COAL IS CHEAPEST

Those in the city who have used the soft coal sold by R. McSherry, state that it is cheaper than wood. Thorough tests have been made and the results have been satisfactory. The coal keeps a good fire all night or all day, when properly used in a coal stove. If interested see R. McSherry. 23tf

Owing to the fact that many people do their Christmas shopping at night, Lynch & Roberts will keep their store open evenings until after Xmas. 23t2

NOTICE

All reading matter, notices, etc. for entertainments from which revenue is to be derived, will be charged regular advertising rates in The Spokesman.

"Bill" in Grill Again—
W. E. Young, "Bill," has taken the Redmond Grill in charge again. G. W. Weddle having given up his lease on the place.

Selling Horses, Etc.—
A. M. Overturf of Sisters, was in town Monday. He will prove up on his land the 30th of the month, and is advertising in The Spokesman his horses and farm machinery for sale.

Masonic Initiation—
Last Friday night the local Masonic lodge initiated a candidate into the order. About 20 Measons of Prineville came over to assist in the work.

Agent for B. S. Cook—
F. W. McCaffery returned Sunday night from Portland where he had been on business. While there he made arrangements to act as agent for the B. S. Cook Co. in this city in handling their townsite property.

Giving Genuine Bargains—
Attention is called to the page ad in this issue of Freeburg Bros., who are offering to the people of this city and vicinity genuine bargains in groceries, shoes, clothing, etc. A careful reading of their ad will be of interest to anyone who wants to save money.

Laborers Wanted Raise—
Some of the laborers, ground men, employed in putting in the electric light line from Cline Falls to this city, struck Monday for more pay. They had been getting $2.50 a day of nine hours, and asked for $3.00 a day. The light company would not grant their demands.

Gone to Portland—
H. F. Meyer of the Redmond Creamery, has gone to Portland for a short time to see about the selling end of his butter.

Topic of Sermons—
The second Pre-Advent sermon will be preached at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning, entitled: "Universal Light and Peace for the World." Evening topic: "The Value of Divine Thoughts."

McLallin Kept Busy—
C. R. McLallin, the city plumber, is kept busy these days putting water pipes at houses and stores so as to be in readiness to quickly connect with the mains when the water is turned on by the new system. 23tf

Looked Good to Lee—
Lee Zumwalt was over from Sisters the first of the week. He said it looked mighty good to him to see so many improvements going on in Redmond—new water system, new electric light and power plant, etc.

Lights for Depot—
It is understood that the Oregon Trunk railway will put in about 20 electric lights at the depot here as soon as the new light plant gets to operating. It is the intention to put plenty of lights inside the depot and on the depot grounds.

Is Good Road Builder—
W. E. Claypool of Cline Falls, is said by those who know, to be one of the best road builders in this part of Crook county. A piece of road near the city that Mr. Claypool recently built is pronounced the best in the county.

Attending Court—
Attorneys J. A. Wilcox and G. A. McFarlane were in Prineville the fore part of the week attending the special session of the circuit court.

Shipped Out Wheat—
The Farmers' Union of this city shipped a car load of wheat on the 6th to Portland, and several more car loads are to follow soon.

Read the Ads—
Don't worry over the fact that, by reading the ads you might have saved a few dollars on last week's purchases, but get interested in the fact that the same thing is true of your next purchases.

Advertising Must Grow—
No store in this city can GROW—or even "hold its own"—nowadays unless its advertising GROWS. That is the new law, based upon the better education of the people in BUYING.

Remodeling Postoffice—
Postmaster Moore has had the interior of the Redmond postoffice remodeled this week, which makes a decided change for the better in the appearance of the place. The boxes have been changed around, and the delivery and money order windows moved.

Juniper Circle Meeting—
On December 4 the Juniper Reading Circle studied Hawthorne's writings, at the home of Mrs. Phoenix, responding to roll call with titles of the author's books. After the business meeting Mrs. Roberts read a paper on Hawthorne's life, followed by "A Review of the Scarlet Letter and a Study of Puritan Conscience" by Mrs. McMickle. Mrs. Phoenix gave notes on Hawthorne's peculiar genius and his place among the novelists, and the program concluded with a reading of "The Great Stone Face" by Mrs. Osborne. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Irvin on December 18. Memorized stanzas from Longfellow are to be given in answer to roll call.

Going to Leave City—
G. M. Stocum, cashier of the Redmond Bank of Commerce, has resigned his position, and expects to leave the city shortly after. He has not yet decided where he will locate, having several good openings in view. He has disposed of most of his property in the city.

Olson Is Out Again—
R. K. Olson, the carpenter who recently sustained injuries at the big warehouse that is being built at the railroad on E street, has so far recovered as to be able to be on the streets again. He is still feeling under the weather from his injuries, and it will be some time before he will be able to go to work.

Weekly Weather Report—
Through the kindness of T. G. Stevens, co-operative weather observer at the Redmond Experimental Farm, the Spokesman will be able to print weekly weather reports of the weather, and also a monthly report. This will be of interest to people in this section who desire to keep in touch with climatic conditions in Redmond and this section.

R. R. Business Good—
Railroad business at this point on both the Oregon Trunk and O.-W. R. & N. lines has been extremely satisfactory this fall and early winter, and the indications are favorable for an increase during the balance of the winter months. Practically none of the potato crop has yet been moved in this section, and that alone will amount to considerable for the two roads running out of the city. Money to loan on improved farms. Wm. G. Phoenix, Redmond, Oregon. 49tf

Been Visiting Relatives—
Mrs. W. H. Hobbs and daughter are expected to return home tomorrow night from an extended visit in Nebraska with relatives and friends.

Will Winter in Seattle—
Mrs. Frances Wright, who lives west of the city, left yesterday for Seattle, where she expects to remain the balance of the winter. She has leased her 40-acre farm near the city to Mrs. Fell.

Taking Out Licenses—
About 20 dog licenses have been taken out up to date. There are a large number of dogs in the city not yet licensed, and the marshal states he will impound them if their owners do not comply at once with the license law.

HE ADVERTISED—AT LAST

There was a man in our town, And he was wondrous wise; He swore (it was his policy) He would not advertise. But one sad day he advertised, And thereby hangs a tale. The ad was set in quite small type And headed "Sheriff's Sale."

Wanted to Carve Him—
A couple of laborers here got into a fight Monday, and one got worsted. This fellow went into the kitchen of the Redmond Grill and got a big butcher knife, declaring his intention of carving the other fellow up. The knife was taken away before the man had a chance to perform with it.

Probably the author of a book reads it after a year or two with as much regret as he reads an old love letter he has written.

Dissolution of Partnership

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between G. W. Heas and Perry Reedy was, by mutual consent, dissolved on October 28, 1912, Perry Reedy continuing the business and assuming all liabilities and collecting all accounts from the above date.

G. W. HEAS,
2112 PERRY REEDY

December 11th.

DEAR FRIEND:

Don't you like to bite into a juicy orange?

I like oranges, too, when they are sliced. You can make lots of things out of oranges, and then the peeling comes in handy.

Some oranges are nicer than others. This morning I bought a dozen of the nicest, prettiest oranges I ever tasted for 40 cents a dozen.

Your friend,

JACOB.

P. S. They had such lovely fruit and so many different kinds of it this morning down at

Hobb's
