

Put Your Crops in the Bank

Summer time is the farmer's work time. He is gathering in what must keep him the whole year through. In order to tide him over the winter and spring, what he takes in now, must be stored some where.

Where can he store it better than in our bank? Not only is your money safe with us, but by keeping an account, you get acquainted with business principles and business men. Try it and see. We are always glad to see you at this bank.

SISTERS

Mrs. Milton Roberts left last week to visit her old home in Sault Ste Marie, Mich. Mr. Roberts accompanied her as far as The Dalles.

An Oregon Life insurance agent was here last week working up business.

M. L. Job and wife were Redmond visitors last week looking after their interests there.

Mrs. Sarah Mick and son John came in this week from Connell, Wn., to take possession of the place they recently bought from F. McCaffery.

J. O. Hornbeck was a business visitor to Redmond Tuesday.

PINE HURST

Harvesting is about over in this section. With good crops and the railroad coming every one is feeling happy.

Dane Harris of Medford, Ore., is here looking the country over.

Walter Wheatley will leave for the valley in the near future.

Wimer's and Spaug will start their new hay baler this week. They have several hundred tons to bale.

L. H. Root, our supervisor, has been doing some work on the roads lately. He intends to do considerable work this fall.

Geo. Higginson and family, passed through here Tuesday from Pasadena, Calif. They were looking for land.

O. C. Colegrove will have charge of our school this term, which began Monday.

C. F. McDermott and family of Centralia, Wash. were in our valley Sunday. He has a desert claim here, also a homestead north of Sisters.

TUMALO

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Woolley have gone to the valley for a load of fruit.

Chief Engineer Laugaard of the Columbia Southern Irrigating Co. is expected to reach here from Portland soon.

C. H. Spaug was a business caller at this place last Friday. He is kept busy baling hay these days.

Geo. McCallister of Gist, was a Bend visitor last Saturday.

The sheep men are bringing their sheep out of their pasture on account of the short grass. They will now clean up all the grass the settlers have before they depart for home, but this will get old with the settlers after a while, no doubt.

E. H. Roberts of Sisters, was a caller at this place last week, and stated that he and his brother had their saw mill running and were sawing about 16,000 feet per day. They expect to saw something like 25,000 when they get to sawing railroad timbers. They have a contract with the Hill people to furnish all the railroad timber for the road between Madras and Redmond.
