal inclination would be to pass this matter by without mention, yet the TRIBUNE cannot swerve from its policy of treating all men alike regardless of their position in life.

That newspaper which publishes the little fellow when he gets in the toils of law, but overlooks the man of affluence when in a similar position, is violating the trust to the common people and breaking the highest ideals of the newspaper fraternity.

Since the above was in type we have received information that Pat Turner and an Oregon City fisherman were fined $10 each and costs for fighting, and Dave Frame forfeited a $50 fine on which he had been paroled and is now paroled on a $100 fine and Capt. Colvin, of the Tramp was fined $10 and costs. This all happened in Justice Dye's court about the same time. Messrs. Frame and Colvin having gotten too hilarious in celebrating.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Dodson have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Dodson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bryant, and Mrs. Dodson was formerly Miss Audrey Bryant. She had been teaching in the grammar grades at Gold Beach, the past school year where she met Mr. Dodson who had gone to Gold Beach for a visit with his brother. They motored up from Gold Beach with Mr. and Mrs. Perry Dodson to Marshfield where the wedding took place. From there they came to Myrtle Point on their honeymoon for a visit with the relatives and friends of the bride. Mrs. Dodson is well and favorably known in the Myrtle Point section, having taught various schools and having been a student of the Myrtle Point schools.—Myrtle Point American.

Wm. Broome Released.

Wm. Broome passed through Port Orford last week returning to his mining claims on the south fork of Sixes, having been released, at his late hearing at Gold Beach. Several months ago Broome was examined at this place and committed to the asylum at Salem, where he was released after being confined about two months. Recently he was arrested by sheriff Tolman and taken to the county seat for a more thorough examination on the same charge, with the result that he is now a free man.

Mr. Broome feels he is aggrieved especially as to the reports of the press that he is a bad man and has been terrorizing the Eckley community with threats and gun plays etc. In support of his contention he has several affidavits from residents of that section to the effect that so far as they know he is a peaceable and law abiding citizen. He also has some evidence to show that there are some in the neighborhood who would like to run him off, with the intention, he believes, of acquiring his mining claims. While Broome was held in Salem his claims were relocated, but he has gone back into possession of them again.

According to assays that have been made by a local assayer at Bandon, Mr. Broome has a ledge that is fabulously rich in gold, silver, platinum, iridium and osmium. He says the ledge is 15 feet wide, with the mineral carrying quartz 5 feet thick, and he assigns his trouble to the desire of others to get hold of these claims.

Mr. Broome states that he does not intend to molest or injure any one. All that he asks, he says, is to be left alone in the peaceful possession of his claim.

WESTERN WORLD.

Miss Myrtle Neuman has returned to her home from Emergency hospital where she underwent an operation for appendicitis.

J. S. Hughes, keeper of the Cape Blanco lighthouse, returned to the Cape yesterday after spending a few days on business here at Coos Bay. While here he was guest at the home of his son in law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. R. V. Leep.

Lewis Chandlee of Los Angeles, California, is in the community investigating black sand prospects. He is said to represent important mining interests of California. The latter part of the week Mr. Chandlee visited this section about eight years ago and installed a black sand proposition for parties at Gold Beach. The plant however only operated a short time owing to insufficient water, but during the period it did not operate, it is said to have taken out considerable gold and platinum.

F. T. McMullen, former dairyman of Denmark who now conducts "Macks" auto supply house at Eugene, was in Bandon on business this week, remaining several days. He also took occasion to run down to his old home community to say "hello" to the boys. Mr. McMullen recently purchased an automobile business in Eugene which carries with it the agencies for the Essex and Chalmers cars. The gas shortage has affected the auto business in the valley as it has everywhere, but Mr. McMullen says that he has been informed from a reliable source that there will be gas after the tenth of the month to give the pleasure cars at least 60 per cent of capacity.
