Says No Truth in Star Story

Several weeks ago the Shaniko Star published a story in which it said John Kellam of that place had attempted to get some one to set fire to a lodging house he was conducting. The Star further stated that Kellam was heard, in the presence of witnesses, to outline the plan for the incendiarism.
A number of the Oregon papers copied the story. The Spokesman among the rest. Now Mr. Kel-lam states that there was no truth to the story in the Star, and it is understood he has instituted proceedings against the paper for libel. The story from the Star was copied in good faith by the papers of the state, but The Spokesman ventures the statement that if injustice has been done Mr. Kellam in the matter the papers are willing and ready to do what they can to square the matter.

Amusement at the Skating Rink

The skating rink in this city is catering to the amusement loving people this winter, and there is something doing every night of the week. There is dancing Tuesday and Saturday nights, skating Wednesday and Friday nights, and the balance is taken up with basket ball. The management intends to give music skating in the future.
