Adding New Accounts

We are constantly adding new accounts, and our business is increasing at a very satisfactory rate as shown by our published statements.

It is a common practice for people to lay aside money for a special object; to satisfy a particular need; or to provide against possible emergency. Our facilities for handling such business are most excellent. When money has been left with us for a specific purpose we carefully carry out the desires of the depositor. Besides, we have for anyone wishing to use them for the safe keeping of papers or valuables. A cordial invitation is extended to YOU to make this bank YOUR BANK.

Ordinance No. 26

An ordinance providing for the holding of a special election for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors of the City of Redmond, Oregon, certain proposed amendments to the charter of said city.

Whereas, certain proposed amendments to the charter of the City of Redmond, Oregon, has been presented to the common council of said city by initiative petition, and have been approved by said common council, and are now on file in the office of the city recorder, now, therefore,

Be it Ordained by the Common Council of the City of Redmond, Oregon,

Section 1. That a special election be held on the 15th day of July, 1912, for the purpose of submitting the aforesaid proposed amendments to said charter to the qualified electors of the City of Redmond, Oregon, for their adoption or rejection. That the polls of said election be opened in the forenoon of said day at eight o'clock and closed at six o'clock in the afternoon thereof.

Section 2. Arguments in favor of the adoption of said amendments to said charter may be filed with the city recorder not later than thirty days and those opposing their adoption not later than twenty days before said election.

Section 3. The city recorder shall cause the said amendments to said charter and all arguments submitted as herein provided to be printed and bound in pamphlet form and shall also cause, so far as practicable, one copy of such pamphlet to be delivered, either by carrier or by mail, to each elector within the city of Redmond, not less than eight days before said election.

Section 4. The council shall, at their last regular meeting prior to said election, appoint three judges and two clerks of said election who shall, before entering upon their duties, take and subscribe to the oath required of judges and clerks of election by the general laws of this state, and who shall, immediately after the close of said election and before separating, proceed to canvass the votes cast at said election and declare the result thereof and report such result, duly certified to by them, to the council within three days thereafter.

Section 5. The laws of the state of Oregon regulating and relative to the manner of holding and conducting elections shall apply to said election, except that no registration shall be required, and no person who is not an elector under such laws and a bona fide resident of the city of Redmond shall be allowed to vote thereat.

Section 6. The Recorder shall prepare the proper ballots and shall also provide the necessary poll books, paper, pencils, polling place, and all other things required to properly conduct said election. The ballots shall be in the form required by the laws of this state relative to measures submitted to the electors of the state by the State Legislature and the rules, regulations and statutes of the state relative to such measures and elections shall obtain and be followed so far as practicable.

Section 7. It is hereby adjudged and declared that existing conditions are such that this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and, owing to the urgent necessity of securing an adequate water system for the purpose of supplying the residents of the City of Redmond with water for fire and domestic purposes, an emergency is hereby declared to exist, and this ordinance shall take effect and be in full force and effect from and after its publication as provided by law.

Passed at a regular meeting of the common council of the City of Redmond, Oregon, held on the 11th day of June, 1912.

Approved this 11th day of June, 1912.

Ordinance No. 27

An ordinance vacating the alley in Blocks One and Twenty, Original plat of Redmond, Oregon.

Whereas, J. W. Stires; Wm. G. Phoenix; F. I. Phoenix; G. W. Wells; John E. Lamb and F. W. McCaffery did on the 9th day of April, 1912, present to the Common Council of the City of Redmond, Oregon, their certain petition asking that the alley in Blocks One (1) and Twenty (20) Original Plat of the City of Redmond, Oregon, be vacated, and

Whereas, it appears that the said J. W. Stires; Wm. G. Phoenix; F. I. Phoenix; G. W. Wells; John E. Lamb and F. W. McCaffery are the sole, exclusive and only owners of said blocks and that the rights and interests of no other person, firm or corporation is or will be effected by the granting of the prayer of said petitioners and the vacation of the alleys and,

Whereas, the said J. W. Stires; Wm. G. Phoenix; F. I. Phoenix; G. W. Wells; John E. Lamb and F. W. McCaffery have caused notices of the said application to be posted in three public places in the City of Redmond, Oregon, to-wit: One on a telephone pole at the southwest corner of Sixth and D streets; one on a telephone pole at the southwest corner of Sixth and E streets; and one in the postoffice for a period of thirty days previous thereto as appears by the affidavit of posting endorsed on the back of the notice of application now on file with the City Recorder, and

Whereas, the granting of the prayer of said petitioners and the vacation of said alley will make the said premises more valuable to the owners and not work any detriment to the public in any manner, now, therefore,

Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Redmond, Oregon,

Section 1. That the alley in Blocks One (1) and Twenty (20) of the Original plat of the City of Redmond, Oregon, be and the same are hereby vacated and the prior platting thereof held for naught.

Passed at a regular meeting of the Common Council of the City of Redmond, Oregon, held on the 11th day of June, 1912.

Approved this 11th day of June, 1912.

THROWING THE DICE.

The Ancient Germans Were Furious Gamblers at This Game.

The invention of dice, has been of old ascribed to Palamedes, the son of Nauplius, king of Euboea, about 1244 B. C., and also to a Greek soldier named Alea, which is the Latin for a die, but Herodotus assigns both dice and chess to the Lydians.

The ancient Germans would gamble away at dice all that they were worth and then their liberty, submitting to slavery if they lost, and the Saxons, Danes and Normans were all addicted to the game. Fox Talbot is of opinion that the Latins invented, if not the game, at least the name for the single point, which they called unus. The Germanic races, adopting this practice from the Greeks, translated the Greek corruption of unus into ass, which has now become ace. The root of this word lies in the Latin, as the monetary unit.

John of Salisbury in the twelfth century mentions ten different uses of the dice. Stow mentions two entertainments given by the city of London at which dice were in evidence.—London Telegraph.

One of the Family.

Tibbie had been pleased by her aunt in a situation as maid of all work in a family of three. At the end of a week the aunt "stepped along in" to see how Tibbie was getting on.

"Do you like your work?" asked the aunt.

"'Tis fair," said the laconic Tibbie. "And are they making you feel at home?"

"Whies they are, and whies they aren't."

"Now, what do you be meaning by that?" asked the aunt impatiently.

"Aweel," said Tibbie, "they have na' asked me to gang t' kirk w' them yet, but last night they went on w' a grand quarr' they were having, all the three o' them, w' me takking the dishes off o' the table, jst as if I'd been one o' the family."—Youth's Companion.

Sacrificed to Reform.

"You have abandoned the picturesque custom of crowning a queen of the May?"

"Yes," replied the merry villager; "we had to give it up. There got to be so many candidates and so much campaigning that pollies left us no time for business."—Washington Star.

Placing the Blame.

"I admit without hesitation," said the man who tries to conceal his self esteem, "that whatever I am today is due to the influence of my wife."

"That's right," replied Mr. Growcher. "Always blame the woman."—Washington Star.
