Juniper Circle Meeting

On Dec. 18th the Juniper Club met at the home of Mrs. Irvin, responding to roll call with memorized stanzas from Longfellow. Readings from Hiawatha were given by Mrs. Rodman, followed by some of the author's shorter poems, given by Mrs. DeSouza, and a paper on Longfellow's life and character by Mrs. Willcox concluded the program. An evening social meeting to which husbands of the members are invited, will take place at the home of Mrs. Hanks on January 1st. At the next regular meeting, at the home of Mrs. Jones, answer to roll call will be lines from Whittier.

Early and Sudden Death

Mrs. Catherine Reich, beloved wife of Ernest F. Reich of Culver, apparently underwent a successful operation by Drs. Hosch and Rodemeyer, for serious complications early last week, but nervous prostration followed with fatal consequences on Saturday, Dec. 21st. Mrs. Reich was 38 years of age, and came from Scotland when about 13 years old. The funeral was held at the Presbyterian church on Monday morning, interment being made in the Redmond cemetery. Mrs. Wallingburg, her sister, and her husband hereby tender their sincere thanks to friends for sympathy and floral offerings in their bereavement.

They Ate Turkey

A sumptuous Xmas dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. S. Synder, when three turkeys were devoured principally by Jim Green and Cy Buckingham. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Alex Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Staun and Mr. and Mrs. Cy Buckingham. The evening was passed in singing and telling Xmas and fish stories.

Fine Christmas Program

A very fine program was executed by the children of the Sunday School at the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening. At the close of the exercises each child received a gift. The ornamentation of the Christmas tree was very elaborate, and the log hearth much admired.
