FOUND DEAD IN ROAD NEAR BEND

Prineville Journal: Dick Meyers was found dead in the road about seven miles this side of Bend last Sunday, with his neck broken.

Meyers was a thrifty German who was living on Engineer Redfield's ditch land north of Powell Butte station. He also had a homestead on the west end of Powell butte.

On the day of the accident Meyers was driving home from Bend in one of those high-seated California rack wagons, from which he fell, striking on his head. The heavy wagon passed over the man's chest, crushing it. It is said that this alone would have been sufficient to cause death. The team that Meyers was driving was found about a mile away.

A coroner's inquest was held and the jury brought in a verdict in accordance with the above facts. Just how the accident happened nobody knows. Meyers was buried in the Powell Butte cemetery.

W. C. T. U. Meeting

A meeting of the local W. C. T. U. was held Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. J. H. Cook. Twentyone members were present and a number of subjects were taken up for the work in Redmond. The following ladies were appointed superintendents of the various departments of the work:

Supt. of Purity—Mrs. Kendall.
Supt. of Mothers' Meetings—Mrs. Cook.

Supt. of Scientific Hygiene in Public Schools—Mrs. Chapman.
Supt. of Y. W. C. T. U.—Mrs. Hunt.
Supt. Press Work—Mrs. Palmer.

After an animated discussion of different subjects pertaining to the various departments the meeting adjourned to meet Friday, June 16th, at the home of Mrs. E. A. Cast at 2:30 p. m., at which time all members are requested to be present, and each one is supposed to bring one or more recruits.

About 75 persons living in the Powell Buttes section have sent in a petition to the postoffice department for a free rural delivery route to be served from Prineville. The route is thirty miles long and will go by the old county road south of Powell Buttes.

George Hagood of Dallas, Ore. has 65 common brown leghorn hens which have laid 4500 eggs since January 1 of this year. He keeps a record of the eggs and at the end of the year expects to realize great profit from the hens of "scrub" type.

Prineville Votes No

The special election at Prineville to amend the city charter did not bring out a very big vote, says the Journal of that city. In fact, only about half the electors registered their decision upon the matters laid before the voters of Prineville, but their answer was emphatic. The "noes" carried by nearly two to one.

"An amendment to authorize the issue and sale of bonds for public and municipal purposes not to exceed 10 per cent of the taxable property within the corporate limits," was voted down. Yes 40, no 73.

The tax issue amendment to assess and receive taxes for municipal purposes not to exceed 14 per cent was lost by a vote of 37 to 76.

The amendment relative to the appointment of city attorney, marshal, surveyor, etc., was lost by a vote of 47 to 68.

The bonding of the Prineville school district for $26,000 was largely responsible for the defeat of the above measures.
