

Society Directory

Redmond Lodge No. 110, K. P. Meets every Monday night in Muma's Hall. Visiting Knights are cordially invited.

Redmond Lodge, I. O. O. F. No. 221 Meets every Thursday night in Ehret's hall. Visiting brothers are cordially invited to attend.

RAILROAD TIME CARD Train arrives from north. 7:30 p. m. Train arrives from south. 7:21a. m. H. BAUKOL, Agent.

The J. H. Haner Abstract Co., Inc.

Complete tract indexes and photographic copies of Crook county records. County maps and blue printing. Prineville, Oregon.

BUSINESS LOCALS

Lowney's Chocolates are the best. For sale at the Redmond Pharmacy. 4tf

If you want pure milk or cream phone Tichenor, No. 810. 44tf

Get your screen doors and window screens at the Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co. 50tf

Sharples Separators, best in the world. Sold by Kendall & Chapman, with a guarantee to do the work. 46tf

The BEST bit cigar in the city is the El Sidelo, Lilly size, sold by Smith & Allingham. 2tf

You can win the girl with a box of Lowney's Chocolates. Redmond Pharmacy. 4tf

Smokers who enjoy a good cigar will be able to find same in the El Sidelo, Lilly size, sold by Smith & Allingham. It is the BEST bit cigar in the city. 2tf

Lowney's Chocolates at the Redmond Pharmacy. 4tf

El Sidelo, the BEST bit cigar to be had in Redmond, can be bought at Smith & Allingham's. 2tf

Will take acreage or city property for mortgages. 4tf Wm. G. Phoenix

If you love your wife keep her love by buying her Lowney's Chocolates. The Redmond Pharmacy sells them. 4tf

See the new "Kant Leak Kleets" Genasco Roofing; 1 ply and 2 ply. R. C. Immele. 6tf

If you want to keep posted take The Spokesman—$1.50 a year.

A classified advertisement is a tireless work hunter, and seldom fails.

Wood Wanted Ten cords of good, straight, dry Juniper wood wanted. Apply at The Spokesman office.

For a GOOD SHAVE or HAIR CUT go to H. G. STOCKERT'S at Wyatt's Pool Hall

Swan Erickson & Sons Contractors and Builders Plans, Estimates and Detail Drawings Furnished upon Application REDMOND, ORE.

The Redmond Spokesman

Published every Thursday by H. H. & C. L. PALMER At Redmond, Oregon.

Official Paper of the City of Redmond

SUBSCRIPTION RATES Strictly in Advance One year, $1.50 Three months, 50c Six months, .75 Single copies, 5c

Advertising Rates made known upon application.

Entered as second-class matter July 14, 1910, at the postoffice at Redmond, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 12, 1912

Redmond and Vicinity

Rev. F. Harvey's topic next Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church will be "Man's Problem and Destiny." Topic in the evening: "Phenomena of the Eternal Life."

Last Friday afternoon the children of the Sunday School were very pleasantly entertained at a social in the Presbyterian church. Musical and scriptural exercises were followed by a delightful repast, and a distribution of candies.

J. B. Roe, the new proprietor of the Redmond meat market, has moved with his family into the McCaffery bungalow on the corner of 4th and F streets.

Money to loan on improved farms. Wm. G. Phoenix, Redmond, Oregon. 49tf

It is understood that the John Tuck farm, where the demonstration farm is located, a mile north of the city, has been sold to a man from Centralia, Wn.

C. B. Heywood of Portland, an expert machinist, was here last week making some improvements on the big cylinder press in The Spokesman office. Mr. Heywood likes this part of the state so well that he thinks he will return and buy land here.

Redmond was well supplied with shows last week. Two companies played here, and did a fairly good business.

So far the recent frosts in Crook county have done little or no damage in the Redmond District. We seem to be out of the frost zone, so to speak.

P. C. Holland and family recently moved from the McCaffery bungalow on the corner of 4th and F streets to rooms in the Hotel Redmond.

J. B. Roe of The Dalles, arrived here with his family last week. He has bought the Redmond Meat Market and promises to give the people of this city the best there is to be had in the meat line. He states he will make a specialty of all kinds of sausage, and asks that the public give him a trial order for anything they may need in his line.

Many samples are being received from the farmers in the country for exhibition on Potato Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Templeton of Sisters, were in Redmond today.

The Redmond Farmers' Union met in regular session last Saturday afternoon. A large number of the members attended and several new members joined the order. Much interest was taken in the meeting and it was continued late into the evening. The officers and members of the Union urge all farmers in this district to become members.

The ladies of the Baptist church will serve lunch on Potato Day, October 11th and 12th. Place of serving will be announced later.

N. Nielsen of Terrebonne, was in the city Monday for a few hours on business.

Miss Augusta Hegart and Miss Agnes Pickins, both of Terrebonne, were shopping in Redmond Monday.

Geo. Kohl, the 6th street painter and decorator, left this morning for Portland on a business trip. It is his intention to increase his stock of goods to a considerable extent in order to meet the demands that are being made on him for all kinds of work.

Z. M. Brown was called to Portland Tuesday morning by the illness of his wife.

A party of six from here went to Opal Springs Sunday on a fishing trip, and had excellent luck.

There will be a meeting of the W. C. T. U. at the home of Mrs. Ben Gotter Friday afternoon, Sept. 20th, at 2:30 o'clock. Ladies, please note

The Store that Deserves Your Patronage is the Store that sells up to date Goods

We are Local Agents for WARNER'S RUST PROOF CORSETS, and HAMILTON-BROWN SHOES for Ladies and Men

Lynch & Roberts

THE STORE OF BETTER VALUES and LOWER PRICES

Our Fall Line of Ladies' Ready to Wear Clothing, Coats, Hats, and Underwear far surpasses anything that has been shown heretofore. The quality, style and snap shown in our Tailored Suits and Coats is most satisfying. THE PRICES ARE LOWER THAN EVER BEFORE. We have given lots of time and attention in the selection of the various lines, and can give our customers the same service as received in larger markets.

Millinery Department

The Fashion Makers have for this season created some excellent ideas in the headwear line.

The hats are exceptionally good from many points of view. The materials are not so expensive, and yet most desirable, and the best of all, very becoming.

Tailored Suits and Coats

For this season we are making special efforts in these lines. It is our intention to build up a trade in this department that would be a credit to any city store. Our selections of Suits and Coats have been made with great care. Our prices are as low as is consistent with the quality and style. Do not overlook an opportunity to look these over.

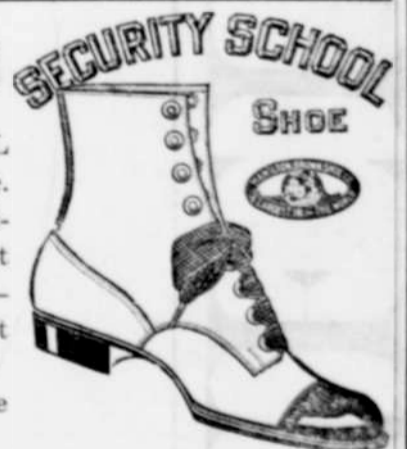

MONDAY SPECIALS MONDAY ONLY

- Regular 15c Kimona Fleece, Monday only 12 1/2c
Tin Top Jely Glasses doz., Monday only 28c
All 25c Neckwear Monday only 19c
Royal Club Can Fruits per can, Monday only 24c

School Shoes That are Good

OUR SECURITY SCHOOL SHOES are neat and durable. We take pains with our children's shoes and give the best possible values for the money—the best shoes made do not last any too long. Our quality and prices are right.

the date and attend as this is an important and necessary meeting. Each lady in attendance will be expected to give us some good suggestions on the topic "How to Make the W. C. T. U. Useful." I urge upon you your assistance.

GRACE GOTTER, Pres.

Joe Buckley, who has a contract for digging 11 miles of ditches on the Albert Wurzweller ranch at Long Hollow, 26 miles northwest of this city, was in town Sunday with some of his crew of men.

Sheriff Balfour was over from Prineville for a few hours the first of the week.

There will be a special meeting at Ehret's hall Saturday at 2:30 p. m. Sept. 14th, for the purpose of perfecting the organization of the Farmers' Union, and devising plans for marketing the potato crop. All farmers are requested to attend as business of importance will come before the meeting.

A socialist speaker gave a talk at Ehret's hall Monday night.

Cashier Slocum of the Redmond Bank of Commerce, was a business visitor at Sisters last week.

A drunken man who was jailed Saturday night whooped and yelled after he was put in the jail so he could be heard all over town for an hour or two.

Grover Sherwood and family who have been living in the Lee Zumwalt cottage on the corner of 9th and A streets, have moved into the McDowell house on north 6th street.

Last Friday and Saturday a party of men from here scoured all over the country in the vicinity of Redmond to try and get on the track of the men who burglarized the safe in Allingham's saloon last Friday early in the morning. The party went as far south as Bend, but could find no trace of the robbers.

Editor Young of the Culver Tribune, accompanied by his wife, was in Redmond last Wednesday night on a business trip.

The Misses Dunn and Richey, who are school teachers here for the coming year, will keep house in the Lee Zumwalt cottage on the corner of 9th and A streets, recently occupied by Grover Sherwood and family.

Wm. Cochran of Brownsville, Or., was here last week looking over the country. He was well pleased with the outlook.

Ashley Forrest, director of the Redmond Concert Band, intends to give a series of social dances this fall and winter, the first dance of the series to be given tonight.

C. J. Sundquist of Lamonta, was in Redmond last Thursday and purchased from Alfred Munz one of the celebrated Dowden Potato Diggers. Mr. Sundquist has in a large acreage of potatoes this year.

G. A. McFarlane LAWYER Practice in all courts and U. S. Land Office Redmond - Oregon