NOTICE

All reading matter, notices, etc. for entertainments from which revenue is to be derived, will be charged regular advertising rates in The Spokesman.

Chicken Pie Dinner and Supper—
The Ladies' Guild of the Presbyterian church will give a chicken pie dinner and a supper on Saturday, January 18th, the last day of the Poultry Show here, in the Commercial Club room. Price 35 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

Mild Winter Weather—
The winter weather in this section up to the first of the year was very mild. By consulting the weekly and monthly weather reports published in The Spokesman it will be seen the lowest temperature in December was 28 degrees above zero.

Electricians Are Busy—
Since the new electric light system began operations last Thursday electricians in the city have been at work wiring stores and residences for new lights.

Money to loan on improved farms. Wm. G. Phoenix, Redmond, Oregon. 491t

Dedication Tomorrow—
Tomorrow, Friday, afternoon and evening is the date of the dedication of the Farmers' Union Potato Warehouse at this point. It is expected a large crowd of people from all parts of the county, and especially in the Redmond and Powell Butte districts will be present and assist in the exercises.

Located at Madras—
A party of homeseekers from Centralia, Wa., recently located on dry farming land near Madras. The Madras Pioneer says more Washington people will locate in that vicinity in the spring.

New Hose House—
A building has been built near the Commercial Club room to house the two new hose carts. The chemical engine house is right alongside the hose house.

School in Session Again—
The Redmond public schools opened Monday after being closed for two weeks for the holidays.

Auto Stage to Sisters—
Sisters Herald: R. P. Scheuer, manager of the Prineville-Redmond Auto Co., was a caller at this office last Sunday. Mr. Scheuer is figuring on putting on an auto to run between Sisters and Redmond twice a week.

Bill Buckley Hurt—
Word was received here Thursday last that W. J. Buckley, a former resident of this city but now ranching near Cloverdale, had met with an accident there while using a stump puller. He injured his knee so severely that surgical aid from here was called.

A Correction—
In a former issue of The Spokesman it was stated that W. E. Young furnished the supper for the New Year's mask ball held at the Sparks theater. Mr. Young says his restaurant was rented for the occasion by Jack Spratt, who served the supper.

Visited Old Friends—
J. P. Doherty, a former resident of the city, but now assistant in the assessor's office at Prineville, was in Redmond Tuesday shaking hands with old friends. He visited The Spokesman office before leaving the city and congratulated us on having the best printing plant in Central Oregon.

Made New Road—
Tom A. Vedder and son, I. D. Vedder, who live at Lower Bridge, made 2999 feet of highway over the Allen Ridge the first week of the new year, which shortens the distance 4 miles from the Vedder place to Redmond. This road will be used by a number of residents of the Lower Bridge section.

First Parcel Here—
The Redmond Creamery Co. was the first in Redmond to receive a package by parcel post. The package was a milk can shipped from Venora on the Oregon Trunk line north of here.

Here From Spokane—
M. P. Bates, general agent of the Western Union Life Insurance Co. of Spokane, arrived here Monday evening for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bates. This is Mr. Bates' first visit to this part of Central Oregon.

Current Too Strong—
When the "juice" was first turned on the wires from the new electric lighting system that generates its power at Cline Falls, a number of electric light globes in the city were put out of commission. The current was too strong, but now the current has been properly reduced for the system.

Expect to Locate Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Dorser have recently sold their homestead after seven years' occupation in Alberta, and are now with their five children residing in the western part of town. They expect to buy land in this section in the near future.

Will Reduce Insurance—
A representative of the Insurance Underwriters of Portland was in the city yesterday looking over the different risks, in order to report to the Underwriters. The man stated that as soon as the new water system was in operation the insurance rates in the city would be materially reduced.

Two Inches of Snow—
Tuesday night this section was visited by a two inch snow fall. So far this winter the snow fall has been very light, not near as heavy as last year.

Keep Copies of Your Letters—
To keep in touch with your business at all times you should keep copies of all letters written. The Spokesman has copy paper especially designed for that purpose, that sells at a reasonable rate.

Juniper Circle Meeting—
The Juniper Reading Circle met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Osborne. A very pleasant time was passed with Whittier's poems, concluding with several vocal and instrumental selections by Mrs. Phoenix, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Roberts. Light refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held on the 22nd at the home of Mrs. McMickle.

Topic for Sunday—
Sunday school at the Presbyterian church at 10 a. m. Evening preaching next Sunday at 8 p. m. Topic: "Qualities of the Well Beloved Disciple."

Family Arrived Here—
Mrs. G. A. Bradley and her three children yesterday returned from a visit with relatives and friends at Los Angeles.

Attend Initiation—
R. C. Immele and J. B. Roe expect to go to The Dalles Saturday to attend the initiatory exercises of some candidates into the Knights of Columbus lodge there. A party of Bend people will also attend.

Read the Ads—
Don't worry over the fact that, by reading the ads you might have saved a few dollars on last week's purchases, but get interested in the fact that the same thing is true of your next purchases.

POULTRY SHOW OPENS
HERE ON WEDNESDAY

The first annual exhibition of the Redmond Poultry Association will open here in the Muma building on the corner of 6th and F streets, next Wednesday, January 15th, and continue the balance of the week. Entries of birds have been coming in at a satisfactory rate during the past week, and the success of the show is assured. Everything has been done by the officers of the show to make this an attractive event.

During the four days of the show a large attendance is predicted from all parts of the county. Indications now point to over 300 exhibits of all kinds of birds.
