

Put Your Crops in the Bank

Summer time is the farmer's work time. He is gathering in what must keep him the whole year through. In order to tide him over the winter and spring, what he takes in now, must be stored some where.

Where can he store it better than in our bank? Not only is your money safe with us, but by keeping an account, you get acquainted with business principles and business men. Try it and see. We are always glad to see you at this bank.

Additional Local.

October came in like real fall weather. The first two days the wind blew from every direction and then up and down, accompanied by some rain.

Miss Amy Pratt and Mac Wright were quietly married last Sunday at 1:30 p. m. at the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. Lilly. The young couple will soon leave for a visit to Mr. Wright's parents in California. Their many friends extend congratulations to the worthy young couple.

Take your prescriptions to the Redmond Pharmacy where they will receive prompt attention by a registered pharmacist. 10tf

Matt Kulesch last week bought the Redmond livery barn from the Jones Land Co. The consideration was $5000 cash. Mr. Kulesch has not decided yet whether he will conduct the business personally or rent the place.

In the center of Melrose Park addition to Redmond is located the only public Park within the city limits, it covers five acres.

W. E. Godsey and brothers, of Portland, who were in Redmond last week, were so favorably impressed with the city and surrounding country that they may return and establish a large blacksmith and machine shop here.

The Redmond Reading Circle is attracting much attention and interest among the members. The line of study that has been taken up is "The Settlement and Development of New Countries from Kentucky to the Coast."

George Farris, manager of the Redmond Feed & Fuel Co., returned last week from Shaniko with a wood sawing outfit and a feed chopper and grinder. He is getting the sawing machine in condition to saw up the wood around the city, which will be a big help to the householder who is not very handy with a buck saw and has little inclination to use one.

If you want to buy some nice lunch goods go to "The Palace" where Snell & Green will fix you out right. 6tf

C. P. Judge of Prairie City, was in the city last week in the interests of the good roads movement. He said he thought Redmond was the coming city of Central Oregon.

John Washington returned last Saturday after a month's visit in different parts of Washington. Mrs. M. Washington, his daughter-in-law of Spokane, came with him for a short visit.

Attention is called to the advertisement of J. A. Fallgatter, the photographer, in this issue. Mr. Fallgatter is an experienced scenic and landscape photographer, and his views of different sections around Redmond are in great demand.

The city council is working on the matter of fire protection for the city. They are in correspondence with several fire apparatus manufacturing firms for the purchase of a chemical engine of sufficient capacity to meet the needs of Redmond.

The Jones Land Co. intend to put another story on the building they are now occupying as a real estate office. That will make the hotel, real estate office and the new building south of the Jones building conform as to architecture fronting on Sixth street, and add much to the appearance of the corner of E and Sixth streets.
