Curlee Clothes

FOR MEN AND BOYS

CLOTHES TIME IS NOW.

Why wait until our first batch of nobby patterns is picked over; you don't save anything by it, in fact—

Wouldn't you like to get a full season's wear out of the garments?

We're showing the most attractive suits for men and young men ever brought to this city.

They are CURLEE Suits.
Let's Show 'em to you.

Woods, Mrs. Nellie Lilley and Mrs. Oaks were the delegates from the local W. C. T. U. to the county convention of the order held at Madras last week.

W. S. Overturf and Jack Swanson were over from their farms in the Sisters country Monday.
Mr. Overturf brought over some chickens to sell, and took a hog book back with him to post up on raising swine.

The school election held here the 14th to vote $4,000 additional bonds for the completion of the the school house, and other expenses, carried unanimously, not a vote being polled against the measure.

H. J. O'Neill of Portland, traveling freight and passenger agt.
of the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation Co., was here last week working up business for his road. He thinks Redmond is the right place for a distributing point for freight to points east and south of here.

Now that most of the mighty hunters have returned to Redmond from their annual hunt, the Ananias Club button is rapidly going the rounds, but there is no question but what the button will eventually return to E. L.
Rapp, the organizer of the club.

Word was received here last week that Rev. Crenshaw, the M. E. pastor assigned to this district, had recently undergone an operation for appendicitis at Spokane and would be delayed in arriving here. It is understood he will have charge of congregations at Hillman and Powell Buttes as well as here.

shot before, and you who always shot, shoot all the more.

A meeting will be held at Rapp's store Friday evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of organizing a Trap Shooting and Gun Club here.

The club wants to get organized in time to shoot a match with either Bend or Prineville on railroad day.

Company Doing Good Business

The C. R. McLallin Co., plumbers, tanners and electrical contractors of this city, have been having a good run of business since opening here. They recently finished wiring the new
