create a sinking fund for the payment of the three bonds maturing November 1, 1926, there shall be levied in the year 1925, on all the taxable property in said city, in addition to all other taxes, a direct annual tax sufficient to produce the sum of four thousand two hundred sixty dollars [$4,260.00]; that in order to raise the necessary funds with which to pay the interest due May 1 and November 1, 1927, promptly and as the same accrues, and to create a sinking fund for the payment of the three bonds maturing November 1, 1927, there shall be levied in the year 1926, on all the taxable property in said city, in addition to all other taxes, a direct annual tax sufficient to produce the sum of four thousand fifty dollars [$4,050.00]; that in order to raise the necessary funds with which to pay the interest due May 1 and November 1, 1928, promptly and as the same accrues, and to create a sinking fund for the payment of the three bonds maturing November 1, 1928, there shall be levied in the year 1927, on all the taxable property in said city, in addition to all other taxes, a direct annual tax sufficient to produce the sum of three thousand eight hundred forty dollars [$3,840.00]; that in order to raise the necessary funds with which to pay the interest due May 1 and November 1, 1929, promptly and as the same accrues, and to create a sinking fund for the payment of the three bonds maturing November 1, 1929, there shall be levied in the year 1928, on all the taxable property in said city, in addition to all other taxes, a direct annual tax sufficient to produce the sum of three thousand six hundred thirty dollars [$3,630.00]; that in order to raise the necessary funds with which to pay the interest due May 1 and November 1, 1930, promptly and as the same accrues, and to create a sinking fund for the payment of the three bonds maturing November 1, 1930, there shall be levied in the year 1929, on all the taxable property in said city, in addition to all other taxes, a direct annual tax sufficient to produce the sum of three thousand four hundred twenty dollars [$3,420.00]; that in order to raise the necessary funds with which to pay the interest due May 1 and November 1, 1931, promptly and as the same accrues, and to create a sinking fund for the payment of three bonds maturing November 1, 1931, there shall be levied in the year 1930, on all the taxable property in said city, in addition to all other taxes, a direct annual tax sufficient to produce the sum of three thousand two hundred ten dollars [$3,210.00]; and said taxes, when so collected, shall be applied solely for the purpose of paying the interest and principal of the said bonds, respectively, and for no other purpose whatsoever, until the indebtedness so contracted under this ordinance, both principal and interest, shall have been fully paid, satisfied and discharged.

Section 8. That the common council of the city of Redmond shall, at the time and in the manner provided by law for the levying of other city taxes, ratify and carry out the provisions of law with reference to the levying of taxes, and shall require the officers of said city to levy, extend and collect such taxes in the manner provided by law, for the purpose of creating a fund for the payment of the interest upon and the principal of said bonds, and the said taxes, when so collected, shall be kept for and applied only to the payment of said interest and principal of said bonds, as hereinbefore specified; but nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent said city from applying any other funds that may be in the city treasury and available for that purpose to the payment of said interest and principal as the same respectively mature, and the levy or levies herein provided for may thereupon to that extent be diminished, and upon the payment of the principal of any of the bonds issued hereunder in said manner, or by the use of the sinking fund herein provided for, the levy or levies herein provided for for the payment of interest may to the extent of the interest of the bonds so paid be diminished.

And the sums herein provided for to meet the interest on said bonds and to discharge the principal thereof when due, are hereby appropriated for that purpose, and said amount for each year shall also be included in the annual appropriation bills passed by the common council of said city in each year respectively.

Section 9. All ordinances, by-laws and regulations of the city of Redmond in conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Section 10. This ordinance shall be and remain irrevocable until said bonds and the interest thereon shall have been fully paid, satisfied and discharged, as herein provided.

Section 11. This ordinance, immediately upon its final passage, shall be recorded in the book of ordinances of said city kept for that purpose, shall be authenticated by the signatures of the mayor and recorder, and shall be published in Redmond Spokesman, a newspaper of the city of Redmond, and shall be in full force and effect thirty, (30,) days after such publication, unless a referendum petition against this ordinance shall be filed with the city recorder in accordance with law.

Passed and adopted this 7th day of Nov. A. D., 1911.

J. A. Willcox,
Recorder.

Approved this 7th day of Nov. A. D. 1911.

THE REDMOND SPOKESMAN

THE RICHEST FAMILIES.

Vast Wealth of the Rothschilds, the Greatest of Them All.

Although no man can state the amount of the combined fortunes of the Rothschilds, it is estimated that they are at least $2,000,000,000. This, writes Isaac F. Marcason in Munsey's Magazine, is four times the probable wealth of the Rockefeller clan and more than six times greater than the Astor possessions, which form our largest hereditary fortune. At 4 per cent the yearly income from the present Rothschild fortune would be $80,000,000, or more than the whole capital amassed by the original Vanderbilt.

None of the other great financial families of Europe approaches the Rothschilds in prestige or possession. The Hirsch hierarchy is rated as controlling little more than $500,000,000. The South African capitalists—the Belts, Barnatos, the Wertheimers and the Friedlanders—can scarcely muster a billion. The great German house of Bleich-roder, founded by that militant soldier of capital on whose breast the old Kaiser Wilhelm pinned the iron cross for his aid to Bismarck in completing the downfall of France, is but a principality alongside the Rothschild empire.

So, too, with the Sassons, called the Rothschilds of the east, who are the oriental caliphs of cash and credit; the Pereires, long the rivals of the French Rothschilds; the Sterns and Goldsmids, financiers of unhappy Portugal; the Comondos, bankers of the Ottoman empire; the Montefiores, who rule the Australian money temples, and the Rallis, lords of the Levant. The Rothschilds outmoney them all.

Sterling Coin.

The origin of "sterling" as applied to coined money is thus given in "A Short Treatise Touching Sheriffs' Accounts," by Sir Matthew Hale, 1683:

"Current coin of the realm is of gold or silver, with an alloy of copper, at least from the time of Henry I., and this alloy gave the denomination of sterling to those coins.

"Spelman supposeth it to take that name from the Esterlings, who came over and reformed our coin, to that alloy—of this opinion was Camden. Possibly in those times a Penny was called a Sterling, without any other reason than the use of the times, as other names grow, for the old Act of Henry III. tells us that Denarius Anglice Sterlingus dicitur (a denarius, or penny) is called in English a Sterling, and because this was the root of the measure of silver coin therefore all our coin of the same alloy was also called Sterling."

Quieted Them.

There is an old story of Arthur Roberts, an English actor, which illustrates how a little presence of mind may save lives. There had been an alarm of fire in the theater, and a panic seemed imminent. The actor walked to the footlights and addressed the audience. "Ladies and gentlemen," he said, "if there was any danger do you think I should be here?"

The Ware That Wears Guaranteed 15 Years

It doesn't pay to buy cheap ware that soon peels, cracks, leaks, tarnishes, rusts, or wears out. Even at a lower cost such ware is the most expensive because it is dangerous to health and unreliable in service—doesn't last.

"1892" Pure Spun Aluminum Ware is guaranteed for 15 years. There is practically no wear out to it and scientific investigation proves it the most sanitary cooking ware made. Particles can't chip off and cause chronic troubles nor spoil the food. Germs do not breed on its smooth surface and odors can not be absorbed by it.

You'll have better food and save trouble, time and fuel by using only "1892" Pure Spun Aluminum Ware. Look for trade mark on every piece.
