RAILROAD MEN TO VISIT HERE

Northern Pacific Railroad Officials Are Touring Central Oregon

THEIR FIRST TRIP INTO THIS SECTION

Journey Is to Last a Week and Many Points Are to Be Visited

Central Oregon is being visited this week by a party of Northern Pacific officials and Portland editors who traveled in a special train over the North Bank and Oregon Trunk roads, in which the Northern Pacific owns a half interest.

A. D. Charlton, assistant general passenger agent of the Northern Pacific has charge of the party. The newly opened Oregon Trunk road was followed to Madras, from which place automobiles conveyed the visitors into the central and southern parts of the state. The following are in the party:

Carl R. Gray, president of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railroad, Portland; H. C. Nutt, fourth vice-pres. Northern Pacific Railway, Tacoma; J. G. Woodworth, traffic manager Northern Pacific Railroad, St. Paul; A. D. Charlton, assistant general passenger agent Northern Pacific Railroad, Portland; Henry Blakeley, general western freight agent Northern Pacific Railroad, Portland; F. H. Fogarty, assistant general freight agent, Northern Pacific Railroad, Portland; L. J. Bricker, immigration agent, St. Paul; O. D. Wheeler, advertising department, St. Paul; E. B. Piper, managing editor, Oregonian, Portland; John F. Carol, general manager Telegram, Portland; C. S. Jackson, prest. Journal, Portland, and the official photographer and stenographer.

This is the first visit into the interior for most of the men and they are prepared for many surprises.

Their schedule requires them to leave Portland Tuesday morning, reaching Madras that night. It is probable that they will leave the railroad there and travel by automobile instead of continuing on the train to the south.

The tentative plans prepared by Mr. Charlton include stops at Metolius, Culver, Redmond, Bend Laidlaw, Prineville and other Crook county points. If weather and roads permit they will then cross westward to Silver Lake, Klamath Falls and Medford, returning by way of the Willamette Valley.

The object of the trip is to acquaint the railroad men with the conditions of the great new empire that is just being opened to the outside world through the construction of the Oregon Trunk. The Northern Pacific, as one of the builders of this line, will handle much of the business of Central Oregon and the officials of the road desire to obtain firsthand knowledge of the country, so that they may be better able to carry on traffic there.

It is likely that the party will be away from Portland a week. Commercial bodies in Central Oregon and at points along the railroad will entertain the visitors.

BANANAS SOLD BY THE POUND

Bananas by the pound, instead of by the dozen, will be the rule among all grocers of Portland hereafter. When the housewife goes to the corner grocery for the famed Central American product she will be asked how many pounds she wishes, and instead of measuring up the family appetite by the number of bananas that an individual devours, calculation will have to be made to determine how many pounds and fractions thereof appease the banana yearning.

When in need of any dental work call on Dr. C. A. Cline in the Ehret block, and you will be pleased with the results obtained. All the latest methods of dental practice are used, and satisfaction in every instance guaranteed. 39tf

LIME FOUND IN CROOK COUNTY

A large deposit of commercial lime has been discovered 14 miles east of Metolius. A Portland lime expert has tested it and found it to be 96 per cent pure. It contains but 1 per cent magnesia.

This is said to be one of the most valuable beds in the United States, as it contains hydrate of lime of the purest quality, which is used for medicinal purposes.

The surface croppings extend over an area of 2000 feet. Metolius men are organizing a company to develop the property.

The finest homes in Redmond will be located in beautiful MEL-ROSE PARK with its large lots and wide streets and avenues, on the highest elevation within the city limits, with irrigation water on every lot.

Revival Meetings At Laidlaw

Evangelist Samuel Gregg of the Christian church, is conducting a revival meeting in the Laidlaw church. Singing Evangelists Webb and wife are assisting with the music. There will be an all day service next Sunday, with a basket dinner at noon. At the evening hour Mr. Gregg will deliver an Odd Fellows memorial sermon.

Bring your final proof notices to The Spokesman office. We will make out your application for proving up, and attend to all the details necessary in the matter.
