

Put Your Crops in the Bank

Summer time is the farmer's work time. He is gathering in what must keep him the whole year through. In order to tide him over the winter and spring, what he takes in now, must be stored some where.

Where can he store it better than in our bank? Not only is your money safe with us, but by keeping an account, you get acquainted with business principles and business men. Try it and see. We are always glad to see you at this bank.

The Best Man in Town

The best man we have in our town for the general good of the town is the one who you will always see on the front seat in the progressive "band wagon." He is the first one to extend an open and warm hand to greet the stranger and welcome him to the best town in the state. He will resent an insult to our town as quickly as he would a slur at a member of his family. He very politely invites the chronic croaker to "move on." He is ever ready to give his just proportion to every public enterprise. He talks up our town at home and abroad and believes it the best place upon God's green earth in which to live and desires to be buried here when he dies. Let us all try and be like this man for one year and our little city will take on new life and improve as never before in its history.

Index of a Town

The advertising columns of the newspapers are a certain index of the successful business houses of a city or town. The rule holds good in every metropolis in the world. Printer's ink has made thousands of men rich and never yet made one poor. The bold advertisers are the successful business men. Those that launch out and scatter broadcast facts and figures, keeping their business ever before the people never relaxing, never retreating, always pressing forward, pushing ahead, never to have to regret "lost opportunities" or "what might have been" but unbounded success is theirs, to which the world pays homage and many attribute to luck as a favorite of fortune when the real source of this great success lies directly through the channel of judicious, persistent advertising.

Ye Country Editor

One of the hardest duties in the world is to fill the news columns of a local paper with interesting items when there is really no news to write. It is far more vexing and perplexing than a person who has never had any experience in newspaper work can well imagine. The paper must come out on time, and the reading matter has to be supplied from some source. When the brain of the editor becomes weary, mind inactive and his faithful scissors dull, is it do you imagine, any child's play for him to probe the gas-bags of his imagination and bring forth a column or more of original "wind" that will both edify, delight and instruct his readers? Verily the life of a country editor is full of trials, troubles and perplexities and like the wicked, he is doomed to not live out half his days.

Faith in the City

The investment by conservative citizens in business and residence property is a very good indication of the faith of the citizenship in the city. Their advance has been gradual but it has only been in keeping with the general prosperity that has been prevalent in this city. People who formerly resided in our city on their return visits are quick to see the change in conditions. There is an atmosphere of good times prevalent.

Still the wave of prosperity continues in Redmond. Another business house to be built on sixth street. That shows the business men here have faith in the future of the city. Mayor White, one of the most progressive men of Redmond, will put up a creditable building on the corner of Sixth and E streets, same to be completed by January first.

The fellow who stops his paper because offended at some item that does not suit his fancy, always imagines he is getting even with the publisher, but he is never missed. This only happens occasionally for there are only a few people in any community who imagine a paper should contain nothing but what they approve of.

There are two ways of getting into a newspaper—"purchasing an interest and purchasing an interview." There is still another way—pulling the wool over the editor's eyes and getting in for nothing. This is a very popular form of entry.

Time was not far back when the boddler was called a statesman or, at worse, a shrewd politician. It is to the great advantage of this country that he is now known by his right name.

Buy of your home merchants and you are increasing the value of your property. This is a fact, the better the town, the more demand there will be for property.
