

Free Fruit Land at Paisley

Don't be afraid of U. S. Government Carey Act Irrigation projects in Oregon. The day of irresponsible irrigation companies in this state is past. When the Northwest Townsite Co. of Philadelphia took over the Paisley Project, in Lake county, it gave the largest bond ever given in the state—$50,000—guaranteeing completion of the project. Every three months it makes an itemized statement of expenses to the Desert Land Board. All of its advertising books, maps, contracts, subscription agreements and literature is submitted to the Desert Land Board for inspection before being issued.

The land is level, free from rock, and is a rich volcanic ash soil. The climate is perfect for fruit, which now grows to perfection at Paisley—apples, peaches, plums, pears, prunes.

Construction work upon the dam and reservoir has now been in progress for three months, with Thomas Hawthorn, state inspector, on the ground. He was formerly with the U. S. Govt. Reclamation Service on the Umatilla Project.

Send for 32-page illustrated book. Go to Paisley by automobile stage from Bend and see the land. Our agent at Paisley, Hugh K. Gilmour, will show you the land. It is free to those who pay the cost of putting water on it.

Northwest Townsite Co. are among the largest taxpayers in Oregon, owning townsite sub-divisions at Prineville, Madras, Redmond, Bend, Burns, Vale and also the 840-acre Conn Ranch at Paisley, including a 50-barrel-a-day capacity flour mill, and a general store.

POWELL BUTTE

December 10.

Bert Reynolds came home Saturday from the alfalfa country where he has been baling hay for the past two weeks.

J. L. Gibson closed a deal last week whereby he acquires title to a forty acre farm near Laidlaw, in exchange for some property in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Harold Cook and sister, Miss Lucille, of Prineville, were visitors at the Bussett home Sunday.

Lee Davenport and wife were guests at the Frank Bayn home several days the past week.

S. D. and W. S. Mustard are pulling trees on the Ferguson place at the present time.

E. A. Bussett transacted business relative to the late Richard Meyer estate, of which Mr. Bussett is administrator, in Prineville last Friday.

Will Brown was a Prineville visitor Friday.

Norman Davis of Portland, came in last week and will make his future home with H. K. Allen. This should prove a great country for boys who are tired of city ways.

N. P. Alley was made aware of some of the pleasures of living last Thursday when he surveyed the dinner table loaded with a fine roast turkey and all the trimmings which Mrs. A had prepared in honor of his birthday.

Mrs. Allen Willcoxon visited Friday and Saturday with Mrs. Wm. Nanny at the latter's homestead in the Black Butte district.

J. J. Ellinger bought a thoroughbred Duroc Jersey hog of Geo. L. Brazee last week.

J. T. Doughty of Prineville, and Mrs. William Nanny of Deschutes, were Powell Butte visitors Sunday, the guests of Allen Willcoxon and wife.

Miss Gladys Bayn, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Willcoxon, Hazel Bayn, Roy Bussett and Alvin Riggs attended the Saturday night dance in Redmond last week.

The county surveyor and staff are busy running lines in this locality this week.

A. H. Rohde and Geo. Kissler were business visitors in Prineville Monday.

Allen Willcoxon went to Prineville Monday, where he will be busy "courting" for the balance of the week.

With continued open weather, such as we have enjoyed so far this fall and winter, the prospects are there will be hay and to spare in this section when spring comes.

N. P. Alley and Geo. Brazee were visitors at the county seat Monday.

SAW TRACES OF OIL IN DESCHUTES RIVER

An old miner and oil prospector of this city who lately inspected the new water system, says he discovered traces of coal oil near the pumping plant at the Deschutes river, and thinks there is likelihood of oil in the near vicinity. A party from Redmond is going to investigate the matter.

YOUNG HAS THE GRILL RESTAURANT AGAIN

W. E. Young, owner of the Redmond Grill, is again running the place himself, and wishes to have all of his old patrons call on him when they want good meals, gotten up in an appropriate style.

ALL SORTS

The office of chief ruler was once offered to the highest bidder. The man who bid in the royal palace and the right to occupy it, proposed to raise the purchase price by taxation. One dissatisfied farmer asked the new king: "By what argument do you justify this action?" The new king pointed to the army, and replied: "My argument is 20,000 of the swords you see." The argument prevailed; soldiers were the politicians in those days.

The farmers were meant when the term "workingman" was originally used; they are the real thing when it comes to working long hours at low pay. Yet they have never struck but twice: the Populist year, and the Granger year, and the town men soon settled both walkouts.

In a fist fight the aggressor is always the larger man of the two; the little man fights in the hope that the crowd will pull the big man off before he can do much damage.

Probably you know a man who does petty things "just for meanness." Let us make a prediction about him: he will gradually become bolder, and land in jail.

If your neighbors talk about you, it's a shame people gossip without reason about a man who always desires to do what's right with everybody.

A man going through bankruptcy is another case of a man trying to come back.
