A GREAT DISCOVERY

After years of hard study and labor I have discovered one of the most useful and healthy food products on the market. I am about to introduce to the world a new article. Not only to the housewife but to the gardener is this great discovery a benefit. In this little lecture I will disclose a secret greater than the "GREAT BOTANIST BURBANK" ever disclosed. A very simple thing that any person can achieve.

For a period of ten days, upon the receipt of fifty cents (to pay advertising, etc.) I will send to any person a full description of this great discovery.

Yours very truly, CITY SEED AGENCY, 326 Couch Bldg., Portland, Ore. 512

CLINE FALLS

August 5

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brown and daughter, who have held an option on the Van Buskirk place for the past 90 days, have decided to return to their home in Sheridan. Mrs. Brown, who has always suffered considerable from asthma, through the summer months, has been much benefited by the change of climate. The Browns expect to spend the balance of the hot days at the sea side.

The M. E. Ladies Aid and the Baptist Missionary Circle met at Mrs. Dan Catlow's last Wednesday. A large number of both societies were present and enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Catlow.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rucker visited with W. W. Miller Sunday.

Red raspberries are about gone, and black caps and logan berries are beginning to ripen.

There has been a remarkable large yield of berries in this section this season.

Mrs. McLean and daughter Cora, visited at the I. L. Harader home Wednesday.

Charles Catlow and wife arrived Friday evening from Portland and will visit for a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Catlow.

Mr. Delmore and family and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Beckwith enjoyed a fishing trip up the river Sunday.

Will Claypool and family, who have rented the Van Buskirk place, will take charge of it this week.

A representative of P. Burns &

Co. was here last Friday buying up stock to supply the Redmond market.

Mr. Catlow's cow that strayed off last week was found Monday near Bend.

An agent for the Home Comfort Stove Co. was through here last week soliciting orders for the Home Comfort Range.
