As The Spokesman since being burned out is being printed in Portland until the new plant is installed, it will be necessary for advertisers and others to get their copy into The Spokesman office by Sunday morning of each week. This is due to the fact that copy for the current week has to be sent out from here Sunday night in order to reach the Portland office in time for that week's issue. This condition will obtain only until The Spokesman plant is installed.

Want ads sell saleable things—usually quickly. The fact that you have something to sell means that you have something to advertise—a direct, logical use for want advertising.

Alfred Munz, of this city, has written the Great Northern railroad offices at St. Paul for freight rates on a carload of seed potatoes from Minnesota to this city. If the rates are anywhere in reason Mr. Munz will ship in a car of seed potatoes and sell to the ranchers here at actual cost.

E. M. Ashmore, of the firm of Duckett & Ashmore, manufacturers of all kinds of lumber, was over from Sisters Monday. The above firm has begun sawing lumber at their new mill near Sisters.

Asst. Engineer Morten of the Oregon Trunk road will be here this week with an additional gang of men to hurry up the work on the new stone depot. It is the intention to have the structure completed the latter part of the month, so the offices can be moved and ready for business the first of April.

Want advertise your real estate and sell, rent or exchange it profitably.

Rev. Crenshaw, of this city, is well acquainted in the district in and around Hillsville, Va., where the Allen gang shot and killed the circuit judge, prosecutor, sheriff, clerk of court, and a woman witness. He says there are some mighty good people in that section, and also some of the toughest in the world.

If every advertisement of a store makes known some items of real "Opportunity News" for shoppers, then every advertisement of that store gains new readers, new investigators, new patrons and friends for the store.

Alfred Munz, who recently bought out the Jackson hardware store here, is from the potato section of Minnesota, and is getting the people there interested in this section of Oregon, and expects to see some of them come here and go extensively into growing potatoes.

If you can save money on the thing you must buy today, why not look at the ads in The Spokesman? There are many money-saving chances there.

The Central Oregon Ice & Cold Storage Co. has begun the building of their plant on the railroad right of way on the east side of the track here. The building will be 40x50 feet for the present, one story.

The Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co. of this city have lumber on the ground for their storage warehouse they intend to build on the railroad right of way near the old depot site.

James Johnson, of Odobolt, Iowa, was an arrival here this week. He is looking this section over with a view to locating here.

W. S. Overtuff was over from Sisters Monday, attending to proving up on his homestead.

H. M. Lalbertea relieved Operator Main at the depot here for a few days until the regular man arrived.

Ole Gaarden, who arrived here last October, is making preparations to move his family, now living at Spring Valley, Wis., to this city. He says that several Wisconsin people in his former home are planning to come to Redmond this spring. Mr. Gaarden is very much pleased with the Redmond district.

Mrs. Orr is a new arrival here from Tennessee. She is waiting for her brother, who is expected here in a short time, and in the meantime she is desirous of securing acreage property close in.

Mrs. J. C. Culler, wife of the section foreman on the Oregon Trunk line at this city, expects to leave the latter part of this month to prove up on 320 acres she has close to Silver Lake.

Ike Johnson, living 7 miles southwest of the city, was in Redmond last Thursday on business.

We Close 6:30; Saturday 10:00

A. Shugart, an operator from Bend, relieved Operator La Berteu Monday as a regular operator at the Oregon Trunk depot here, in place of Operator Main, who has gone to Sinamox to take charge of the station there.

There were two St. Patrick dances held in the city last Wednesday night—one in Ebert's hall and the other in Muma's hall. Both dances were well attended.

Manager Meyer, of the Redmond Creamery, has been making trips to different points in the county in the interest of his creamery. He finds the ranchers much interested in the creamery proposition, and has promise of a large amount of cream to be brought to this station.

The C. R. McLallin Co. is now nicely installed in their new location on the corner of Sixth and D streets.

A man took The Spokesman out of the postoffice for a year and a half and when requested to pay for same, said he merely "took the paper to help out, and didn't think he ought to pay for it." The postal law is that a person is responsible for the payment of a paper the length of time they take it from the post-office.

W. J. Wheeler has arranged an attractive display window at his plumbing shop on South Sixth street.

Last week the C. R. McLallin Co. installed two 1000 candle power gas-line lights in Fox & Co.'s saloon, and one in their own place of business on the corner of Sixth and D streets. The lights are the first of the kind to be installed in the city, and more will be put in by business houses.

It is stated, if the electric light plant is not soon enlarged.

Mrs. R. A. Butler, of Yakima, Wash., is expected to arrive here this week to keep house for her daughter, Miss Myrtle.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood have moved to the telephone office, where Mrs. Sherwood is chief operator.

M. W. Fry recently arrived from California and was so well pleased with the country that he bought A. J. Haney's ranch on Crooked river. Mr. Fry's family is expected to arrive soon.

People who advertise in The Spokesman get results, for the paper reaches a majority of the people in Redmond and vicinity.

Postmaster Moore has adopted new hours at the postoffice. The evening mail is now distributed at night, providing the train arrives before 8 o'clock. Sunday the delivery window is open from 8 to 9 a. m., and from 4:30 to 5:30 p. m.

The Jones Land Co. are going to set out about 500 ornamental and shade trees in Melrose Park this spring, and make a number of other improvements in that residential district.

Mrs. Bessie Scoville, the temperance lecturer who lectured here last week, has been drawing large houses in different towns in the county where she appears. All speak well of the lady's ability as a lecturer.

The plate glass windows in the Smith & Allingham and Wyatt buildings that were broken by the heat from the fire across the street, on the night of Feb. 26th, have been replaced.

John Almeter, who lives three miles northwest of Terrebonne, was in Redmond last week Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Almeter at one time had the largest bunch of hogs in the county. He is now turning his attention to dairy cattle.

Dobson & Brewer, who own the property on the corner of Sixth and D streets, opposite the Redmond Bank of Commerce, are building a 22x30 foot building adjoining the building now on the corner. Two rooms will be made, one of which will be occupied by Dobson & Fry as a real estate office, and the other room will be for rent.

C. M. Huffman is enlarging his building on Sixth street, adjoining the stone store that Chad Irvin is building.

Jess Tetherow and "Tamp" Osborne left the latter part of last week for St. Lake City, where they will join the league ball team there. Jess has signed with the team for the 1912 season. The league towns in that circuit are Salt Lake, Butte, Helena, Billings and Great Falls.

W. E. Van Allen, candidate for county assessor, was in from the ranch Saturday and stated to The Spokesman that he intended to make a canvas of the county next week in the interest of his candidacy.

C. N. Ehret last week went to Newberg, this state, to visit his father.

W. J. Wheeler returned last week from Metolus, where he had been to complete the plumbing work in the Sparks hotel, for which he had the contract.

Geo. T. Cochran, superintendent of water division No. 2, and candidate for nomination on the Republican ticket for Representative in Congress, was in Richmond last week. He will put in some time in this section adjudicating water rights.

At the last meeting of the city council, G. A. McFarlane was appointed to fill the office of Councilman F. M. White, who has moved from the city. Mr. White has been down in Lake county looking at stock farms and may conclude to locate there.

E. N. Kellogg and A. W. Wachter, of Portland, were here last week, looking the city over with a view to putting in a moving picture show. They were well pleased with the city and surrounding country, and may decide to locate here.

E. J. Malone, of Portland, has the contract for building the stone building that Aug. Anderson is putting up on the site of his frame building that was destroyed by fire the night of Feb. 26th. Mr. Malone says he expects to have the building well along toward completion about the 1st of April, weather permitting.

For Sheriff
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the Republican nomination for sheriff, subject to the approval of the Republican voters at the primaries April 19, 1912.
"A square deal for all."
Paid adv. JNO. McTAGGART.
