Trip to Portland— Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Hess left Monday morning for a business trip to Portland, and expect to remain all the week.

Attended Dairy Show— G. A. Bradley left yesterday for Portland to attend the Northwest Land and Dairy Show being held in that city this week.

Shopping Here Saturday— Mrs. Geo. C. Truesdale, representative of The Spokesman at Powell Butte, was in Redmond last Saturday shopping with the merchants.

Money to loan on improved farms. Wm. G. Phoenix, Redmond, Oregon.

Recorder Has License Tags— December 1st the dog license ordinance goes into effect, and after that date all dogs must wear a collar and have a license tag attached, or be taken to the pound.

Adding to His Herd— Last week G. A. Bradley added to his herd of registered Duroc Jerseys a young Duroc Jersey boar pig from the Ross Clark herd at McMinville.

Thanksgiving Sermon— The annual Thanksgiving sermon will be preached at the Presbyterian church here next Sunday evening by Rev. Harvey.

Blue Barley Does Well— Robert McSherry sold to a farmer in the Powell Butte district a sack of blue barley weighing 117 pounds. The barley was sown on three acres and when threshed the yield was 147 bushels.

Gave Good Program— The literary and musical entertainment at the Presbyterian church last Friday night, given by the Ladies' Guild, was interesting throughout and reflected credit upon those taking part, and also the ones having the affair in charge.

Read the Water Ordinance— The water ordinance is published elsewhere in this issue, and every property owner and water user should read it carefully and become conversant with its provisions.

Here Looking for Land— H. Dopps of Grange, Wn., and G. H. Clark of Salem, were here Monday looking over the country with a view of buying land.

Lakeview Editor Here— Editor Rice of the Lakeview Herald, was in Redmond last Saturday. This was his first visit to the "Hub City" and he was surprised to see such a bustling, busy little city with such a good class of buildings.

Borrow, Beg or Steal— It has come to the notice of The Spokesman that some people who do not like the policy of the paper, or the publishers, either borrow, beg or steal a copy of the paper every week in order to see what the news is, and whether the paper has "slandered" any one.

Special Features Draw Well— The special features at the Sparks Theater last Friday night proved a drawing card, and the house was well filled. Among the features of note was the singing by Ike Buckley, brass quartet by four members of the Redmond band, and the pie eating contest by four boys.

Barn Dance Was Novel— The barn dance at the Sparks last Saturday night was a novel affair and drew a good crowd of dancers. The moonlight dance made a decided hit, and real attraction of pies, introduced as a surprise on the management, "caught" the house.

Conference of S. S. Workers— On Thursday afternoon and evening at the Presbyterian church Revs. D. J. Milligan and G. M. Williams of Portland, and Rev. J. Vernon of Milton, Ore., will give addresses on important aspects of Sunday School work.
