

$1000.00 IT IS AGREED

By successful men that the first thousand dollars that they saved looked larger to them than the many thousands that followed. There are several reasons for this. One of which is, that money saved begets more money. You are practically helpless, as far as business advancement is concerned unless you have some capital. When you have capital, opportunities for sound and profitable investments are always presenting themselves. Start an account with this bank and we will willingly assist you with our advice, when you have enough to swing an investment. Our Certificates of Deposit offer an absolutely safe opportunity to make four and five percent on your idle money. You are always welcome at this bank.

Your Own Business

Why is it, it is often asked, that people in small towns can find no better business than prying into other people's business, and then exaggerating the truth in regard to the same. People who pretend to be Christians, who attend church regularly, who in the sight of their neighbors are generous and charitable, yet who, without the slightest provocation, pick up some little mistake, or more often, at nothing, will so scandalize one as to ruin his or her reputation for life. While they would not steal from them, world goods, yet they rob him or her of what is more precious than gold—a good reputation. Why can't people practise the christianity that they preach and "Do unto others as you would have them do you." If a brother falls, don't jump on to him because he is down, and because you do not intend to extend a hand, do not, like a dog in a manger, stand in the way of others.

Do You?

Do you love your town? Do you have any concern for its future? Would you like to see it grow, prosper and extend its trade and influence? If you do, then ask yourself these questions: "Do I help support and maintain its institutions? Do I encourage every movement looking to the upbuilding of the town? Do I speak a good word for the town and the people at every opportunity. Do I lend assistance to its industries? Do I patronize them. Do I fully understand the duties devolving upon me as a citizen?" If you cannot answer these questions in the affirmative then you are not only a stumbling block but a detriment to any community.

Keep Hustling

Let every one keep hustling to improve the appearance of their streets and lots. Keep all kinds of rubbish off the streets and sidewalks, and see that your houses, fences, ect., are neatly painted. There is nothing that helps the looks of a town and induces newcomers to settle in it more than neatly painted houses and fences, neat and tidy streets and sidewalks and fruit and shade trees on your lots. Let us see what you will do for the benefit of our progressive little city.

The man who can see no good in his fellow-man ought to fall off the earth and go to his place. There is no guess about where he ought to be and where he will go when he leaves here. The milk of human kindness has soured in him, his better nature has become perverted, his eyes inverted and his whole moral being turned awry. He has lost confidence in men, has no real respect for women, looks on God as a tyrant and death as an escape from thralldom. He is too cowardly to destroy himself, too abject to be honorable, too small intellectually to bother about the weightier matters of life, too contemptible to be noticed and too apt to live out all his days. Such men may be classed the "gad flies of life" calculated to annoy their betters foment strife, run discord, and bring misery on mankind.

The Printer's Dollars

The printers dollars—where are they? A dollar here and a dollar there, scattered over numerous small towns all over the country, miles and miles apart—how shall they be gathered together? Come home, ye truants to thy father's house; ye are wanted. Come here in single file, by columns or platoon—so that the printer may send thee forth again, to battle for him and vindicate his credit. Reader, if you discover a stray dollar around your premises send him home tenderly, for he art ours. We would also ask you to be sure you haven't a couple of printer's dollars sticking about your clothes.

The Independent Man

The farmer, if he only knew it, is a little nearer the kingdom of heaven than anyone on earth. He is certain of three square meals a day and is the only man who can fence himself in and live in spite of the rest of mankind. A few cattle and sheep and fowl provide him with food and clothing, while his fields yield him flour and a source of revenue. So generous are these provisions and so common, that hardly one farmer in ten makes any account of them, although the ordinary business man thinks he has done well when he reaches the end of the year and finds that he has a little more than made ends meet.

Not Suited for Earth

The editor who can please everyone is not suited for this earth, but is entitled to wings. Human nature is so constituted that some of our readers would like to have us tell the unvarnished truth about them, while others would kill us if we did. It is a comforting thought to the editor to know that the Lord himself did not please everyone while on earth. We labor hard to entertain and please our subscribers, but that we should occasionally fail is to be expected; but you will always find us willing to be forgiven.
