Redmond and Vicinity

It is understood that efforts are being made to organize an athletic club here. There are a number of athletes in the city and such an organization could start off with a good membership.

In the center of Melrose Park addition to Redmond is located the only public Park within the city limits, it covers five acres.

Painters were busy last week painting and touching up the buildings on 6th street between E and F streets, and a decided improvement is noticed in that locality now.

List your property with Ellinger & Ehlers.

Johnie McKinney and Lester Gist of Sisters, were in Redmond Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

The finest homes in Redmond will be located in beautiful MEL-ROSE PARK with its large lots and wide streets and avenues, on the highest elevation within the city limits, with irrigation water on every lot.

B. F. Woodman last week found his English Retriever dog Snider that had either been stolen or strayed away. The dog

The Spokesman's Job
Printing pleases.

Jas. Dougherty, proprietor of the Royal Cafe, last week had a cellar dug under his place to put in a draft beer plant. And now the thirsty ones who want to get a drink of the fluid that made Milwaukee famous, can get the same fresh from the keg.

The show windows in the stores here at night present a brilliant appearance since the installation of electric lights. One of the most attractive windows in the city is that of Ehret Bros. which is always tastefully dressed
