The 4th of July picnic at Hillman was a decided success. The crowd was larger than was expected but refreshments held out and all had a good time. The ball game was one of the special features of the day. The married men and single men both showed some good players. The score was four to six in favor of the single men.

Mr. Fremont of Portland, has been in Hillman the past week and says the town looks good to him and he thinks it has a brilliant prospect for the future.

Rattlesnakes On the River

Fishing parties who have recently gone to Crooked river report that rattlesnakes are getting numerous. While out there several days ago Joe Mace of this city came near being bitten by a rattler. The snake struck at him and just missed inflicting a dangerous bite. The snakes do not give warning by rattling until a person is right upon them, some of the fishermen state.

erts' drug store. It is the counter and back bar for the soda fountain, and attracts attention for the workmanlike manner in which it is made.

Home prosperity depends upon home industry, and state-wide prosperity will be greater if factories selling "Made in Oregon" goods are patronized by the local merchants.
