MAIL SERVICE ABOUT SAME

The new schedule for the mail service in this section does not benefit this city to any great extent. Since the first of the month mail for Redmond, Bend, and other towns has been coming in from Culver Junction by the way of Prineville. By this arrangement Prineville handles all the mail for this section, which makes the arrival of mail here the same as formerly, in the evening. The only gain in time is on the outgoing mail which leaves Prineville a few hours earlier. The mail is received at Prineville from Culver early in the morning, but instead of being sent out in an hour or two after its arrival it is held until noon, as under the old schedule.

Additional Local.

The Baptist ladies will meet for an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Oaks on July 13th.

Rev. Wilson and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lamb, and Mr. and Mrs. Colegrove picniced the 4th on the Deschutes river about a mile above Cline Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Kendall celebrated their 4th at Sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cast and family were among the Redmond people who hied themselves to the country to enjoy the 4th.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Irvin of this city, gave them a "kitchen shower" last Thursday evening.

G. E. Dobson returned last Wednesday night from a business trip to Portland. While there he did some good boosting for this section.

Mrs. Geo. L. Wheeler visited friends at Prineville the 4th.

Redmond had a sane and quiet 4th of July celebration. Those who did not go to Prineville or Sisters to celebrate either stayed at home or went out into the country fishing and picnicing.

Wm. Hobbs and family enjoyed themselves at the river the 4th.

Joe McClay and family left the first of the week for an outing and fishing trip on the Metolius river.

Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Lamb visited at the D. C. Hall ranch near Hillman yesterday.

Prineville won first money in the base ball tournament held there this week.

Lynch & Roberts of this city, had an elaborately decorated automobile in the parade at Prineville the 4th.

John Major of Artesia, New Mexico, and Mr. Fry of Sheridan, this state, arrived here last Wednesday evening in company with G. E. Dobson of this city, and are looking this section over with a view to locating here.

E. L. Rapp and Joe Mace went fishing Sunday in the Crooked river near the Davenport ranch, and Mr. Rapp said that Mace caught a five pound Dolly Varden trout.

DESCHUTES GETS THE FIRST PRIZE

Portland Journal: The Deschutes country has been placed upon the commercial map of the Pacific northwest as the earliest garden spot in three states.

Being the first to ship loganberries and raspberries was no great feat for that favored section to accomplish, but another feature has been put in its cap by shipping the first blackberries of the season to Portland.

T. J. Miller, who lives at Deschutes, but generally ships from Biggs, has taken all three records. Last week he sent the first blackberries of the season from his place. The shipment consisted of a single crate of twelve boxes, the fruit being in excellent condition and found a ready sale.

"Mr. Miller certainly has the place to produce early fruits," says W. H. Dryer of Dryer, Bollam & Co., which received the shipment. "His supplies enter the Portland trade fully two weeks ahead of any other section of the Pacific northwest. That means something, in dollars and cents."

Gets Contract for Mail

Culver Tribune: The contract to carry the mail between Culver and Prineville has been awarded to Mr. Lockhard, of Madras. He formerly carried between Madras and Culver. While definite information has not been obtained from Washington, there can be no doubt but that all of the mail will be handled over the Culver-Prineville line for the present, as the line from Shaniko to Prineville will be discontinued.

George Wheeler Gets Up Banquet

George L. Wheeler, proprietor of the Oregon Cafe of this city, was called to Prineville last week by Mrs. McDowell of the Prineville hotel, to superintend the preparation of the spread for the banquet that was given Saturday night to the delegates to the Central Oregon Development League. As a caterer Mr. Wheeler has a high reputation in this part of the state.

Dentist to Locate Here

Dr. J. Barr of Portland, has recently arrived here and will open a dental office in the Johnson building on north 6th street. He expects to begin practice about the 15th. Dr. Barr is a graduate of the University of Southern California located at Los Angeles.

Cook Hangs Self At Bend

Word was received here yesterday that a man named Herb Miller, a cook, had committed suicide at Bend Tuesday night by hanging himself at the slaughter house two miles from the city. The first report was that a man had been killed and the murderer had been lynched.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. B. Green went to Sisters for the 4th.
