ROLL OF HONOR OF REDMOND SCHOOLS

Pupils Take Decided Interest in School Work This Year

Fifteen applicants took the 8th grade examination Thursday and Friday of last week. Principal Thompson has the names of five others, making twenty in all who intend to take up the 9th grade work next September. For a high school to start off with 20 ninth graders is an unusual thing for cities even larger than Redmond. Then, too, considering the total enrollment of the eight grades last September was 52 on the opening day. There is much need for the school directors to prepare for a large attendance next year.

The fact that very few are dropping out of school as the year closes is worthy of notice at this time. It is very unusual not to have a large number leave school before the year's work is finished, but this year each week shows a larger attendance and an increasing interest on the part of the pupils. This must be gratifying to the school patrons and shows a splendid school spirit in the community. Conditions are most favorable for the Redmond schools to take a place in the very first rank, not only of the county but of the state.

Pupils neither tardy nor absent during the week ending May 12.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY THE READING CIRCLE

Ladies of Circle to Hold First Annual Picnic On the 24th

A pleasant gathering of the Reading Circle ladies occurred Wednesday, May 10th, at the home of Mrs. J. A. Wilcox. The afternoon's program began with an able review of "The Bridge of the Gods", written by Mrs. Ming M. Ehlers, and read by Mrs. W. H. Anderson. This was followed by a paper by Mrs. Stella M. Wilson entitled "The Work of the Hudson Bay Co. in the Northwest."

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

Prest.—Miss Laura Jones.
Vice-Prest.—Mrs. Margaret Osborne.

Sec.—Mrs. Cora L. Chapman.
Treas.—Mrs. W. H. Anderson.

After partaking of the delicious cake and coffee provided by the hostess the club adjourned. The first annual picnic will be held at the home of Mrs. F. Guy Bancroft on Wednesday, May 24th. Conveyances will be at Hobbs' bakery at 9 a. m.

PLEASANT RIDGE

We are glad to learn that Andrew Nelson is able to be out and has returned from the hospital to his home. He has been laid up a long time with a broken leg. He is not able to work much yet.

L. E. Smith and his brother Clyde go to Arlington, Wn., this week. L. E. will return with his family soon.

Frank Hensley has a phone in his house again.

Again the wedding bells were sounded in our neighborhood when Fred Sherwood and Miss E. A. Cast were married last Friday in the M. E. church at Redmond. The bride has been a worker in the church and the Epworth League in her former home and will, with her husband, be a help in this community.

Jess Tetherow and Earl Forrest returned Sunday night from a week's stay in The Dalles.
