Topic of Sermon—

The first of the series of Pre-Advent sermons will be given at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning, entitled: "Universal Anticipations Awakened and Supplied." Evening topic: "The Supreme Friendship."

Makes Fuel Men Glad—

The recent cold snap the first of the week sent the thermometer down several degrees and made business good for the wood and coal men

In From Lower Bridge—

L. A. Hunt, a former resident of this city, but now farming near Lower Bridge, was in town Monday trading and greeting old friends.

Money to loan on improved farms. Wm. G. Phoenix, Redmond, Oregon. 49tf

Back in Store Again—

Miss Myrtle Butler has resumed her position in Lynch & Roberts' department store after being away for several weeks on account of undergoing an operation.

Eggs are Soaring—

The price of fresh eggs in this city are now up to 50 cents a dozen, and the hens not doing much even at that price. Packed eggs are at 45 cents per dozen.

Soon Have Water—

City Engineer Woodward states that the new water plant will be completed in about three weeks, and possibly two. Delays have been occasioned by the slow arrival of material and unforeseen difficulties in construction work.

Liked the Redmond Weather—

Gus Broderick of Jonesboro, Tenn. was here last week looking over the country, and was delighted with the mild, pleasant weather here. He said even his own country, in the "Sunny South," could not beat us for acceptable fall climate.

Killed Powell Butte Rabbits—

A party of Redmond hunters, J. W. Brewer, R. C. Immele, G. E. Dobson, Al Wright, W. G. Phoenix and C. R. McLallin killed 175 rabbits the fore part of the week in the Powell Butte District. S. D. Mustard, the well known Powell Butte farmer, entertained the hunters at a chicken dinner after the hunt.

Much Wood Coming In—

Now that the farmers have finished the bulk of their fall and early winter work they have time to haul wood to town. The wood market, which a week or ten days ago showed a scarcity of fuel, is now well supplied. Considerable red juniper is being brought in and meets with ready sale.

New Pulpit Bible Presented—

Last Sunday evening the congregation of the Presbyterian church heartily sang the hymn "Holy Bible, Book Divine," and passed a cordial vote of thanks for the new pulpit bible presented by a lady in Portland, through Rev. Dr. Milligan. It has a large, clear print and contains the authorized and revised versions of the New Testament. The pastor, F. Harvey, expressed his high appreciation of this most appropriate gift

Doing Much Blasting—

Workmen who are laying the mains for the new water system have been doing much blasting in some parts of the trenches the past week. In some places continued and heavy blasting hardly makes an impression on the basalt rock. One section of trench cost the contractors a dollar a foot to blast deep enough for the mains.

Fine November Weather—

The month of November this year has been the most sunny and moderate in the history of Redmond and this part of Central Oregon. Up to Tuesday of this week no snow had fallen, the days have been warm and pleasant, and the nights only moderately cold. Can't beat this part of Oregon for enjoyable weather.

Horse Killed in Runaway—

Last Saturday afternoon a team belonging to Allen Wilcoxen of Powell Butte, became frightened at something at the depot and ran away. They collided with a pile of lumber in the Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co's yard and one of the horses was killed. The other horse was not injured.

City Election Monday—

Monday, Dec. 2d, is city election day, at which time a mayor and four councilmen are to be voted for. J.

F. Hosch is the only candidate for mayor. For one year councilmen H. F. Jones and W. G. Phoenix are candidates. For two year councilmen M. A. Lynch, R. C. Immele, Robert McSherry and C. N. Ehret are the candidates. Much interest is being taken in this election by both the supporters of the Citizens' and Peoples' tickets.

To Whom It May Concern—

Since I have been chosen as a candidate for re-election to the City Council the question has been raised by some as to whether I intend remaining in Redmond. I have considerable property interests in Redmond and have been in business here for more than six years. I have no plans for leaving the city, nor do I anticipate leaving Redmond.

Very truly, C. N. EHRET. 2111

Bought Some Fine Steers —

J. B. Roe of this city, recently bought 20 head of fine beef steers from the Black Butte Cattle ranch for his meat market here.

Open for Business—

The Terrebonne Co-Operative Creamery will be opened for business Saturday, November 30, on and after which date we will be prepared to receive cream. We guarantee to pay Portland market price for butter fat, and more if the manufactured product market will warrant.

The Association is a co-operative institution and we hope to put this appellation to such practical use as to convince cream producers that it will pay to patronize us.

"Courteous treatment, fair weight and just tests" is our motto. Give us a trial. TERREBONNE CO-OPERATIVE CREAMERY ASSN., 2111 Terrebonne, Oregon.

Garage Firm Dissolves—

The firm of Hess & Reedy of the Central Oregon Garage, has dissolved partnership. Mr. Hess retiring, and Mr. Reedy continuing the business. Mr. Hess expects to go to California before long on account of his wife's health.

Election Board Named—

The city council Tuesday night appointed the following men on the election board to serve at the city election Monday, Dec. 2: G. W. Farria, J. H. Mendenhall, H. N. Lewis, Judges. R. L. Skee, J. C. Williams, clerks.

Visited Relatives Here—

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Templeton of Sisters, were here Tuesday visiting relatives and friends.

Mendenhall Sold Out—

J. H. Mendenhall, who has been in the news and confectionery business here for the past two years and a half, this week sold his store to Grover Sherwood. Mr. Mendenhall intends to leave some time next week for Seattle where he has secured a good position.

Ready in Two Weeks—

The Spokesman has been informed by one of the construction officials of the Jacobs electric light line that the new plant will be in operation in about two weeks. The plant generates light and power at Cline Falls, and will give a 24 hour service.

Dissolution of Partnership

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between G. W. Hess and Perry Reedy was, by mutual consent, dissolved on October 28, 1912, Perry Reedy continuing the business and assuming all liabilities and collecting all accounts from the above date. G. W. HESS, PERRY REEDY 2113
