Nothing to Advertise

People are coming to realize that the store which has nothing to advertise has nothing to repay a shopper for their time in visiting it. Only the offer of real values makes store advertising worth while for the store, or worth the attention of the ad reader.

Redmond and Vicinity

C. H. Baggott has started a quick delivery express and transfer line in the city, and already is getting his share of the business. Mr. Baggott is well known and liked by the business men of Redmond.

Story Left Bill Out

In the story last week of the Redmond hunters who went to Powell Butte rabbit hunting, the name of Wm. Leavitt was unintentionally omitted. "Bill" was there with bells on and shot his share of cotton tails.

Met With Serious Accident

On Monday while R. K. Olson, a carpenter, was working on the new potato warehouse, he had the misfortune to fall through the breaking of a beam, sustaining a painful injury of three ribs being torn. Dr. Hosch attended him, and the local K. P. lodge aided him with kind service during Monday night at the home of Chaplain Ordway.
