SHIPPING OATS OUT FROM HERE TO BEND

A CARLOAD WAS SENT SATURDAY AND MORE ARE TO FOLLOW

That the Redmond District is the garden spot and producing section of Crook county there can be no question. An object lesson of this was illustrated last Saturday when a carload of oats was shipped from here on the Oregon Trunk railroad to our neighboring town of Bend on the south. It is understood that several more good sized shipments of oats have been contracted for future delivery to the same town from the Redmond and Powell Districts.

These districts have raised crops large enough this year to supply all of Central Oregon, and the entire crop will grade A No. 1.

NEW CITY OFFICERS ARE NAMED BY THE MAYOR

At the regular meeting of the city council Tuesday night the resignation of J. A. Willeox as city attorney and recorder was received and accepted, and Mayor Hosch appointed Attorney I. P. Hewitt to the vacant offices. The salary of the marshal was cut down from $1200 to $1000 a year. It was the sense of the city administration that the marshal act as street commissioner and keep the main highways in the city in good condition. C. A. Adams was appointed marshal in place of A. J. Haney who refused to hold the office at the cut rate. The council unanimously confirmed the two appointments.

LOOKS LIKE EXTENSION WORK ON O.-W. R. & N.

THREE CREWS OF SURVEYORS ARE NOW WORKING SOUTH FROM BEND

From a reliable authority it is learned that extension work on the O.-W. R. & N. road will begin south from Bend, the present terminus, about the first of the year.

Three crews of surveyors for the above road are now in the field running lines. One crew of 17 men is working 8 miles east of Crescent, and two crews are cross sectioning—one between Bend and La Pine, the other between La Pine and Crescent. It is understood that hurry-up orders have been given the men to push the work along as fast as possible, and it is a safe prediction that by the beginning of 1913 lively construction work will be going on by the O.-W. R. & N. people to push their east and west line across the state to an early completion.

DANGERS OF COCAINE.

Effects of the Constant Use of This Powerful Stimulant.

The most harmful of all habit forming drugs is cocaine. Nothing so quickly deteriorates its victim or provides so short a cut to the insane asylum. It differs from opium in two important ways. A man does not acquire a habit from cocaine in the sense that it is virtually impossible for him to leave it off without medical treatment. He can do so, although he rarely does. On withdrawal he experiences only an intense and horrible depression, together with a physical languor which results in a sleepiness that cannot be shaken off.

Opium withdrawal, on the other hand, results in sleeplessness and extreme nervous and physical disorder. In action, too, cocaine is exactly the opposite of opium, for cocaine is an extreme stimulant. Its stimulus wears off quickly and leaves a corresponding depression, but it confers half an hour of capability of intense effort. That is why bicycle riders, prizefighters and race horses are often doctored or "doped" with cocaine.

When cocaine gives out its victim invariably resorts to alcohol for stimulus. Alcoholics, however, when deprived of alcohol generally drift into the use of morphine.—Charles B. Towns in Century.

HIS MISSING ENVELOPE.

He Learned Where It Was and a Lesson at the Same Time.

This happened in a crowded subway express train the other night. An old man boarded the train at the Fourteenth street station and clung to a strap in front of a young woman who was seated. As none of the men showed a disposition to let the old man sit down, the young woman arose and offered her seat to him.

Before he could sit down a younger man slid into the vacant seat. The young woman was confused, but only for a minute. She leaned down slightly and said to the man in the seat: "You dropped an envelope on the platform, sir."

The man jumped up and elbowed his way to the platform. Half a minute's search failed to reveal the supposed envelope. The man returned to where the young woman was standing and said:

"Say, lady, where is that envelope? I can't find it out there."

"That envelope," replied the young woman, "is in the same place your manners are."

The young man understood and faded from view. The old man got the seat, while the people in the vicinity looked, listened and laughed. — New York Sun.

WANT STORIES OF LARGE SPECIMENS FROM FARMS

This has been a great growing year in the Redmond and Powell Butte Districts and some immense crops have been raised. This paper wants to print stories about any extraordinary yield of any kind or variety of crop, and to that end would like to have the farmers give us the news when they have some big potatoes, beets, squash, corn, melons, etc., and when they have a yield of grain crops that are above the previous years' average. That is the kind of news that shows up a country in good shape.
