

Port Orford Local News Briefs

Chas. Weaver and Leslie T. Bennett of Seattle and Richard M. Price were visitors at the Inman mine the first of the week.

Several Port Orford people went to Bandon Sunday to see the picture show, "Abraham Lincoln" at the Hartman theater. They report a good picture.

Mrs. Anna Adolphsen and her daughter, Katie of Denmark, attended Eastern Star Saturday night in Port Orford.

Clarence Wagner is home on a week Easter vacation the joy of which is being doubled by the new Nash car that has come to the Wagner ranch on Elk river.

E. Fred Wann left Monday for the Rogue river country, near Gold Beach, where he will be gone for three weeks surveying.

Last Tuesday night a surprise crowd gathered at the home of Hans Adolphsen to hear the fine radio St. Patrick's program. All departed at a late hour, being well pleased with the fine programs and music which they listened in on.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crowder of Silverton, Oregon, were in Port Orford for a visit Sunday. Mrs. Crowder is a sister to Mrs. Chas. Umbenhaur and Mrs. Hans Adolphsen. Mrs. Crowder was also accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Faith, who lives in Bandon.

A surprise party crowd gathered at the home of the Limpack Brothers last Friday night to listen to the Radio program, which was old time dance music, broadcasted from Calgary, Canada. At a late hour a basket lunch was served, which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Wm. Howe of Langlois, who was to have begun operating the Hull mill, is sick of pneumonia at his home.

Mrs. Laura Mattoon is here from Coquille visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Carter.

Mrs. A. Adolphsen of Denmark and her two children, Katie and Fred, were visitors in Port Orford Sunday at the home of Mrs. Adolphsen's son, Hans Adolphsen. Late in the afternoon, Adolphsens, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Umbenhaur, motored to Rocky Point to gather mussels and clams.

The well known and successful Minneapolis rupture expert, Mr. C. F. Redlich, will be in Marshfield on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 7 and 8, at the Chandler hotel. Ruptured people come many miles to see him. Consultation is free. Watch Marshfield papers for special announcement. M. 25-Apr. 1.

Mrs. Rachel Marsh moved into town last week from their Elk river dairy ranch, which they have leased to the Kyle Bros. of Marshfield for a term of five years. The ranch is one of the well developed dairies and at present support about 75 head of milkers besides young stock and beef cattle. One of the trucks bringing in Kyle's furniture upset on the Coquille road and damaged a piano and some other pieces of furniture. Three of the children are attending school in Port Orford. They come in the school truck.

Men always balk at the girl full of talk.

COMMUNITY CHURCH OF PORT ORFORD

Sabbath school at 10 a. m. Junior and Senior service at 11 a. m. Young people's meeting at 8 p. m.

At the close of the morning service a congregational meeting is called for the purpose of calling a minister for the coming year. All members and supporters of the church are entitled to vote. H. M. Axtell will moderate the meeting. A full attendance is desired that there should be no occasion for regret on the part of any because of the choice made.

The Ladies' aid will meet Wednesday afternoon at the manse with Mrs. W. T. White and Mrs. Porter as hostesses.

A business meeting of the Young People's society will be held at the church, Wednesday evening, after which all will repair to the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wann, where they will enjoy a social hour.

The Rev. Mr. Shriver, Sabbath school missionary for Coos Bay presbytery, was a caller at the manse, Sabbath afternoon, enroute to Gold Beach, where he will spend a few days with the Rev. Mr. Whitsett, assisting the Gold Beach church in making up its annual budget.

Mrs. Smith accompanied her husband to Langlois last Sabbath evening for the service.

MRS. ELLA KNAPP ENTERTAINS
The Ladies' aid met at the Knapp hotel with Mrs. Ella Knapp as hostess. Twenty members were present.

The afternoon was spent profitably on many new pieces of work.

After the meeting had adjourned the ladies were served delicious refreshments at a long table made beautiful with vases of flowers. The refreshments consisted of potato salad, hot buns, macaroons and last but not least, two lovely birthday cakes, it to be the food of Angels—one made by our Mrs. Smith and the other by Mrs. Knapp, honoring the birthday of Mrs. Sauer, Mrs. Wm McPhillamey and Mrs. William Gillings. Although Mrs. Knapp is not a member of the Aid she had gladly lent her services time and time again and has always entertained royally.

FIRST SPRING DAY ENJOYED IN CLAM AND OYSTER HUNT

Many took advantage of the opportunity to enjoy a spring day in the big outdoor and motored to spots of beauty and interest and enjoyed picnic dinners Sunday along the Highway from Floras creek to Arizona Inn. Perhaps the most popular place was the Rocky Point clam beds, in the afternoon, for no less than fifteen to twenty cars and trucks were parked a Rety Creek and many water buckets, coal oil cans and gunny sacks were taken away well loaded with the white hard shell clams commonly called butter clams. Many gathered mussels from the rocks and steamed them over camp fires built of the drift wood along the beach. While others sledged and broke rocks, after the tide had receded beyond the normal low water mark and left bare ledges of rock perforated with rock oysters, a sea food fit for the table of kings.

MRS. FORTY HOSTESS TO SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

Mrs. Bernal Forty gave a party Saturday afternoon for the members of her Sunday school class. The children played St. Patrick's games. Kodak pictures were taken of the group of sixteen. A beautiful cake and candles were in evidence as it was the eleventh birthday of Marie Lindberg. Jello with whipped cream was also served.

Marie was showered with spring flowers by her companions. It is planned by the class to have a picnic or a party once a month.

BANQUET TENDERED TO OFFICERS OF CLUB

The Civic Improvement club members were the guests of Mrs. M. T. Wright and Mrs. O. Leneve at a banquet last Thursday afternoon. The affair was arranged in honor of three newly-elected officers and the present officers: Mrs. Ella Knapp, president; Mrs. Adda Porter, vice-president; Myrtle Forty, treasurer, and Mrs. Bernal Forty retained as secretary of the club. The committees reported the dance a splendid success financially.

Mining News OF NORTH CURRY

C. C. Inman left Monday for Providence, Rhode Island, to submit the annual report of the Hydro Sixes Mines, and attend the stockholders meeting.

Dr. Lewis returned last week from Los Angeles, and will be at the Elk Horn mine on Upper Elk while Mr. Marksburg makes another trip to Denver to confer with other members of the company concerning changes made in the development plans. This is the placer holding purchased last summer from Tom Wallace at a reported price of $10,000.

Bert Lynch is feeling better again and has gone to their placer claim above the Elk Horn group. Actual development work has been in progress there for some months.

TELEPHONE COMPANY IS BUILDING NEW POLL LINE

A survey crew of the Coos and Curry Telephone company in charge of J. A. Belleu is making a permanent survey for an entirely new pole line in town. Those in the crew are George Bender, Floyd Bedieu and surveyor, E. H. Kern.

Port Orford cedar poles will be used and the work, when completed, will add greatly to the appearance of our streets.

Radio with its static, now appears to be about in the needle-scratching day of the phonograph.

Minor Musings.

About as many bad men try to pretend that they are good as there are good men that go wrong.

We often speak of the old settlers probably because you can't find any new ones.

You've heard that "every knock is a boost," but a knock in the engine is no boost.

The last citadel has fallen. A man used to be "next" in a barber shop, but he's not even second nowadays if there is a flapper in the house.

Maybe this is a solution of some modern problems. The present slogan is, "Let's go and dance." It used to be, "Let's stay at home and read."

Good advice generally is wasted if it comes from a bad adviser.

Spring Is Coming

And with the resumption of logging on a larger scale than ever you will need new tools and equipment. We have the best the market affords.
