MORE LODGING ACCOMMODATIONS BEING PROVIDED BY HOTEL

Further improvements are being made to the Port Orford Hotel annex above Bill's Place, by the addition of eight more rooms for lodging purposes, and this will give the hotel a total of 21 rooms in the annex. The demand for rooms in Port Orford has prompted Mr. Bennett to make arrangements to give accommodations and also to help out the tourists, who are expected to come later.

DANCE AT FROMM HALL.
The jazz dance given by Mrs. Magnolia Zumwalt at Fromm hall last Saturday night, was well attended and an enjoyable time reported by all present.

MUSICAL AT CARTER HOME.
A musical given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carter Sunday evening was a treat for a number of our young folks.

Singing was enjoyed by all, and several saxophone selections rendered by Jessie Ponting were highly appreciated.

Preserving Books
The simplest way to prevent mildewing of books is to keep the leather in a well-ventilated and well-lighted place, preferably one exposed to the sunlight. Mildew cannot make much headway in sunshine. When mildew develops it should be washed off with soap and warm water, or simply wiped off with a moist cloth, drying the leather well afterward.
