THE REDMOND POTATO AND FAIR OCT. 11-12

One more week and the Second Annual Redmond Potato Show and Fair will be on in full blast. The various committees for the Show have worked diligently to make the Show this year a winner; have offered substantial prizes for all kinds of exhibits, and it is expected that the whole surrounding country will enter the best samples of grain and grasses and root crops they have. The Powell Butte section will undoubtedly send in a strong line of exhibits to compete for prizes, and other sections will also be here with their best products. There will be plenty of space for all exhibits that may be brought in. It is urged upon exhibitors that they bring their exhibits in early to avoid the rush incident to the opening day of an event of this kind. On the dates of the Show a farmers' institute will be held in the evenings—October 11th and 12th. The institutes will be conducted by professors from the Agricultural College, and professors from the same college will act as judges at the Show and award the premiums. Free band concerts will be given each evening of the show, and visitors to the city will be entertained in the free, open hearted manner for which the Redmond people are famous. Remember the dates, October 11 and 12, and come to Redmond and see the best exhibit of potatoes and other farm products that can be produced in Central Oregon.

14 CARS SHEEP SHIPPED OUT

REDMOND HAS CONVENIENT SEPARATING CORRALS FOR SHIPPERS

Fourteen car loads of sheep were shipped from the yards here Tuesday to the Union Meat Co. of Portland. The sheep were sold by N. Williamson of Prineville, and all of them were driven in here from the western part of the county. This is the first large shipment of sheep out of here since the corrals were built adjoining the city on the east. Other large shipments are expected to follow in a few days. The Redmond corrals are the most convenient of any on the line of the railroads in this part of the state, or the entire section of Central Oregon. They are separating corrals and save the sheep men considerable time in separating their sheep for loading for market.

Won From Irrigation Co.— Kirk Whited had a warrant served on him this week charging him with misappropriation of water belonging to the Central Oregon Irrigation Co. The case was tried in a justice court and Mr. Whited won out. Deputy District Attorney Wirtz prosecuted the case and Mr. Whited acted as attorney in his own behalf.

We Can Help You Sell— Usually when you buy something new for the home or office the transaction leaves you with something to sell—something still valuable to somebody. The Spokesman's "For Sale" ads will serve you.

MCFARLANE FOR COUNTY JUDGE

A MAN WHO HAS THE PROPER QUALIFICATIONS FOR THE OFFICE

G. A. McFarlane, the regular Republican candidate for the office of County Judge, has an announcement on page 3 of this issue, that is of interest to voters of Crook county. Mr. McFarlane is a man well fitted and qualified to fill the office of County Judge, and is the ONLY candidate who is an attorney, besides being a capable business man. The office of County Judge should be filled by a man well versed in law, as many points of law come up in that office in the transaction of business, and also in the office of probate judge, which office the County Judge also fills. Mr. McFarlane is capable in these matters and when elected will give the people of Crook county an administration of the affairs of the office that will be satisfactory to the most exacting. The office of County Judge requires a good, capable business man and lawyer, and G. A. McFarlane is the man who can fill the bill.

At the primary election Mr. McFarlane received 105 votes out of 110 cast in Redmond precinct, and is the almost unanimous choice of the citizens of Redmond, all rumors and assertions to the contrary notwithstanding.

Nothing to Advertise— People are coming to realize that the store which has nothing to advertise has nothing to repay a shopper for their time in visiting it. Only the offer of real values makes store advertising worth while for the store, or worth the attention of the ad reader.

SUICIDE WITH CARBOLIC ACID

SHEEP HERDER TAKES HIS LIFE HERE IN A ROOMING HOUSE

Last Thursday afternoon Thomas Rinquette, better known around here as "Frenchy," died in a room at the Redmond Grill from the effects of drinking two ounces of carbolic acid. Mr. Murray, proprietor of the Grill, discovered the man's condition in early afternoon and called in a physician, but the effect of the drug had taken too strong a hold on the man's system and it was impossible to save his life. The man had been drinking and it is thought the suicide was premeditated as the carbolic acid was bought at Sisters some time before the man came here.

Rinquette was pretty well known in this section. He had recently been herding sheep for the Black Butte Co. As far as known he had no relatives in this part of the state.

fully equipped with all the latest accessories that can be had. An engine and dynamo will furnish good light for the pictures and patrons of the house will find that their convenience has been consulted in every particular. A stage has been built in the rear of the place to accommodate show companies.

Redmond will soon have one of the best moving picture houses in Central Oregon.

POWELL BUTTE MAN IS KILLED

LOADED GRAIN WAGON ON WAY TO BEND RUNS OVER CHAS. GRAVES

Powell Butte, Oct. 2. (Special.)—While on his way to Bend Tuesday morning Chas. Graves was run over and almost instantly killed by a wagon loaded with wheat which he was taking to Bend to sell for Lee Hobbs. The team belonged to Mr. Hobbs and were a pair of mules, and it is that when they started running the load slipped, causing Mr. Graves to lose his balance and in some manner to fall beneath the heavily loaded wagon. Geo. Hobbs, who was also taking wheat to Bend, and was only a short distance behind the unfortunate man, says he heard the rumble of the wagon as the mules were running, but thought nothing more of it until he came upon sacks of grain by the road side. Thinking some accident might have occurred, Mr. Hobbs hitched his horses and started on foot in pursuit of the running team. Passing around a curve in the road he was confronted by the body of Mr. Graves lying just as the heavy wagon had passed over it. The body was taken to Powell Butte Station by order of the coroner, and was held there until afternoon when it was taken to Prineville by the Lipman Undertaking people to be prepared for burial.
