Redmond, Oregon, May 25, 1911

A Correction

In the program of the drama of "Valley Farm" printed on the last page of this issue the date reads June 30, when it should be MAY 30th.

HARRIMAN OFFICIALS ON INSPECTION TOUR

L. J. Spence, assistant director of traffic for the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific, and his assistant, W. S. Bassinger, with headquarters in Chicago, Wm. McMurray, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific and O. R. & N. Co., and other Harriman officials, arrived in Redmond Tuesday forenoon about 11 o'clock on a tour of inspection of this part of Central Oregon. This is the first time these gentlemen have been in this section of the state, and they were agreeably surprised to see the progress that has been made along development lines.

The band was out to welcome the officials, and during their stay here of about half an hour the railroad men were introduced to many of the prominent men of the city. From here the party went to Bend.

LOCAL TALENT WILL PUT ON 4-ACT DRAMA

Local talent of this city have been rehearsing the 4-act drama of "Valley Farm" for several weeks, and will present the same to the citizens of Redmond on Tuesday evening, May 30th. On the last page of this issue will be found the cast of characters and a synopsis of the play. The proceeds of the entertainment will be turned over to the "Celebration" fund of the city, to be used for the big celebration that is planned when the railroad reaches this place.

The parties having the play in charge desire that all who have the loyalty and welfare of Redmond at heart should attend, as the entertainment is given in a good cause.

Celebrated Their Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. John Tuck celebrated their silver wedding last Friday evening at their home on their ranch near this city. A number of friends from Redmond were present to participate in the festivities of the occasion.

Redmond Repeats Prineville Team

Redmond turned the tables on the Prineville ball team Sunday and defeated them by a score of 5 to 1. The weather was pleasant and there was a goodly sized attendance at the ball park here. A number of Prineville fans came over.

Redmond Hotel Changes Hands

R. L. Parker, an experienced hotel man from Cathlamet, Wn., last week Saturday concluded a deal with the Jones Land Co. whereby he took over the Redmond Hotel. Mr. Parker bought the furniture and furnishings of the hotel and secured a lease on the building for a term of years. Mr. Parker is well known to the traveling public, and will keep the hotel up to the high standard of excellence in the future that has obtained in the past.

New Firm Buys the Pioneer Market

J. O. Wolf of Opal City, on the 16th bought the Pioneer Meat Market here from W. A. Golden, and is doing business under the firm name of J. O. Wolf & Co. The men composing the firm are experienced men in their line and state that they will at all times carry a first class stock of meats, vegetables and garden produce.
